Teaching Discipline-Specific Literacies in Grades 6-12 Vicky I. Zygouris-Coe,2014-10-30 Comprehensive, timely, and relevant, this text offers an approach to discipline-specific literacy instruction that is aligned with the Common Core State Standards and the needs of teachers, students, and secondary schools across the nation. It is essential that teachers know how to provide instruction that both develops content and literacy knowledge and skills, and aims at reducing student achievement gaps. Building on the research-supported premise that discipline-specific reading instruction is key to achieving these goals, this text provides practical guidance and strategies for prospective and practicing content area teachers (and other educators) on how to prepare all students to succeed in college and the workforce. Pedagogical features in each chapter engage readers in digging deeper and in applying the ideas and strategies presented in their own contexts: Classroom Life (real 6-12 classroom scenarios and interviews with content-area teachers) Common Core State Standards Connections College, Career, and Workforce Connections Applying Discipline-Specific Literacies Think Like an Expert (habits of thinking and learning specific to each discipline) Digital Literacies Differentiating Instruction Reflect and Apply Questions Extending Learning Activities The Companion Website includes: Lesson plan resources Annotated links to video files Annotated links to additional resources and information Glossary/Flashcards For Instructors: All images and figures used in the text provided in an easily downloadable format For Instructors: PowerPoint lecture slides

The Teaching of History Paul Klapper,1926 The Teaching of History seeks to describe a system of teaching within the social environment that will contribute significantly toward the development of civic-mindedness in young people. The development of civic intelligence, that may prompt socialized behavior, is consistently employed as the standard to determine the contents of the book, the character of the discussions, and the color of the conclusions. This text presents a detailed study of the important problems that arise in teaching history, civics, and current social events in the elementary grades and junior high.
