This book, containing a whopping 131 pages, is packed with some of the most impactful and timeless quotes from the great Saint Jerome. Inside the pages of this book, you'll find a rich collection of profound and wise sayings that will inspire and uplift you. From the famous words, Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ, to the beautiful reminder that When we pray we speak to God; but when we read, God speaks to us, this book is sure to leave a lasting impression on your soul. St. Jerome believed in making knowledge of the Scripture one's love and living with them, meditating on them, and making them the sole object of one's knowledge and inquiries. In his words, Be at peace with your own soul, then heaven and earth will be at peace with you. In addition to his words of wisdom, St. Jerome also reminds us that there are things in life that are bigger than ourselves and that life is short, so we must live it well. The Lost and Hostile Gospels S. Baring-Gould,2022-05-29 In The Lost and Hostile Gospels, S. Baring-Gould embarks on a rigorous examination of early Christian texts that exist outside the canonical New Testament. This seminal work delves into apocryphal and heretical gospels, offering readers a rich tapestry of theological diversity and historical context that challenges the orthodox interpretations of Christianity. Baring-Gould employs a critical yet accessible literary style, blending scholarly rigor with engaging prose, as he uncovers the narratives that were overshadowed by accepted doctrine. Through meticulous analysis, he situates these texts within their socio-political milieu, providing vital insights into the complexities of early Christian beliefs and their evolution. S. Baring-Gould was a polymath with diverse interests including theology, folklore, and literature, which undoubtedly influenced his approach to this work. His expansive knowledge and fervent curiosity stemmed from a desire to uncover the marginalized voices of Christianity's past, spurred by a belief that understanding these perspectives is essential to comprehending contemporary faith. Drawing from his background as a journalist and an author, Baring-Gould weaves together historical narrative and personal reflection, creating a compelling argument for the relevance of these forgotten texts. I highly recommend The Lost and Hostile Gospels to scholars, students, and anyone interested in the complexities of religious thought. This book not only illuminates lesser-known Christian texts but also invites critical reflection on the nature of belief itself, making it a significant contribution to the study of religious history and theology.
