Terra 2022 Leslie Rainer,Luis Fernando Guerrero Baca,Frank Matero,Lauren Meyer,2025-04-22 Featuring a global compendium of sites, buildings, urban settlements, and cultural landscapes, this volume combines recent research with practical approaches to conservation of earthen architectural heritage. Earthen architecture is one of the oldest forms of construction and is evidenced around the globe. This volume gathers the research and presentations from Terra 2022: 13th World Congress on Earthen Architectural Heritage, which brought together in Santa Fe, New Mexico, 350 conservation professionals and practitioners from fifty-two countries. Seventy richly illustrated papers, fifty-seven in English and thirteen in Spanish, address a range of conservation issues. Abstracts are provided in both English and Spanish for each paper. Themes covered include advances in research, strategies for archaeological sites, community-based care and decision-making, cultural landscapes, decorated surfaces, education, historic and modern buildings, conservation history, risks and vulnerabilities, and traditional materials and practices. Sections that draw on symposia held at the congress spotlight two recent architectural heritage initiatives: the rehabilitation of an urban settlement by the AlUla Old Town and Oasis Conservation Project in Saudi Arabia, and the conservation and management of eight monumental enclosure complexes at the Hopewell Ceremonial Earthworks in Ohio.

The Routledge Handbook of Memory and Place Sarah De Nardi,Hilary Orange,Steven High,Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto,2019-08-20 This Handbook explores the latest cross-disciplinary research on the inter-relationship between memory studies, place, and identity. In the works of dynamic memory, there is room for multiple stories, versions of the past and place understandings, and often resistance to mainstream narratives. Places may live on long after their physical destruction.

This collection provides insights into the significant and diverse role memory plays in our understanding of the world around us, in a variety of spaces and temporalities, and through a variety of disciplinary and professional lenses. Many of the chapters in this Handbook explore place-making, its significance in everyday lives, and its loss. Processes of displacement, where people's place attachments are violently torn asunder, are also considered. Ranging from oral history to forensic anthropology, from folklore studies to cultural geographies and beyond, the chapters in this Handbook reveal multiple and often unexpected facets of the fascinating relationship between place and memory, from the individual to the collective. This is a multi- and intra-disciplinary collection of the latest, most influential approaches to the interwoven and dynamic issues of place and memory. It will be of great use to researchers and academics working across Geography, Tourism, Heritage, Anthropology, Memory Studies, and Archaeology.

Decolonizing Feminist Economics Gisela Carrasco-Miró, 2025-03-28 Despite the urgency to understand how 'other' cultures encounter 'the West' in academic and political spheres, feminist economics has yet to tackle critiques from postcolonial and decolonial feminists about Western-centric modernism in the field. This book introduces a decolonizing approach to feminist economics, offering insights that move beyond the boundaries of modern Eurocentrism. The author explores the relationship between colonialism, capitalism, heteropatriarchy and ecological degradation, while offering critical feminist and decolonizing tools. By investigating global struggles, the author illuminates our hijacked present and imagines a decolonizing feminist economic landscape that is under transformation. Transdisciplinary and innovative, this book fills a vital gap by exploring the interplay between decolonization and feminist economics, challenging the growth logic, capitalism and Western-centrism, and imagining new possibilities for more just futures.

The Tourism Imaginary and Pilgrimages to the Edges of the World Nieves Herrero, Sharon R. Roseman, 2015 This book examines how the growth of tourism in locations that have historically been considered geographically remote plays a major role in the consolidation and transformation of often longstanding and powerful cultural imaginaries about 'the edges of the world'. The contributors examine the attraction of the sublime, remoteness, continental border-points, and the dangers of the sea in Finisterre (or Fisterra) in Galicia (Spain); Finistère in Brittany (France); Land's End, Cornwall (England); Lough Derg (Ireland); Nordkapp or North Cape (Norway); Cape Spear, Newfoundland (Canada); and Tierra del Fuego (Argentina). While those travelling to these locations can be seen to be conducting some form of religious or secular pilgrimage, those who live in them have long contended with the implications of economic and political marginalization within global political economies.

Magallanes territorio sin fronteras. Patrimonio, identidades, desarrollo sostenible Umberto Bonomo, Eugenio Garcés, Carlos Silva, 2021-11-15 "Este estudio atento del paisaje cultural del estrecho de Magallanes explora los conceptos de continuidad, cambio y percepción a escala territorial para un paisaje terrestre y marino único. Es una adición importante a la literatura en el campo y abre nuevos debates nacionales e internacionales en torno a la categoría de paisaje cultural. El paisaje cultural de Magallanes es representado en esta publicación como un territorio sin barreras claramente delimitadas, donde el mar se encuentra con la tierra y el cielo, y donde el patrimonio natural se fusiona de forma indisoluble con el patrimonio cultural. Te sugiero que leas esta nueva obra con atención". PATRICIA O'DONNELL: Ganadora del premio Louise du Pont Crowninshield a la trayectoria entregado por el National Trust for Historic Preservation, 2021.

Mala guerra Nicolas Richard, 2008 La guerra del Chaco (Paraguay - Bolivia, 1932-35) ha sido convencionalmente pensada como un conflicto entre Estados modernos que se habría desarrollado sobre un espacio vacío, el desierto verde de los manuales escolares. Una abundante bibliografía se ha ocupado de estudiar y analizar los elementos logísticos, militares, diplomáticos y sociales de la guerra : todo sigue ocurriendo como si los ejércitos no hubiesen encontrado en su camino más rastro de vida humana que el de algún desertor emboscado. La guerra ha sido retrospectivamente "blanqueada" y las poblaciones indígenas han desaparecido, subrepticamente, del teatro de batalla. No sólo esta operación ha permitido confortar las claves nacionalistas y militaristas desde la que se ha leído corrientemente este acontecimiento, sino que ha permitido construir, a posteriori, la idea de que ese espacio era, porque estaba vacío, un espacio disponible. El primer objetivo de esta compilación de textos es así el de restituir a la historiografía y a la memoria pública este hecho primero : la guerra no ocurre sobre un desierto, sino en una región habitada, tejida, trabajada y organizada por sociedades humanas. Por elemental que parezca, esta cuestión sigue siendo hoy en día sistemáticamente obliterada por la bibliografía existente. Y con ella, ha desaparecido también la dimensión propiamente colonizadora de esta guerra. Pues si es cierto que la guerra del Chaco es fundamentalmente un conflicto entre Estados, también es cierto que la guerra funciona como una campaña de ocupación militar del espacio indígena chaqueño. La fundación de fortines sobre los campamentos indios, los desplazamientos masivos de población, la conscripción forzada, la utilización militar de los recursos económicos y humanos, la conformación de milicias indígenas, la relocalización en misiones y reservas, etc., son todos elementos característicos de esta otra dimensión de la guerra, aquí sumergida.

Coloniality, Ontology, and the Question of the Posthuman Mark Jackson, 2017-11-22 This book brings together emerging insights from across the humanities and social sciences to highlight how postcolonial studies are being transformed by increasingly influential and radical approaches to nature, matter, subjectivity, human agency, and politics. These include decolonial studies, political ontology, political ecology, indigeneity, and posthumanisms. The book examines how postcolonial perspectives demand of posthumanisms and their often ontological discourses that they reflexively situate their own challenges within the many long histories of decolonised practice. Just as postcolonial research needs to critically engage with radical transitions suggested by the ontological turn and its related posthumanist developments, so too do posthumanisms need to decolonise their conceptual and analytic lenses. The chapters' interdisciplinary analyses are developed through global, critical, and empirical cases that include: city spaces and urbanisms in the Global North and South; food politics and colonial land use; cultural and cosmic representation in film, theatre, and poetry; nation building; the Anthropocene; materiality; the void; pluriversality; and, indigenous world views. Theoretically and conceptually rich, the book proposes new trajectories through which postcolonial and posthuman scholarships can learn from one another and so critically advance.

How Difficult It Is to Be God Carlos Iván Degregori, 2012-12-19 The revolutionary war launched by Shining Path, a Maoist insurgency, was the most violent upheaval in modern Peru's history, claiming some 70,000 lives in the 1980s-1990s and drawing widespread international attention. Yet for many observers, Shining Path's initial successes were a mystery.

What explained its cult-like appeal, and what actually happened inside the Andean communities at war? In How Difficult It Is to Be God, Carlos Iván Degregori—the world’s leading expert on Shining Path and the intellectual architect for Peru’s highly regarded Truth and Reconciliation Commission—elucidates the movement’s dynamics. An anthropologist who witnessed Shining Path’s recruitment of militants in the 1970s, Degregori grounds his findings in deep research and fieldwork. He explains not only the ideology and culture of revolution among the insurgents, but also their capacity to extend their influence to university youths, Indian communities, and competing social and political movements. Making Degregori’s most important work available to English-language readers for the first time, this translation includes a new introduction by historian Steve J. Stern, who analyzes the author’s achievement, why it matters, and the debates it sparked. For anyone interested in Peru and Latin America’s age of “dirty war,” or in the comparative study of revolutions, Maoism, and human rights, this book will provide arresting new insights.
