Partnering for Learnware Lyndsay Green,Canada. Human Resources Development Canada. Office of Learning Technologies,1999 This report contains case studies and analyses of projects in which learnware was developed for workplace training. The purpose of the report is to share best practices and identify critical success factors in the use of learnware to further the appropriate & effective use of technology-based training. The organizations involved in the case studies all rely on partnerships in the development or the delivery of their learnware product. Critical success factors are discussed in the categories of partnerships, identification of learner needs, learnware content, establishing a market, the platform used for development & delivery, and links to accreditation. The case studies include a description of the learning product, of how the critical success factors were met, and of funding, along with an assessment of the learnware project.

Performance-Based Certification Judith Hale,2011-12-27 Are your employees qualified? Looking for qualified people to do competent work? How do you ensure that the people you hire can do the job right? An ever-increasing number of organizations are asking the same questions. Certification planning is the answer and Performance-Based Certification is the key. This is the only book on the market that addresses the growing need to monitor the qualifications of employees. You'll be able to quickly customize the certification tests and other job aids provided on the accompanying disk. Create a certification program within your organization to: Instill confidence that employees, members, or suppliers are qualified to meet the needs of your customers Ensure that your workforce is trained and competent to their job Make your hiring process more cost effective and legally defendable Recognize competence and consistency of your employees Once you've identified the need for a certification program, what's the next step? All of the answers are here!
