How to Win Friends and Influence People Dale Carnegie ,2024-03-10 How to Win Friends and Influence people is one of the first best selling self-help books ever published. Written by Dale Carnegie and first published in 1936, it has sold more than 15 million copies world-wide. The possible situations are endless: you're moved to new town and forgotten how to do this "people" thing; your long-term relationship has left your social network lacking or maybe you merely lack social skills- whatever it is, we all need friends. what should be as simple as eating and breathing seems such an intimidating process, doesn't it? As with anything, take it one step at a time. Throughout human history, the predominant way we've build relationships is through real-time conversation. This throne is about to be taken over if it hasn't already been.

How to Win Friends and Influence People Hardcover: 1936 Dale Carnegie, 1936-10 How to Win Friends and Influence People is a self-help book written by Dale Carnegie, published in 1936. Over 30 million copies have been sold worldwide, making it one of the best-selling books of all time. In 2011, it was number 19 on Time Magazine's list of the 100 most influential books. Carnegie had been conducting business education courses in New York since 1912. In 1934, Leon Shimkin of the publishing firm Simon & Schuster took one of Carnegie's 14-week courses on human relations and public speaking; afterward, Shimkin persuaded Carnegie to let a stenographer take notes from the course to be revised for publication. The initial five thousand copies of the book sold exceptionally well, going through 17 editions in its first year alone. In 1981, a revised edition containing updated language and anecdotes was released. The revised edition reduced the number of sections from six to four, eliminating sections on effective business letters and improving marital satisfaction.
