40 Questions About Islam Matthew Bennett, 2020-03-31 A much anticipated new addition to the very popular and practical book series that answers real questions on key topics in contemporary Christianity Islam is one of the most significant forces shaping the world today, but most Christians are confused about its key beliefs and practices. Many wonder about the apparent similarities and obvious differences between Christianity and Islam, and want to reach out to Muslim friends or neighbors with the gospel but don't know where to begin. Having spent several years living in North Africa and the Middle East, missions professor Matthew Bennett guides readers through Islam's key tenants and provides answers to critical questions, such as: -Who was Muhammad and what was his message? -Do Muslims and Christians worship the same God? -What are the differences between the Qur'ān and the Bible? -What is shariah law? -What is the Islamic view of salvation? -What happens in the mosque? -Is Islam inherently misogynistic? -Do Muslims and Christians worship the same God? -How should a Christian share the gospel with Muslims? Helpful summaries at the end of each chapter encapsulate important information, followed by discussion questions useful for personal or small-group study. Whether you want to understand Islam better or reach Muslims for Christ, 40 Questions on Islam is an indispensable primer and reference book.

The Islamic Faith Lyndsey Eksili, Semra Demir, 2020-07-01 The Islamic Faith is an introductory textbook designed for schools with a curriculum that incorporates teachings of Islam. Edited by teachers who have practiced the content in the classroom over the years, it offers a comprehensive program for Islamic educational institutions that serve middle and high school level students. The book provides reading material compiled from select literature on Islam and elaborates on the creed further with sections like Key Vocabulary, Guiding Questions, Discussion Tools, Critical Thinking points, and Lesson Review. By the end of the program, students will have extensively covered the essentials of Islamic faith and are expected to have developed their knowledge and show competence in the following themes: •understanding the concept of Faith (iman) •recognizing and explaining the Articles of Faith •identifying the Divine Attributes •comprehending the concept of Tawheed •understanding the mission of Prophethood •the concept of Revelation, Holy Books and their importance •belief in Angels and the invisible realm of existence •belief in life after death •Divine Destiny

Islam FAQ Jim McCrudden, 2008 [From a review posted on the net.] The blurb on the back says There are surprises in this book. No kidding. There are surprises on every page. This is the definitive 'everything you wanted to know about Muslims but were too afraid to ask' book. And, actually, you'd do well to be afraid because some of the answers to the FAQs are a bit scary. And surprising. And occasionally not an answer at all. Take this answer about whether or not pictures are forbidden by Islam for example. Given the choice of sticking an icepick up your nose, or reconciling the points of view, go for the icepick. It's all over in a second or two that way. In a lot of ways this is really a very funny book on a very serious subject and the tone, throughout, is conversational rather than conspiratorial. It's extraordinarily readable. The author puts none of his own opinions in and this removes the sense that you are being driven to somebody's point of view. The Question that I most Frequently Asked myself while reading Islam F.A.Q was Where is the faqing index? This would be a great reference book for schools etc but...no index. Where's the stuff on Fatwa? Apostasy? Taliban? Jihad? All these are well covered but unless you dog ear the pages, you'll be trawling back and forth trying to find what you want. It's probably because I am a senior school teacher that I think like this, and in the back of my mind there is the thought that this author has come up with a brand new genre. The non-fiction book that is meant to be read for an overall picture, not bought for research. I guess the best way to read it is from the beginning. All the way through. Buy it but be prepared for surprises.

Islam, a Challenge to Faith Samuel Marinus Zwemer, 1909 This detailed guide to Islam was meant to assist Christian missionaries achieve their ends with Muslim communities around the world. It gives attention not only to subjects typically included (the rise of Islam, the life of the Prophet, the spread of Islam, tenets, ritual, and ethics of the faith, all criticized from a Christian standpoint; the best methods with which to convert Muslims, profiles of missions in Muslim nations and prominent missionaries) but also discusses sects within the faith and highlights contemporary political/national features. The book provides numerous maps, estimations of population around the world, and other demographic information. It also includes images of a variety of subjects from around the world. These include photographs of places such as Mecca, Tunis, a marketplace in Bamum, West Africa, and mosques from around the world; photographs of pilgrims to Mecca from Yemen, Morocco, India, Afghanistan, Zanzibar, and other places; photographs of students of all ages from universities and mission schools; and more.

My Beliefs Umm Madina,2020-05-08 Jannah is at the feet of the mother because she has the ability to raise a Jannati. Shaykh-ul-Islam Dr. Muhammad Tahir-ul-Qadri. A heartwarming story of a Muslim family, introducing children to the six articles of faith in Islam. Ummi is busy preparing dinner in the kitchen while Ali and Fatima are playing but then they get in trouble. Ali chooses to be truthful, and Ummi takes this as an opportunity to teach the children about faith in Islam. 4+ approach to the study of the world's religions. Taking its inspiration from performance studies and using an innovative dramatic metaphor, it enables students to explore religious ideas and culture in terms of the players (key figures), the script (foundational texts) and performance (religious practices). The discussion of key players treats human and non-human figures on the world stage, including the principle (God, Dharma, Dao), imaginal figures (angels, baals, bodhisattvas), exceptional persons (founders, prophets, gurus), and historical persons (significant players in the drama of religions). The discussion of the foundational texts includes materials that balance or challenge mainstream texts with an alternative perspective. The section on performance explores non-verbal religious activities such as pilgrimage, icon painting, dance, divination, and meditation. Those concerned with introducing post-colonial discourse to students without losing the classic category of the sacred should find this textbook to be balanced and evocative. It presents workable concepts from the camps of both religionists and reductionists and students are challenged to move between inside and outside positions as they survey what have been called (controversially) world religions. Specially designed to assist learning it includes: chapter timelines showing key persons, events and dates themed boxes to encourage methodological enquiry key-point chapter summaries to support understanding and review study questions to assist classroom discussion maps, charts and photographs glossary of key terms and concepts key reading, a comprehensive bibliography and index. Ideal for one-semester or modular introductory survey courses on the world's religions, Introducing World Religions will be essential reading for any student of religions, worldwide.
