The Silent Echo Helen Paloge, 2007-01-01 The Silent Echo examines the contemporary female midlife novel and its failure to acknowledge and engage the aging female body. Examining novels by authors such as Margaret Atwood, Fay Weldon, Joan Barfoot, and Joyce Carol Oates, The Silent Echo integrates various social, psychological, and philosophical theories with those of cultural studies to analyze how and why the aging female body has become the silent echo at the core of women's fiction.

The Robber Bride Margaret Atwood, 2010-12-10 This is the wise, unsettling, drastic story of three women whose lives share a common wound: Zenia, a woman they first met as university students in the sixties. Zenia is smart and beautiful, by turns manipulative, vulnerable - and irresistible. She has entered into their separate lives to ensnare their sympathy, betray their trust, and exploit their weaknesses. Now Zenia, thought dead, has suddenly reappeared. In this richly layered narrative, Atwood skilfully evokes the decades of the past as she retraces three women's lives, until we are back in the present - where it's yet to be discovered whether Zenia's "pure, free-wheeling malevolence" can still wreak havoc. The Robber Bride reports from the farthest reaches of the sex wars and is one of Margaret Atwood's most intricate and subversive novels yet.

The Infernal Desires of Angela Carter Joseph Bristow, Trev Lynn Broughton, 2014-10-13 Drawing on many aspects of contemporary feminist theory, this lively collection of essays assesses Angela Carter's polemical fictions of desire. Carter, renowned for her irreverent wit, was one of the most gifted, subversive, and stylish British writers to emerge in the 1960s.

Rooms with a View Giancarlo Lombardi, 2002 In tracing the individual struggles encountered by each single diarist, Lombardi presents, as a result of the juxtaposition of so many different texts, a wider portrayal of women's struggles across five decades and four different national cultures.--BOOK JACKET.

Mail and Female Sara H. Lindheim, 2003-10-06 In the Heroides, the Roman poet Ovid wittily plucks fifteen abandoned heroines from ancient myth and literature and creates the fiction that each woman writes a letter to the hero who left her behind. But in giving voice to these heroines, is Ovid writing like a woman, or writing Woman like a man? Using feminist and psychoanalytic approaches to examine the female voice in the Heroides, Sara H. Lindheim closely reads these fictive letters in which the women seemingly tell their own stories. She points out that in Ovid's verse epistles all the women represent themselves in a strikingly similar and disjointed fashion. Lindheim turns to Lacanian theory of desire to explain these curious and hauntingly repetitive representations of the heroines in the female voice. Lindheim's approach illuminates what these poems reveal about both masculine and feminine constructions of the feminine
