Jay Parini

The Haunting of Hill House Shirley Jackson, 2023-12-29 Shirley Jackson's The Haunting of Hill House is a masterful exploration of psychological terror and the supernatural, intricately woven into a narrative that blurs the lines between reality and delusion. The novel centers around four characters—Dr. John Montague, Eleanor Vance, Theodora, and Luke Sanderson—who are drawn to the mysterious Hill House to investigate its purported hauntings. Jackson's prose is imbued with a haunting lyrical quality, enveloping readers in the oppressive atmosphere of the house while deftly delving into themes of isolation, madness, and the complexities of human relationships. The book stands as a keystone of horror literature, influencing the genre's evolution through its nuanced character studies and ambiguous threats. Shirley Jackson (1916-1965), an American novelist and short story writer, is renowned for her fascination with the darker aspects of human nature, often reflecting her own experiences of societal alienation and psychological instability. Her unique background and experiences, including her own struggles with mental health and societal expectations, shaped her narrative style and thematic preoccupations, giving rise to works that resonate deeply with the reader's subconscious fears. For readers who revel in atmospheric horror and complex characterizations, The Haunting of Hill House is an essential addition to the literary canon. This novel not only captivates with its chilling implications and suspenseful narrative but also provokes profound reflections on fear, belonging, and the human psyche. It is a haunting experience that lingers long after the final page is turned. Neo-Victorian Things Sarah E. Maier, Brenda Ayres, Danielle Mariann Dove, 2022-07-17 Neo-Victorian Things: Re-Imagining Nineteenth-Century Material Cultures in Literature and Film is the first volume to focus solely on the replication, reconstruction, and re-presentation of Victorian things. It investigates the role of materiality in contemporary returns to the past as a means of assessing the function of things in remembering, revisioning, and/or reimagining the nineteenth century. Examining iterations of material culture in literature, film and popular television series, this volume offers a reconsideration of nineteenth-century things and the neo-Victorian cultural forms that they have inspired, animated, and even haunted. By turning to new and relatively underexplored strands of neo-Victorian materiality—including opium paraphernalia, slave ships, clothing, and biographical objects—and interrogating the critical role such objects play in reconstructing the past, this volume offers ways of thinking about how mis/apprehensions of material culture in the nineteenth century continue to shape our present understanding of things.

The Complete H. P. Lovecraft Filmography Charles P. Mitchell,2001-09-30 The influence of science fiction writer H. P. Lovecraft is widely felt in modern literature; authors from Robert E. Howard to Stephen King can claim him as their ancestor. But cinema too has seen Lovecraft's impact, and author Charles Mitchell offers here a comprehensive guide to the dozens of films that are representative of this influence. Mitchell studies the films in detail, analyzing the major Lovecraft elements and examining the fidelity of the films to the original works. Amateur films as well as television productions and foreign cinema, are included in Mitchell's scrutiny, revealing the challenge of transcribing Lovecraft to the screen, while at the same time suggesting the potential of Lovecraft's work for future, quality screen adaptations. In addition to plot summaries, entries for each film include annotated cast lists, critiques of actors' performances, the degree of fidelity to Lovecraft, and representative quotes from each film. This thorough work will be of interest to students of cinema as well as modern literature.

St. James Guide to Horror, Ghost & Gothic Writers David Pringle, 1998 As a companion volume to St. James Guide to Fantasy Writers, this volume concentrates on those types of fiction which may be labelled as horror novels, dark fantasies, ghost stories, gothic novels, tales of terror, supernatural fictions, occult fantasies, black-magic stories, psychological thrillers, tales of unease, grand-guignol shockers, creepy stories, shudder-pulp fictions, contes cruels, uncanny stories, macabre fictions and weird tales.--Editor's note, p. ix.

"Frightened by a Word" Colin Haines, 2007 Central to this analysis is the issue of subjectivity, of who sees what, how, and why. In its examination of three novels by Shirley Jackson - Hangsamen (1951), The Haunting of Hill House (1959), and We Have Always Lived in the Castle (1962) - this study draws on theories of performativity and subjectivity as put forward by feminism/queer theory and, in particular, by Judith Butler. Central to this investigation is how these texts repeat and, simultaneously, fail to repeat literary conventions linking lesbian and Gothic, as well as how that repetition, and its failure, affect overall interpretation.--BOOK JACKET.
