Bruno Maurer

Mesurer la francophonie et identifier les francophones Bruno Maurer, 2016-03-07 Cet ouvrage s'adresse à tous les chercheurs, débutants, doctorants, ou confirmés, qui s'intéressent aux situations multilingues en général et à la francophonie en particulier, et qui souhaitent mieux connaître ces réalités en allant chercher des données déjà disponibles ou en mettant en œuvre leurs propres recherches. La première partie de l'ouvrage, consacrée aux sources disponibles, présente un catalogue raisonné des institutions qui produisent des données sur les situations de francophonie. Le chercheur qui souhaite aller plus loin et s'intéresser à un aspect insuffisamment documenté trouvera dans la seconde partie un inventaire critique de l'ensemble des méthodes d'enquêtes effectivement mises en œuvre, dont il pourra s'inspirer pour ses propres recherches. Cet ensemble inédit, qui embrasse la sociolinguistique, la lexicologie, la démographie, la morphosyntaxe, la démographie, qui traite de la présence des langues sur internet, dans les médias, à l'école, mais aussi dans les familles, dans le monde du travail ou de la production scientifique, est un véritable guide de la recherche sur les situations multilingues. Il a été produit à l'initiative de l'Observatoire de la langue française de l'Organisation internationale de la francophonie (OIF), en partenariat avec l'Agence universitaire de la Francophonie (AUF) et l'Observatoire démographique et statistique de l'espace francophone (ODSEF) de l'Université Laval (Québec), et soumis à la discussion d'une vingtaine de chercheurs au cours du 2e Séminaire international sur les méthodologies d'observation de la langue française qui s'est tenu à l'OIF les 2 et 3 octobre 2014, dont il est rendu compte dans la troisième partie du présent ouvrage. Il est précédé de « Qu'est-ce qu'un francophone ? » (Alexandre Wolff), importante mise au point terminologique et méthodologique.

L'évaluation des compétences en milieu scolaire et en milieu professionnel, 2014-03-20 Depuis une trentaine d'années, on assiste à un mouvement mondial de réforme des systèmes d'éducation et de formation professionnelle. À la base de ce mouvement se trouve une notion centrale – la compétence – dont il semble difficile de retracer les origines multiples. Certes, la notion a le mérite d'avoir renouvelé la question du transfert des apprentissages et celle de la formation en situation, mais elle demeure un concept flou. Pourtant, en dépit de ses interprétations multiples et de ses fondements apparemment fragiles, la notion de compétence a donné naissance à des courants devenus dominants comme l'approche par compétences (APC) ou l'approche par situations (APS). Ces approches ont progressivement investi les directives officielles, les référentiels et, plus difficilement, les pratiques de terrain de la plupart des systèmes d'éducation et de formation. Très vite s'est posée l'épineuse question de l'évaluation de ces compétences... Avec le recul, il faut tout d'abord souligner que la problématique de l'évaluation des compétences s'est développée différemment dans le contexte scolaire et dans le contexte de la formation professionnelle. On rappellera aussi qu'elle n'a pas pu suivre le rythme des concepts théoriques et pratiques élaborés autour des diverses acceptions de la notion de compétence. Face à ce foisonnement conceptuel et à la nécessité d'évaluer les apprentissages, les acteurs se sont rapidement retrouvés au milieu du gué ; certains continuant à utiliser les démarches psychométriques et éducatives classiques pour valider leurs instruments de mesure alors que d'autres s'attelaient à développer de nouveaux outils d'évaluation des acquis et de nouvelles démarches de validation de ces outils. Le présent ouvrage s'inscrit dans la foulée du 24^e colloque de l'ADMEE-Europe organisé à l'Université du Luxembourg. Il a pour ambition de dresser un état des lieux des travaux de recherche et des pratiques en lien avec l'évaluation des compétences scolaires et l'évaluation des compétences professionnelles. Au total, plus de 60 chercheurs et praticiens se sont associés pour produire la vingtaine de textes réunis dans cet ouvrage.
