It's different with you Nicole Baumgarten,Roel Vismans,2023-09-15 This book is a collection of studies about forms of address in the world's languages, with a focus on contrast and difference. The individual chapters highlight inter- and intralinguistic variation in the expression of address and its sociol-cultural functions across media, registers, geographical contexts and time - in more than 15 languages. The volume showcases the variety of approaches that exists in current address research, including the breadth of contrastive methodologies harnessing surveys and questionnaires, focus group discussions, corpus linguistics, discourse and conversation analysis to offer complementary perspectives on culture-specific address practice. This volume is for students and researchers of address and social interaction in a range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, including various sub-disciplines of linguistics (such as contrastive, variational and intercultural pragmatics, sociolinguistics, and morphology) and intercultural communication, as well as experts in individual languages and qualitative sociologists.

The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World Martin J. Ball,Rajend Mesthrie,Chiara Meluzzi,2023-07-28 Drawing on examples from a wide range of languages and social settings, The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World was originally the first single-volume collection surveying the current research trends in international sociolinguistics. This new edition has been comprehensively updated and significantly expanded, and now includes more than 50 chapters written by leading authorities and a brand-new substantial introduction by John Edwards. Coverage has been expanded regionally and there is a critical focus on Indigenous languages. This handbook remains a key tool to help widen the perspective on sociolinguistics to readers interested in the field. Divided into sections covering the Americas, Asia, Australasia, Africa, and Europe, the book provides readers with a solid, up-to-date appreciation of the interdisciplinary nature of the field of sociolinguistics in each area. It clearly explains the patterns and systematicity that underlie language variation in use, along with the ways in which alternations between different language varieties mark personal style, social power, and national identity. The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World is the ideal resource for all students in undergraduate sociolinguistics courses and for researchers involved in the study of language, society, and power.

Online Misogyny in Brazil Mariana Valente, 2025-11-16 This open access book tells the story of how Congress and courts have responded to online misogyny and online gender-based violence in Brazil. As thousands of women, young and old, famous and anonymous, are targeted with online violence violating their freedoms in Brazil, civil society has fought for the recognition of the problem of online misogyny in the law. In her exploration of this evolving landscape, Mariana Valente unpacks how the shifting political landscape of the last decade in Brazil has intersected with feminist movements and internet policy discussions, and the resulting legislative developments. Drawing from almost fifteen years of research, the book brings the key cases and political fights that moved the conversation forward and how Congress and courts responded to the issue. It also deals with how foreign digital platforms gave rise to conflicts between the local and the transnational. Problems such as nonconsensual dissemination of intimate images, hate speech and political violence against women on social media are interwoven with critical legal and social theory. The result is a picture of the centrality of online misogyny to the recent political developments in Brazil and the advances and failures of the law in responding to the problem from an intersectional perspective. By analysing the fight against online misogyny in one of the largest countries in the world, Online Misogyny in Brazil: Law, Internet Governance, and the Struggle for Gender Justice showcases strategies to achieve one of the main targets of SDG 5: “End all forms of discrimination against all women and girls everywhere”. This is a revised and expanded English edition of a book originally published in Portuguese. The translation of the original manuscript into English was done with the help of artificial intelligence. A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content.

Reverse Design Ana Cristina Broega, Joana Cunha, Helder Carvalho, Manuel Blanco, Guillermo García-Badell, Diana Lucía Gómez-Chacón, 2018-09-25 The collaboration between the Textile Department of the University of Minho and the Brazilian Association of Studies and Research (ABEPEM) has led to an international platform for the exchange of research in the field of Fashion and Design: CIMODE. This platform is designed as a biennial congress that takes place in different European and Latin American countries with the co-organization of another university in each location. The current edition was jointly organized by the University of Minho and the Centro Superior de Diseño de Moda (CSDMM) - Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. CIMODE's mission is to explore fashion and design from a social, cultural, psychological and communication perspective, and to bring together different approaches and perceptions of practice, education and the culture of design and fashion. Through an interdisciplinary dialogue and intercultural perspective, CIMODE wants to generate and present new scenarios about the present and future of fashion and design. ‘DISEÑO AL REVÉS’ (‘BACKWARD DESIGN’) was the central theme of the 4th CIMODE (Madrid, Spain, 21-23 May 2018), which produced a highly topical and relevant number of academic publications presented in this book.

Coloniality in Discourse Studies Solange Maria de Barros, Viviane Resende, 2022-08-29 The volume examines the discourse-based critique of coloniality. It brings together an extensive interdisciplinary dialogue that reveals what different research fields – such as sociology of language, social psychology, history and political science, among others – have to say about discourse criticism and de/coloniality. In doing so, it also invites a critique of critical thinking, acknowledging the relevance of dissonant voices that arise from this debate. The essays in this volume discuss possibilities to decolonize discursive studies without losing sight of its contradictions. The book delves into how one can, as an intellectual who enjoys the privileges of coloniality in academic environments of the Global North, deal with the limitations and paradox of a radical critique through discourse. It discusses how ideas, entrenched in privilege, can be extracted, shared and applied while ensuring the radicality of their local contextualization. These ideas then must not only make sense within themselves but also resonate with other contexts, readings and peoples, in the South, without repeating the mistakes of hermetic scholarly lexicons. A key reading on decoloniality, critical thinking, methodologies, ideas, ideologies, language and critical discourse analysis, this volume will be of immense interest to scholar and researchers of language and literature, political science, the social sciences and Global South Studies.

Derecho internacional y su implementación en América Latina Abello-Galvis, Ricardo, Arévalo-Ramírez, Walter, Concha-Botero, Gabriel Andrés, 2025-10-31 En este volumen confluyen investigaciones de autores nacionales e internacionales que abordan, desde perspectivas contemporáneas y diversas, los principales desafíos de América Latina en materia de derecho internacional humanitario y derechos humanos. Con un enfoque plural, crítico y profundamente regional, este libro se organiza en dos grandes secciones temáticas: derecho internacional humanitario (DIH) y derechos humanos y sistema interamericano. Con capítulos en español, inglés y portugués, esta obra reafirma la riqueza lingüística y cultural de América Latina, contribuyendo al fortalecimiento de una comunidad académica transnacional y multilingüe. Cada capítulo aporta a la comprensión de las tensiones contemporáneas entre soberanía, derechos y justicia. Una obra imprescindible para investigadores, estudiantes y profesionales del derecho internacional que busca entender, desde y para América Latina, cómo se interpreta, aplica y transforma el derecho internacional en un mundo en constante cambio.

Salud familiar y enfermería Patricia Casasa García, Evertina Ramírez Díaz, Rocío del Carmen Guillén Velasco, 2016-08-31 Dentro del proyecto PAPIME se propuso la elaboración de un libro que reuniera los diversos enfoques y temas que debe abordar el profesional de enfermería para el estudio de la salud familiar, de esta manera se comenzó la búsqueda de material idóneo que sirviera para la producción de diversos capítulos. La insuficiente definición actual del papel de la enfermera en atención primaria y salud familiar queda patente ante la inexistencia de protocolos clínicos específicos e indicadores derivados de ellos que le permitan planificar, gestionar y evaluar de forma adecuada a las familias. Por eso, el desarrollo de la formación de enfermeras en atención primaria, salud familiar y comunitaria juega un papel fundamental ahora y en los próximos años. La salud familiar se considera como un enfoque conceptual y metodológico que posibilita la transformación de servicios, desarrollo de equipos de salud y aumento de la atención integral efectiva a los usuarios y sus familias. El reto de los profesionales, como la enfermera, es el compromiso con la innovación y el cambio en la prestación de servicios de salud en cobertura y calidad de atención. La atención familiar y comunitaria es aquella que presta un conjunto de servicios profesionales que, desde una situación de proximidad a la población, enfoca su actuación desde una triple perspectiva: personal, familiar y colectiva, con una orientación estratégica hacia la mejora de la salud a través del abordaje de los problemas y necesidades existentes. La atención familiar y comunitaria se desarrolla de manera principal en la atención primaria a la salud (APS) y constituye su elemento nuclear de intervención.

Miradas multidisciplinarias de la violencia y la vulnerabilidad social Aileen Azucena Salazar Jasso, Adolfo Rogelio Cogco Calderón, Guadalupe Isabel Ceballos Álvarez, 2023-11-10 El libro que tengo el honor de prologar es un notable estudio contemporáneo de algunas de las más significativas trazas de la violencia en nuestra sociedad. Un trabajo fundado en investigaciones empíricas y documental-conceptuales, que, desde diversos enfoques epistemológicos, permite comprender las características que la violencia presenta en nuestro entorno y la forma en que ella actúa sobre individuos y comunidades en nuestro país. Reconozco en el cuerpo del texto, el análisis de las violencias, en tres de sus ejes fundamentales: el que se realiza en los campos escolares, el que se da en los núcleos familiares y el que se produce en los entornos sociales. Estas tres localizaciones socio-espaciales, son también de orden estructural en tanto dan cuenta de los ámbitos de la crianza, la educación formal y la convivencia social. Valoro sustantivamente la prestancia y profundidad que una obra como esta, coordinada por las doctoras Aileen Azucena Salazar Jasso y Guadalupe Isabel Ceballos Álvarez, así como por el doctor Adolfo Rogelio Cogco Calderón, ofrece a la clarificación de nuestro horizonte social, una aportación que merece una circulación amplia para su discusión en foros diversos y amplios de debate.
