The Madman's Orchestra Edward Brooke-Hitching, 2025-10-23 'One of the most brilliantly illustrated and totally compelling books about music ever put together' - Tom Service, BBC Radio 3 From the bestselling author and former BBC QI Elf comes a fascinating and beautifully illustrated journey through the entire history of music. In The Madman's Orchestra, join Edward Brooke-Hitching as he lifts the curtain on the strangest episodes from the entire history of music, taking us on a backstage tour of surprising and eccentric stories. From the musical secrets of prehistoric monuments to the future of compositions by artificial intelligence, The Madman's Orchestra uncovers the most curious tales, madcap musicians, and unusual instruments lost in time - and answers questions including: Which composition requires four helicopters and a string quartet with strong stomachs to play it correctly? When should you feed your piano hay? What does the 'cat organ' sound like, and is it any more pleasing to the ear than the 'hog harmonium'? Discover the code-writing of musical cryptography, the beauty of Renaissance eye music, musical hoaxes, lost masterpieces, fire organs and witches flutes, compositions by the Devil, the woman who invented the 'visible voice', and the symphony designed to bring about the Apocalypse. Fascinating, funny, and at times barely believable, the abundantly illustrated The Madman's Orchestra is a unique compendium brimming with entertaining facts, stories and playlists of obscure music that will thrill and delight every music lover.

The Sacramentality of Music Christina Labriola, 2024-08-19 Steeped in the Catholic spiritual tradition, The Sacramentality of Music argues that musical experience, in its appeal to the entirety of the human person, can serve as a locus of encounter with the divine and an occasion of God's self-revelation in love, with spiritually nurturing, ultimately transformative, ends. Christina Labriola contends that this dynamic might most aptly be understood as sacramental, an all-encompassing perspective of the cosmos permeated by the divine creative, salvific, sustaining presence. Through its participation in the mysteries of beauty and creativity, its bodily and affective engagement, and impact on the inner life, music operates sacramentally: manifesting divine realities through the tangible stuff of human experience. In a thematic theological exploration that interweaves pastoral theology, theological aesthetics, and mysticism, the reader is invited to contemplate music's sacramental potentiality and to engage the sacramentally charged music of Beethoven, Bartok, MacMillan, Messiaen, Mozart, Esenvalds, Bach, Pärt, and Hildegard. In attending to musical ways of relating to God, this book invites readers into a deepening awareness of the sacramental nature of reality itself as that in which the spiritual resonance of music is grounded and reveals afresh, taking musical beauty seriously in the spiritual order with repercussions for Christian living.

Handbuch der Chormusik Bernd Stegmann, 2021-09-23 Das Repertoire für Chor ist äußerst facettenreich – es variiert je nach Epoche und persönlichem Stil des Komponisten, je nach Besetzung und je nach dem, ob geistliche oder weltliche Texte gesungen werden. Das Handbuch stellt über 800 Chorkompositionen für A-cappella- oder kammermusikalische Besetzungen in einzelnen Werkporträts vor. Im Mittelpunkt steht dabei die musikalische Gestalt: Was ist das ganz Eigene dieses Werkes? Was daran ist typisch für seinen Komponisten, und was für seine Zeit? Auch Entstehungsgeschichte und vertonter Text kommen zur Sprache. Konkrete praktische Hinweise machen deutlich, worauf es bei der Einstudierung ankommt. Die alphabetische Anordnung nach Komponist sowie die präzisen Angaben zu jedem Stück (Entstehungsjahr, Textgrundlage, Besetzung, Dauer, Schwierigkeitsgrad, Ausgaben) machen das Buch zu einem praktischen Nachschlagewerk. Verschiedene Verzeichnisse und Register (chronologisch, nach Textquellen etc.) runden den Band ab. Ein Buch, das zugleich inspiriert: Enthalten sind nicht nur wichtige Werke der Chorliteratur, sondern auch solche, die eher unbekannt, aber unbedingt lohnend sind.

Music Lessons for a Living Planet Daniel J. Shevock, Vincent C. Bates, 2024-08-16 This volume shows music educators how music teaching and learning can help address humanity's greatest challenge—the ecological crisis. It provides the essential background knowledge in ecomusicology, from compositions about nature, soundscape experiences, activist songs, to practical lesson ideas. Motivated by the urgent need for increased ecological awareness and sustainable practices, and the ecological aspects of music and musical aspects of ecosystems, the book explores the powerful role that music educators can play in protecting and preserving the natural environment. Each chapter includes a narrative and potential lesson ideas that include listening, singing, playing instruments, moving, and contextualizing, with the goal of translating research in ecomusicological theory into a sustainable, creative, and critical music teaching practice. Bridging the gap between recent scholarship and pedagogical work, this book will be a valuable resource for educators, P-12 classroom teachers, and music specialists, as well as in undergraduate music education methods courses.

Global Indigenous Horror Naomi Simone Borwein, 2025-04-15 Contributions by Katrin Althans, Jayson Althofer, Naomi Simone Borwein, Persephone Braham, Krista Collier-Jarvis, Shane Hawk, Jade Jenkinson, June Scudeler, and Sabrina Zacharias Global Indigenous Horror is a collection of essays that positions Indigenous Horror as more than just a genre, but as a narrative space where the spectral and social converge, where the uncanny becomes a critique, and the monstrous mirrors the human. While contentions swirl around the genre category, this exploratory anthology is the first critical edited collection dedicated solely to ways of theorizing and analyzing Indigenous Horror literature. The essays, curated by scholar Naomi Simone Borwein, ask readers to consider what Global Indigenous Horror is—and to whom. The volume opens with a preface by international bestselling horror writer Shane Hawk (enrolled Cheyenne-Arapaho, Hidatsa, and Potawatomi descent), followed by an overview of Global Indigenous Horror trends, aesthetics, and approaches. The carefully selected contributions explore Indigenous Horror literature and mixed-media narratives worldwide, unraveling the intricate dynamics between the local and global, traditional and contemporary, and human and monstrous. Contributor chapters are grouped not by geographical or cultural variation, but along a spectrum, from a strong emphasis on ways of knowing to a critical inspection of Horror through Indigenous Gothic aesthetics across cultural boundaries and against and beyond nation states.
