El supremo egoísmo de la tempestad. Ensayos sobre literatura y cultura latinoamericana César Eduardo Carrión, 2023-07-13 Esta colección de reflexiones sobre la cultura y literatura latinoamericanas está dividida en tres partes principales –cada una de ellas compuesta de tres ensayos– y un epílogo. En la primera parte, que he nombrado Arqueologías de la nación, realizo tres incursiones puntuales sobre el modo en que los archivos nacionales literarios han fundamentado su origen y dibujado su pretendida trascendencia. En la segunda parte de este libro, cuyo título es Poéticas y retóricas de autor, visito la obra de varios poetas del siglo XX, para ofrecer a los lectores y futuros investigadores algunas posibilidades interpretativas que estimo novedosas o, por lo menos, insuficientemente estudiadas. En la tercera, denominada Tropos y ficciones culturales, observo la manera en que dos ensayistas y críticos latinoamericanos estructuran sus sistemas de pensamiento, en torno de ciertas figuras retóricas que les permiten narrar la evolución de la cultura latinoamericana. Inspirado en este juego conceptual, construyo mi propia ficción o tropo cultural, para analizar el concepto de interculturalidad literaria, tal como se presenta en un poema que adopto como ejemplo. Finalmente, el Epílogo sobre el canon literario está dedicado al estudio de la figura del librero de inicios del siglo XX en la ciudad de Quito, como miembro pleno del sistema literario: educador, promotor y suscitador del canon.

Political Philosophy from an Intercultural Perspective Bianca Boteva-Richter, Sarhan Dhouib, James

Garrison, 2021-06-27 The objective of the following collected volume is to encourage a critical reflection on the relationship between power and non-power in our contemporary world and, proceeding from various philosophical traditions, to investigate the multifaceted aspects of this relationship. The authors' respective investigations proceed from an intercultural perspective and fall predominantly in the domain of political theory and philosophy. This volume takes an intercultural political perspective, which means, on the one hand, involving non-European philosophies in a global debate about power relations and their effects in the world and, on the other hand, confronting local traditions of thought with a global inquiry in order to enter into a philosophical-political dialogue with these traditions. An intercultural approach of this type to political philosophy seeks not only to join others in reflecting upon global problems, but also to decenter of our understanding of the world, drawing attention to new ways of thinking. Insofar as the authors of the planned volume deal with concrete philosophical-political problems unfolding in various regions of the world, they seek to shed light on burning issues like migration, human rights violations, dictatorship and language, global poverty, power asymmetries, experiences of injustice with the further goal of offering a particularly intercultural analysis of these problems along with approaches to resolving them. To date, there is no book that collects various essays from different countries and perspectives and poses political-philosophical problems from an intercultural point of view.
