WORKBOOK to Deliverance from Demonic Covenant and Curses Rev. James Solomon, 2024-09-16 While lecturing on spiritual warfare at a Bible school in Japan some years ago, I had an encounter with a student who said she was not a born-again Christian and had never been to church--she was a Buddhist. During our conversation, she told me she had read so many books on Buddhism but had never read the Bible or read any book about God. In my reasoning with her, I asked her how was she to know anything about God whom she has not read about? If she wanted to know if God is better than Buddha, she would need to read the Bible to know who God is. She agreed with me, and I got her a Bible, which she promised to start reading. I believe this encounter and many others are the reasons the Holy Spirit impressed it upon me to put together this deliverance workbook in order to help create an awareness and to enlighten the upcoming generation on this very important subject matter of deliverance that many seem to lack knowledge about. This book explains all the major aspects of deliverance and is strongly recommended to all churches, ministries, ministers of God, prayer band/intercessory groups, prayer ministries, Bible schools, seminaries, and all other Christian organizations worldwide. The book addresses various topics such as What is deliverance?, Satanic kingdoms, Can a Christian have demons?, Satanic initiations, and much more. Rejecting the teachings on deliverance is sheer ignorance. It is time to rise up and build a militant army, to join hands with Jesus Christ in destroying the works of the devil (1 John 3:8).

The War Within Jerry Udoh, PhD, 2025-11-13 For generations, we have been taught — whether by sermons shouted from pulpits or whispered through church corridors — that deliverance is a spectacle. We have been conditioned to expect deliverance as something dramatic: a mighty shout, anointed oil splashing, bodies trembling, voices raised until the room shakes, and the final moment when a person collapses under the weight of a power they cannot see. To many, deliverance is when the demons are screamed out — visible, public, loud. This portrayal, while not entirely without biblical precedent (think of the demoniac in the tombs, dramatically freed by Jesus), has often led to a skewed understanding of how true and lasting deliverance frequently occurs. It has been believed that the key lies in the external spectacle, in the power of a charismatic minister or a boisterous assembly. But the greatest battles — the ones that truly set captives free—are rarely fought in public view. Yet, the most profound victories in the spiritual realm often unfold in the quiet, unseen spaces of the mind. The true war, the most significant deliverance, is often fought and won in the quiet recesses of the inner world, when strongholds built not just by personal sin, but also by the subtle currents of inherited trauma, are dismantled. These inner conflicts, fueled by subconscious spiritual agreements and the vivid, often distorted, landscapes of the imagination, are where the enemy seeks to establish his domain. It is here, in the quiet depths of the mind, that the power of the Holy Spirit empowers us to take every thought captive, making it obedient to Christ. These are the places where strongholds — deeply entrenched belief systems, secret vows, hidden memories, and generational chains — are built, brick by brick, through years of personal wounds and bloodline traumas. Consider the story of David, a man of profound faith, a man after God's own heart. Yet, even David, the giant-slayer, grappled with deep inner turmoil. This raw honesty is revealed in the Psalms, where he wrestles with fear, despair, and doubt. His lament in Psalm 42:5, Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why this unease within me? Put your hope in God, reveals a deliberate engagement with his own thoughts and feelings, an internal dialogue seeking to align his soul with the truth of God's promises. This wasn't a public spectacle, but a private struggle in the quiet of his heart and mind. David, in his wrestling, was taking his thoughts captive, casting down the imagination of despair, and choosing to believe in God's faithfulness. Consider the story of a young woman named Leah. Raised in a home where harsh words and constant criticism were common, Leah developed a deep fear of judgment and a sense of worthlessness. This personal trauma became a stronghold in her mind, a fortress of fear and self-condemnation. Although she accepted Christ and understood God's love, she found it hard to truly accept His grace. Whenever a challenging situation arose, the old tapes of her childhood would replay, whispering lies about her inadequacy. This inner conflict, between God's truth and the ingrained lies of her past, held her captive, hindering her ability to step out in faith and embrace her calling. It wasn't a visible demon holding her back, but a deeply entrenched stronghold of the mind, built on personal trauma.

How to Break Evil Covenants and Curses: Self Deliverance Benjamin Eucharia, 2018-10-25 There are different kind of curses and covenant which a lot of people are suffering ignorantly because of it; Ancestral covenants are the covenants that were made by our ancestors, either fourth, third, second, or first generation; whichever generation it is, the covenant flows through the family lineage. There are various covenants made by our ancestors, some are good while others are bad. Some of our ancestors made covenant to worship and serve only the living and true God, which is good one; others made covenant with the spirit of the devil to worship a particular deity or idol with an oath of daily, weekly, monthly or yearly sacrifice of blood either human or animal. Which is the wrong and bad covenant because it has negative impact that flows through the family lineage to seek vengeance for the life of those human used for their sacrifice. These are mistakes made by the ancestors which they are ignorant of its future consequences to their children. Some of these covenants were also made by our direct parents; while some covenants you made by yourself and some covenants, somebody made on your behalf. These covenants have their consequences and a lot of people are suffering because of it ignorantly. Many curses and hindrances exist as a result of the direct evil done by our ancestors, direct parents or ourselves. Many families contributed in the killing of innocent people, inflicted illnesses and incurable diseases to people, including giving poison to people because of envy; they collected peoples destruction of humanity by any and all means possible. Most people, believers and unbelievers alike, know about the leader of this group, Satan, but are completely ignorant of an entire army of supernatural beings just like him. Collectively, they are known as demons, invincible beings of utter evil. Demons are very powerful and intelligent beings that can rival angels in almost anything, but their main targets are humans whom they constantly attack and ultimately destroy. We cannot see or sense them as they work, but they are right there, fully active around and even inside us. Our suffering is so great, our pain, the misfortunes, illnesses, and diseases. We pray so much for God's help, but get no results. Our prayers seem useless even when we repeat the words of a powerful church leader. We are confused as to where all these problems come from and before long, disaster follows, and then death. People ask... Are demons real? What do they really do to me and my family? How do they do it? Are my loved ones at risk of being possessed or are they already possessed? Are demons the same as evil spirits? How does a demon attack? What signs do I look out for? African Charismatics Johnson Asamoah-Gyadu,2004-10-01 This volume examines Pentecostal/charismatic renewal in an African context. Ghanaian Pentecostalism in its modern charismatic form has become the most visible expression of renewal within indigenous Christianity. The book first articulates the contribution of the older African initiated churches (AICs) to local Christianity arguing that, in spite of a present decline, the AICs have left an enduring theological imprint on indigenous Christian expression. Furthermore, it accounts for the rise of the new independent churches, the charismatic ministries. These have been proliferating across the West Africa sub-region since the late 1970s. In addition to this, the book explores how the emphases of the new Ghanaian charismatics—internationalism, transformation, prosperity, healing and deliverance—provide useful insights into the nature of modern African Pentecostal spirituality.
