Jacklyn A. Lo

An Anthology of French and Francophone Singers from A to Z Michaël Abecassis, Marcelline Block, 2018-06-11

Every musical form has had an impact on the linguistic practices of our society. French song is a vector of cultural, social, and stylistic values. Throughout the world, songs in the French language are used in the teaching of French: professors incorporate songs into the curriculum in order to illustrate differences of register and linguistic variation, as well as to raise lexical or grammatical questions. As a form of popular expression, song is a genre that has, in recent years, become the focus of serious academic scholarship and criticism. However, few linguists have paid attention to French song and its linguistic uses. This richly illustrated mini-dictionary about French singers fills this gap by offering a collection of portraits of the greatest singers of the French language and how they have constructed the musical landscape in both France and the larger francophone community and the world as a whole. Through (re)discovering these classic and contemporary artists who contribute to the creation of the sonorous universe of the 20th and 21st centuries, the volume determines how these musical genres influence the French language and nourish our collective imagination. By plunging into francophone song, one can achieve a better understanding of the culture and the language of its speakers.

Redemption Jacklyn A. Lo, 2015-09-03 A high tech executive is thrown into turmoil as haunting images from an unknown past intrude into her life. A desperate trip to a psychic, unleashes a series of past lives that bring her face-to-face with a mysterious man who has followed her throughout time.

Carnet de chansons De Borée, 2007 Recueil de près de 400 chansons d'hier et d'aujourd'hui les plus célèbres : Temps des cerises, Foule sentimentale, le Déserteur, Chanson pour l'Auvergnat ... avec un index alphabétique et un classement des chansons par thématiques (amour, nostalgie, ambiance, divers).

Living Pictures Polina Barskova, 2022-09-06 A poignant collection of short pieces about the author's hometown, St. Petersburg, Russia, and the siege of Leningrad that combines memoir, history, and fiction. Living Pictures refers to the parlor game of tableaux vivants, in which people dress up in costume to bring scenes from history back to life. It's a game about survival, in a sense, and what it means to be a survivor is the question that Polina Barskova explores in the scintillating literary amalgam of Living Pictures. Barskova, one of the most admired and controversial figures in a new generation of Russian writers, first made her name as a poet; she is also known as a scholar of the catastrophic siege of Leningrad in World War II. In Living Pictures, Barskova writes with caustic humor and wild invention about traumas past and present, historical and autobiographical, exploring how we cope with experiences that defy comprehension. She writes about her relationships with her adoptive father and her birth father; about sex, wanted and unwanted; about the death of a lover; about Turner and Picasso; and, in the final piece, she mines the historical record in a chamber drama about two lovers sheltering in the Hermitage Museum during the siege of Leningrad who slowly, operatically, hopelessly, stage their own deaths. Living Pictures introduces a startlingly daring and original new voice from world literature.

Claude Lévêque Claude Lévêque, Christian Bernard, Julie Rouart, 2009 This richly illustrated monograph, the first available in English, retraces Claude Leveque's artistic development from the 1980s to the present day, from the intimate autobiographical world of objects to the more collective mythologies of prison, school, or hospital. Under the aegis of Christian Bernard, art critic and director of MAMCO (Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art) in Geneva, two dozen art critics, philosophers, journalists, and artists record their reactions to key Leveque works. --Book Jacket.
