Trade eBooks in Libraries Paul Whitney, Christina Castell, 2016-12-05 With the advent of downloadable retail eBooks marketed to individual consumers, for the first time in their history libraries encountered an otherwise commercially available text format they were prevented from adding to their collections. Trade eBooks in Libraries examines the legal frameworks which gave rise to this phenomenon and advocacy efforts undertaken in different jurisdictions to remove barriers to library access. The principal authors provide a general historical overview and an analysis of library/eBook principles developed by a variety of library associations and government reviews. In addition, experts from twelve countries present summaries of eBook developments in their respective countries and regions.

Kidnapped Dina Meza, 2015-08-14 Freedom of expression in Honduras has been kidnapped. Those who are afraid of the truth attempt to imprison it in the depths of the earth. Kidnapped seeks to expose the problems for freedom of expression in journalism and literature in Honduras, the forms of censorship that have been introduced to conceal the truth, but also the creativity of Hondurans who refuse to be defeated in the face of this oppressive system. Kidnapped describes how the Honduran state, responsible for protecting this right, essential for democracy, has both in the past and present placed obstacles in the paths of those who decide to defy censorship, with harmful and even fatal consequences. The Honduran journalist and human rights defender Dina Meza (1963) is active on the field of freedom of writing in different ways. She is currently President of PEN Honduras, part of PEN International, and director of the pasosdeanimalgrande.com digital newspaper which covers freedom of expression issues and the general human rights situation in Honduras. Dina Meza received Amnesty International UK's Journalism Under Threat Award in 2007 and the PEN International/Oxfam Novib Freedom of Expression award in 2014. Also in 2014, she was one of Reporters without Borders' 100 Information Heroes and a nominee for the Index on Censorship Freedom of Expression Awards. A publication of the Eva Tas Foundation. The Eva Tas Foundation encourages publication and promotion of texts that are, no matter where and no matter how, subject to censorship.

Innovación docente en didáctica de la lengua y la literatura: teoría e investigación Pilar Núñez Delgado, Irene Alonso Aparicio, 2015-11-06 El libro recoge varias aportaciones surgidas de un proyecto de innovación de la docencia universitaria desarrollado en la Universidad de Granada. El principal propósito de este ha sido dar a conocer —en el plano teórico y principalmente en la práctica— a los estudiantes de los grados de Maestro de Educación Infantil y de Maestro de Educación Primaria estrategias metodológicas adecuadas para el desarrollo de la competencia comunicativa y literaria de los escolares, dado que el ámbito de innovación que parece más rentable para lograr tales metas es, sin duda, el de la metodología. Esta metodología, entendida como el conjunto de criterios y decisiones que organiza la acción didáctica y que define el estilo educativo del docente, lejos de ser un elemento menor, es la clave para la implementación del necesario cambio que contribuya a desterrar el gramaticalismo y el historicismo que aún imperan en nuestras aulas. Los trabajos aquí compilados pueden ser útiles, por una parte, tanto para los docentes en ejercicio como para los que se preparan para serlo, especialmente para los de lengua y literatura. Además, también pueden guiar a profesores universitarios que forman a futuros docentes.

Writing the Land, Writing Humanity Charles M. Pigott,2020-03-12 The Maya Literary Renaissance is a growing yet little-known literary phenomenon that can redefine our understanding of literature universally. By analyzing eight representative texts of this new and vibrant literary movement, the book argues that the texts present literature as a trans-species phenomenon that is not reducible only to human creativity. Based on detailed textual analysis of the literature in both Maya and Spanish as well as first-hand conversations with the writers themselves, the book develops the first conceptual map of how literature constantly emerges from wider creative patterns in nature. This process, defined as literary inhabitation, is explained by synthesizing core Maya cultural concepts with diverse philosophical, literary, anthropological and biological theories. In the context of the Yucatan Peninsula, where the texts come from, literary inhabitation is presented as an integral part of bioregional becoming, the evolution of the Peninsula as a constantly unfolding dialogue.

Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier,Christopher Alan Waterman,Yudhishtir Raj Isar,2010-02-11 Volume 3 of the Cultures & Globalization series, Creativity and Innovations, explores the interactions between globalization and the forms of cultural expression that are their basic resource. Bringing together over 25 high-profile authors from around the world, this volume addresses such questions as: What impacts does globalization have on cultural creativity and innovation? How is the evolving world 'map' of creativity related to the drivers and patterns of globalization? What are the relationships between creative acts, clusters, genres or institutions and cultural diversity?

The Voice and the Void Miriam Fernández Santiago, 2005 The Voice and the Void es una monografía sobre la justificación o legitimización de la referencialidad del lenguaje. Se parte de supuesta falta de legitimidad de la representación lingüística mediante una reflexión sobre casos extremos de irrepresentabilidad--tales como los discursos humorístico, religioso, científico y filosófico--a lo largo de la historia para llegar a la crítica postmoderna y discutir dicha falta de legitimidad aplicando una lógica basada en la doble negación implícita a la legitimación de la referencialidad lingüística.

Las ferias del libro como espacios de negociación cultural y económica Marco Thomas Bosshard, Fernando García Naharro, 2019 Las contribuciones de este volumen entablan un diálogo entre la academia y los profesionales del sector editorial en torno a las ferias del libro entendiéndolas como espacios de negociación político-cultural, estético-mediática y económica. Para ello se centran en los casos más significativos del ámbito europeo e iberoamericano: la Feria del Libro de Madrid y LIBER (España), la Feria Internacional del Libro de Guadalajara (México) y la Feria del Libro de Frankfurt (Alemania).
