Mystiques, État et Société Nathalie Clayer, 2021-11-22 Mystiques, État et Société is the first study to treat of the history of a mystical Muslim brotherhood—the Halvetis, the most widespread brotherhood in southeastern Europe—from its introduction to the region until the present day. The study is based on very diverse written sources, including unedited manuscripts, as well as on fieldwork. In the book are examined the role of the Halvetis in the spread of the ideology propagated by the Ottoman political authorities (“Sunnitization”, conquests, colonization, Islamization) and in the uniting of the Muslim populations; the expansion and social rooting of the brotherhood; and its development in the post-Ottoman period. This study clarifies extremely important phenomena for the understanding of both Balkan and Ottoman history, and of the working of mystical Muslim brotherhoods themselves. FRENCH TEXT Mystiques, État et Société est la première étude concernant l'histoire d'une confrérie mystique musulmane dans le Sud-Est européen — en l'occurrence la plus répandue d'entre elles, celle des Halvetis — depuis son introduction dans ces régions jusqu'à nos jours. Elle s'appuie sur des sources écrites très variées, y compris des manuscrits inédits, ainsi que sur un travail de terrain. Y sont examinés: le rôle des Halvetis dans la diffusion de l'idéologie des autorités politiques ottomanes (“sunnitisation”, conquêtes, colonisation, islamisation) et dans la cohésion des populations musulmanes; l'expansion et l'enracinement social de leur confrérie; les évolutions à l'époque post-ottomane. Cette étude éclaire des phénomènes extrêmement importants pour la compréhension tant de l'histoire balkanique et de l'histoire ottomane, que du fonctionnement même des confréries mystiques musulmanes.

Les arts de la citoyenneté au Sénégal DIOUF Mamadou, FREDERICKS Rosalind, 2013-06-25 Les arts de la citoyenneté au Sénégal est un ouvrage original qui examine des trajectoires urbaines dans le Sénégal contemporain et met à l'épreuve des perspectives inédites, qui portent une attention spécifique à la question de l'esthétique urbaine. Il aborde les politiques et stratégies déployées par les principaux acteurs et les manières dont ils rêvent la ville idéale, à partir des sites singuliers qu'ils occupent et des pouvoirs qu'ils détiennent. L'analyse privilégie les figures esthétiques, iconographiques, musicales et kinésiques des expressions citoyennes, des modes d'(auto)représentation et des parcours complexes de subjectivation individuelle et collective, alimentés principalement par des ressources urbaines. Cette lecture attentive des mutations sociales, politiques, économiques et culturelles des villes sénégalaises intervient très activement dans les débats théoriques et empiriques sur les études urbaines, en y incorporant des situations africaines souvent absentes de la littérature universitaire sur les villes. L'originalité des contributions de ce livre sur Les arts de la citoyenneté au Sénégal est de suivre à la trace les contingences, stratégies, innovations culturelles, mais aussi les recompositions sociales et spatiales qui réorganisent les ressources locales et globales, disponibles ou imaginées, pour les mettre au service de formes inédites de mobilisation et d'action politiques. Ces reconfigurations renouvellent les formules de civilité urbaine et citoyenne dont les expressions les plus significatives prennent des contours et des lignes artistiques. La juxtaposition de plusieurs échelles, géographique, locale et globale, rurale et urbaine, ouvre des perspectives novatrices aux études des régimes de civilité et de leurs pratiques ainsi qu'aux langages qui redéfinissent les cultures et communautés urbaines. Cet ouvrage constitue à ce titre une contribution majeure à la littérature sur les villes africaines. Mamadou Diouf est professeur d'Histoire et d'Études africaines. Il occupe la chaire Leitner Family d'Études africaines et dirige l'Institut d'Études africaines de l'université Columbia à New York (États-Unis).
