The Dare That Started Us Maeve Reed, A dare. A fake one-month relationship. What could possibly go wrong? When quiet, reserved Momo Bennett is roped into a silly game of Truth or Dare, the last thing she expects is to be challenged to be someone's girlfriend for a month. The even bigger surprise? The person issuing the challenge is Eliot Harrison—the charismatic, wealthy, and notoriously unattainable star of the School of Mines. What begins as a simple bet quickly spirals into something far more complex. Forced to navigate campus gossip, clashing personalities, and their own guarded hearts, Momo and Eliot find the line between pretend and reality blurring. But with Eliot's graduation and departure abroad looming, and Momo's own troubled family secrets threatening the surface, their fragile connection is put to the test. Can a relationship born from a dare survive the real world? Three Days in June is a captivating story of love, vulnerability, and the unexpected journey of finding your true self in the arms of someone you never saw coming.
