Francisco Verdugo Landi, José L. Campúa

Escritores, detectives y archivistas Diego Galeano, 2009 Durante el año 2007 la Biblioteca Nacional realizó un concurso de becas de investigación al que llamó Félix de Azara, homenajeando al viajero y naturalista español que dejó registros literarios y cartográficos de la región y que, en los tramos finales de la vida colonial, realizó una distribución de tierras en la frontera norte de la Banda Oriental, secundado por el entonces capitán de Blandengues José Artigas. El concurso convocó a proyectos orientados a recopilar y analizar los distintos modos de conocimiento de la región durante el siglo XIX: imágenes, mapas, descripciones, historias, relatos de viajeros. Un jurado integrado por Susana Cella, Patricia Funes y Julio Vezub seleccionó cinco proyectos para ser financiados, referidos al estudio de materiales que existen en los fondos patrimoniales de la Biblioteca. Diego Galeano, en el marco de este concurso, escribió este libro sobre la cultura policial durante el siglo XIX.

Serial Authorship and New Directions in Spanish Female Detective Fiction Inmaculada Pertusa-Seva, Melissa A. Stewart, 2024-10-11 This collection of essays expands our understanding and appreciation of the body of work by established female authors of Spanish crime fiction series by analyzing recent narratives that, in some cases, contribute in novel ways to the ongoing reformulation of the genre and, in others, provide readers with a temporary hiatus from it. The studies offer students and scholars of crime fiction new perspectives on the works of well-known authors, as well as analyses of their often less-known narratives that may not fit within the genre. Readers will engage in an exploration of gender dynamics and sexuality, a variety of psychological and social issues, and the consequences of the indiscriminate consumption of media and abuse of the environment and animals in narratives that exhibit the versatility of these outstanding authors. The volume will appeal to a wide audience of literary and cultural studies critics, as well as crime fiction enthusiasts and newcomers to this popular genre.

Otherness in Hispanic Culture Teresa Fernandez Ulloa, 2014-06-26 This book addresses contemporary discourses on a wide variety of topics related to the ideological and epistemological changes of the 19th, 20th and 21st centuries, and the ways in which they have shaped the Spanish language and cultural manifestations in both Spain and Hispanic America. The majority of the chapters are concerned with 'otherness' in its various dimensions; the alien Other - foreign, immigrant, ethnically different, disempowered, female or minor - as well as the Other of different sexual orientation and/or ideology.

Following Octavio Paz, otherness is expressed as the attempt to find the lost object of desire, the frustrating endeavour of the androgynous Plato wishing to embrace the other half of Zeus, who in his wrath, tore off from him. Otherness compels human beings to search for the complement from which they were severed. Thus a male joins a female, his other half, the only half that not only fills him but which allows him to return to the unity and reconciliation which is restored in its own perfection, formerly altered by divine will. As a result of this transformation, one can annul the distance that keeps us away from that which, not being our own, turns into a source of anguish. The clashing diversity of all things requires the human predisposition to accept that which is different. Such a predisposition is an expression of epistemological, ethical and political aperture. The disposition to co-exist with the different is imagined in the de-anthropocentricization of the bonds with all living realms. And otherness is, in some way, the reflection of sameness (mismidad). The other is closely related to the self, because the vision of the other implies a reflection about the self; it implies, consciously or not, a relationship with the self. These topics are addressed in this book from an interdisciplinary perspective, encompassing arts, humanities and social sciences.
