With a little teddy bear, a red ball, and a blue rattle that sounds like a bell to keep her company, Bella is so happy. But when one-year-old Bella peers over the top of her miniature playpen, her eyes grow in amazement, for only a few steps away, there is a world filled with so much more to see! A king-sized chair sits in one corner. Books stand at attention on a shelf. A pair of very large sneakers occupies the floor. And when her grandparents come to visit, Bella has to look way up, just to see her grandpas gigantic mustache and her grandmas massive hat. Her mothers hands look enormous when she picks Bella up for a hug, and even the shaggy dog looks big as he sleeps on the rug. In this charming childrens tale, a tiny little baby discovers the vast world just outside her playpen is exciting, fun, and just waiting to be explored!

The World Atlas of Language Structures Martin Haspelmath,Matthew S. Dryer,David Gil,Bernard Comrie,2005-07-21 The World Atlas of Language Structures is a book and CD combination displaying the structural properties of the world's languages. 142 world maps and numerous regional maps - all in colour - display the geographical distribution of features of pronunciation and grammar, such as number of vowels, tone systems, gender, plurals, tense, word order, and body part terminology. Each world map shows an average of 400 languages and is accompanied by a fully referenced description of the structural feature in question. The CD provides an interactive electronic version of the database which allows the reader to zoom in on or customize the maps, to display bibliographical sources, and to establish correlations between features. The book and the CD together provide an indispensable source of information for linguists and others seeking to understand human languages. The Atlas will be especially valuable for linguistic typologists, grammatical theorists, historical and comparative linguists, and for those studying a region such as Africa, Southeast Asia, North America, Australia, and Europe. It will also interest anthropologists and geographers. More than fifty authors from many different countries have collaborated to produce a work that sets new standards in comparative linguistics. No institution involved in language research can afford to be without it.
