If God Loves Me, Why Can't I Get My Locker Open? Lorraine Peterson, 2006-08 Since Oxford University Press's publication in 2000 of Michael Emerson and Christian Smith's groundbreaking study, Divided by Faith (DBF), research on racialized religion has burgeoned in a variety of disciplines in response to and in conversation with DBF. This conversation has moved outside of sociological circles; historians, theologians, and philosophers have also engaged the central tenets of DBF for the purpose of contextualizing, substantiating, and in some cases, contesting the book's findings. In a poll published in January 2012, nearly 70% of evangelical churches professed a desire to be racially and culturally diverse. Currently, only around 8% of them have achieved this multiracial status. To an unprecedented degree, evangelical churches in the United States are trying to overcome the deep racial divides that persist in their congregations. Not surprisingly, many of these evangelicals have turned to DBF for solutions. The essays in Christians and the Color Line complicate the research findings of Emerson and Smith's study and explore new areas of research that have opened in the years since DBF's publication. The book is split into two sections. The chapters in the first section consider the history of American evangelicalism and race as portrayed in DBF. In the second section the authors pick up where DBF left off, and discuss how American churches could ameliorate the problem of race in their congregations while also identifying problems that can arise from such attempted amelioration.

God's Love Is Like... Rick Carrol, 2022-11-17 For some people, sadly the only parts of God and the church they know about are the ones that turn them off, like how people are judged, and how God gets angry. Author Pastor Rick Carrol acknowledges church leaders haven't done the best job of telling the right stories. They've made people think the most important part about God is something other than the love he has for you. In God's Love is Like ..., Carrol demonstrates that the totality of God's love is so different than anything you've experienced in terms of loving each other. Yet in many ways, how you love others reveals small parts of how he loves you. Carrol shares fun stories and verses in the Bible that show how God loves you like: an artist; a patient grandparent; a kindergarten teacher; an honorable judge; an empathetic counselor; a proud parent; a broken-hearted love; a benevolent king; a jealous spouse; and an adoptive parent. God's Love is Like ... creates an understanding of all the ways God really loves you, pulling from examples of your everyday relationships.

God's Love Barry Gaddis, 2019-09-20 It has been amazing to watch how God has transformed Barry from a non-believer to a sold out, on fire believer over the 3 years I have known him. Barry is a true today Saul to Paul example. As I have read his inserts for his book, I have been overwhelmed by the Jesus that now lives in him. This book will change your thinking and challenge you on how deep is your walk with God. Barry is truly living with Jesus in him and not on him. May God continue to bless his work. Pastor Bill This answers questions that we have as a young Christian. You can actually see God's hand in these writings. Written by a man that after 40 years. Living the way of the world as an addict. He found his way to God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. This is his thoughts, questions, opinions and some are conversations with the lord. Very inspirational will definitely help those coming to know Christ, God's way and his love.

Love Does Not Conquer All Peter Mutabazi, 2025-05-06 Whether a child has been in a loving and supportive home from day one or has been bounced from one house to another in the foster care system, parenting them is messy. A former street kid, Peter Mutabazi knows what it feels like to grow up in a world where love, caring, and kindness are nowhere to be found. But as the adoptive father of three and a foster dad to more than forty children, he also knows what a difference it makes when a child experiences the positive influence of an attentive and loving parent. In this honest and hopeful book, Peter shares surprising lessons he has learned during his unique parenting adventure, including how to · parent children for who they are rather than for who you want them to be · look beyond problem behaviors to find their root causes · love children who do not want your love · understand your own scars and turn them into understanding and healing for your children No matter what your parenting journey has entailed, you will find wisdom, encouragement, and practical instruction in these hope-soaked pages.

I LOVE GOD (but Sometimes I Wonder If God Loves Me?) Gregory St James Mundy, 2025-07-27 Most people believe in God, but they have questions or cannot explain why there is so much evil in the world. Why does God allow such evil as wars, children starving, apartheid, cancers, floods, hurricanes, and other disasters? Why are some born to be great athletes while others are born never to walk? Regardless of whether you are religious or not, there are many questions that we have, and no one has answered these questions better than the writer of this book. Your first question is, Who is he? He is not a preacher, rabbi, or priest but was a total atheist until he encountered God, not in a church, temple, or synagogue, but in his dreams with the Lord. Asking God many questions that we all have that have never been answered before. Anyone can claim, as many have, to talk with God; the most significant difference between him and others is the questions he asked God and the answers he received. As a true atheist when he first encountered God and was convinced it was the Almighty. He said to God, If you are God and exist, then Satan must exist, right? How do I know I am not talking to Satan? God replied, I knew I picked the right one this time. The writer became 100% devoted to God but not to any religion, for he claims that religion was created just to separate God's people. If we believe that we were all created by God, why do we allow others to separate us when we should all be one in the faith of God? Many nights he spent talking to God during his sleep, asking about dinosaurs, why we are not only different in color, or features, but even in sexual preference. Why are some children born handicapped at birth? Though he was an atheist, he had read and studied many religious books like the Bible, the Koran, Hindu writings, and others, and had many questions about what he had read. One was when Jesus was on the cross, when he cried out, God, why have you forsaken me? The writer goes into detail as God told him that it was not God who forsake Jesus, but it was Jesus who forsake God when he disobeyed God and went up on the mountain with Satan. The writer goes into detail about how Jesus changed after that, and Jesus, being fooled by Satan, did not even realize it until his crucifixion. He asked God about Jesus dying on a Friday and said to return in three days, but on the second day, his body was gone. Why did Jesus tell the people to pick up serpents and drink all deadly things? Why did his mother not recognize him, and did his disciples call him a stranger? God explained the whole story to him, and the world needs to hear it to fully understand what really happened and why the bible or any other religious book never mentions Jesus dying after the resurrection. He spoke with God about what Jesus meant by saying, 'Many shall come in my name and they shall deceive you.' Who was he referring to? What happened when Jesus disobeyed and went up on the mountain with Satan. As he was told that after God said to Satan, you could not get him to betray me, get behind me Satan he said to you. Satan smiled at God as he told God, I could not, but before a tree can fall, it must first grow, and I have planted the seed. This is why Jesus, before going up the mountain, said to the people, 'Do not call me good; master, for there is none but God.' When his followers praised Jesus and said can we love you like God. Jesus said that no one can have two masters, for if you love one, you must hate the other. Yet, after going up on the mountain with Satan that seed started to grow and when they praised him Jesus said I am the way and the light. The writer tells us all how powerful Satan is and how he can deceive anyone especially those who think they can challenge Satan. Many other questions are answered. The beginning of the book consists of gospel poetry that will help us in the struggle with our lives and instill God's faith in all of us.

How do You love ME? Jewel Moore,2014-12-20 How do You love ME is not just a question; it's a journey that you take with the author... but pack light. You'll need to leave space to collect jewels. When we operate under the spirit of rejection, we take people on a trip... forcing them to prove their love for us or admit that they don't. The purpose of this book is to lead the reader to freedom; freedom from rejection and every accessory that comes along with the spirit of rejection. In order for something to grow, it has to be watered, nurtured and fed. The spirit of rejection is the same; in order for the spirit of rejection to grow, it has to be watered, nurture, fed and an environment has to be created for it to grow. Through her own life story, the author takes you on a trip, revealing ways we nurture and harbor rejection. Rejection is a seed that's planted within us and grows slowly. This book is a journey to freedom.

Colossians David J. Landegent,2017-06-06 Some people cant see the forest for the treesthey get so bogged down in details that they lose sight of what its all about. Others cant see the trees for the forestthey miss the wondrous details all around them. So why not look instead at both the forest and the trees? This commentary on Pauls letter to the Colossians guides you in doing just that. Even though we will be exploring ancient biblical cultures and learning plenty about the Greek language, no prior academic training is needed. Technical terms have been set aside. Instead, with everyday language we will discover the big picture and revel in the fine details of this stunning letter, amazed by how God is still speaking these same words today to contemporary personal and social challenges. We will not then be tourists rapidly zipping through Colossians as if on a monotonous interstate highway. Instead we will be hiking our way through this letter, step by step, phrase by phrase, finding joy in Gods truth and growing in our faith. Come and join the journey.
