Ludwig Strauss: An Approach to His Bilingual "Parallel Poems" Julia Matveev, 2018-08-06 This book is devoted to the study of the bilingual "parallel poems" of Ludwig Strauss (Aachen 1892 - Jerusalem 1953) created between 1934 and 1952 in Palestine/Israel and which exist in two variants, a Hebrew and a German version, one of which is the original and the other a self-translation. The aim of this study is to compare the versions and their interpretation based on Strauss's theoretical essays on poetry and translation, his political writings and works of literary criticism. Special attention is paid to Strauss's concept (linked with the idea of messianic redemption) of poetry as a "fore-image" of a future true community of men and as "the earthly expression of the Absolute" directed at interpreting divine revelation and its "translation" into human language. In examining Strauss's experiments with self-translation, by which he aimed at establishing a dialogue between languages, and between people and nations, this study considers the two processes of translation: from divine speech into human language and from one human language into another.

Language and World Creation in Poems and Other Texts Elena Semino, 2014-09-25 Language and World Creation in Poems and Other Texts introduces an interdisciplinary and practical approach to the analysis of poetry which focuses on text worlds, namely the contexts, scenarios or types of reality that readers construct in their interaction with the language of texts. The book demonstrates in detail three ways of approaching poetic text worlds, namely as discourse situations, possible worlds, and mental constructs. Clear and detailed introductions to linguistic theories of definiteness and deixis, possible world theory and schema theory are included, making the book accessible to readers who are unfamiliar with these frameworks.
