Summary of All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr Peter Cuomo, 2024-02-07 A complete chapter-by-chapter summary of Anthony Doerr's book All the Light We Cannot See. About the original book: All the Light We Cannot See is a 2014 historical novel by Anthony Doerr. It tells the story of a blind French girl, Marie-Laure LeBlanc, and a German boy, Werner Pfennig, whose paths collide in occupied France as both try to survive the devastation of World War II. Marie-Laure is the daughter of a locksmith who works at the Museum of Natural History in Paris. She goes blind at the age of six, but her father helps her to adapt to her new reality by building her a scale model of their neighborhood and teaching her to read Braille. When the Germans invade Paris, Marie-Laure and her father flee to Saint-Malo, a walled city on the coast of Brittany. Werner is a gifted radio engineer who is conscripted into the German army. He is sent to Saint-Malo to help track down Allied radio transmissions. Werner is initially enthusiastic about his work, but he soon becomes disillusioned with the war and the Nazis. The two characters' paths cross when Werner intercepts a radio transmission from Marie-Laure's father. Werner can track down Marie-Laure and her father, but he decides to help them instead of turning them in. The novel ends with the liberation of Saint-Malo by the Allies. Marie-Laure and Werner are both alive, but they have been deeply scarred by the war. All the Light We Cannot See is a powerful and moving story about the resilience of the human spirit in the face of adversity. It is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.

Becoming Art Howard Morphy, 2020-08-28 Thirty years ago Australian Aboriginal art was little more than a footnote to world art. Today, it is considered to be an important contemporary art movement, often promoted as being connected to a deep cultural past. Becoming Art provides a new analysis of the shifting cultural and social contexts that surround the production of Aboriginal art. Transcending the boundaries between anthropology and art history, the book draws on arguments from both disciplines to provide a unique interdisciplinary perspective that places the artists themselves at the centre of the argument. Western art history has traditionally regarded Aboriginal art as distanced from time and place. Becoming Art uses the recent history of Aboriginal art to challenge some of the presuppositions of western art discourse and western art worlds. It argues for a more cross-cultural perspective on world art history.
