Postcolonialismo e intersezionalità: nuovi percorsi per l'intercultura Antonio Nanni,Antonella Fucecchi,2024-12-20T21:03:00+01:00 1115.46

La Storia della lettura è la storia di ciascun lettore Monica Dati, Questo libro esplora come la Public History possa essere applicata alla Storia della lettura, mettendo al centro l'esperienza dei lettori comuni. Attraverso diari, lettere, interviste, ricordi e testimonianze autobiografiche, il volume invita a riflettere sul significato profondo della lettura, sulle sue molteplici valenze formative e sui vari contesti in cui si esercita con un frequente ricorso alla relazione tra storia nazionale e memoria individuale, tra Storia e Storie.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Anglophone Literature and Migration Nicoletta Vallorani,Simona Bertacco,William Boelhower,2025-10-16 Focusing on a significant 70-year period as a climactic phase of displacement, the book investigates the role of literature in producing new modes of representing and understanding migration in a global context. Globally felt and reported as a geographical, sociological, anthropological, and historical phenomenon, migration has produced an unprecedented corpus of literary narratives that demands to be approached through its own set of cross-disciplinary critical approaches. This Handbook explores tales of migration via a systematic study of the large corpus of Anglophone literary texts that have been written by migrant authors and/or on the topic of migration between 1946 and 2016-from the start of the United Nations International Migration Report to the first year in which the number of displaced people reached the level of the Second World War, marking a new phase in global migrations. Given the dominance of English as a world language, often used by writers who are not native speakers, the volume covers Anglophone writing, providing a substantially representative corpus that includes texts from or about Europe, Africa, North and Central America, and the South Asia and Pacific region. Starting from a critical approach that is inherently interdisciplinary, authors consider the notion of the border and how it has changed over time; show how traditional literary genres have morphed and hybridized to become suitable expressive tools for the new stories of migration; reflect on how the movement across borders and countries creates migrant identities that are not only linguistic but invests all aspects of one's life and worldview; and includes authors' voices (a small but representative group) to both justify and test the critical approaches proposed.

Enzo Catarsi, un pedagogista al plurale Clara Silva, Enrica Freschi, Nima Sharmahd, 2015 The volume collects the papers of colleagues, friends and collaborators submitted during the conference L'infanzia nella figura di Enzo Catarsi (Childhood in the figure of Enzo Catarsi), held in Florence on April 29, 2014. The conference was organised by the Department of Education and Psychology of the University of Florence, in collaboration with the Tuscany Region and the Istituto degli Innocenti, to remember the scholar Enzo Catarsi. With his death, the Department, the Municipalities of Tuscany, the community of pedagogists, the students and his closest collaborators are missing a reference figure and a personality of great scientific, cultural and human importance, with high educational ideals, great humanity, optimism, lightness and enthusiasm.
