Teaching English as a Foreign Or Second Language Jerry Greer Gebhard,1996 This creative book focuses on teaching English as a foreign or second language. It is designed for use by self-motivated teachers of EFL/ESL who seek to maximize their own potential as teachers and, in doing so, maximize the learning of their students. The book includes information about exploration of teaching, classroom interaction and management, teaching materials and media, culture and the sojourning teacher, as well as how language instructors can teach students listening, conversation, reading, and writing skills. It can be used by EFL/ESL teachers nor formally trained in teaching English to students of other languages and by individuals who wish to increase their teaching skills through independent self-study. The book is appropriate for use in preservice teaching programs and inservice development programs. Teaching English as a Foreign or Second Language is unique in emphasizing self-development as central to being an EFL/ESL teacher. Each chapter presents a set of questions directly relevant to teaching and includes advice on teaching problems. An appendix provides addresses, phoned numbers, and information on professional journals and publishing houses.

Communicative Language Testing Cyril J. Weir,1990 Reflecting the shift which has recently occurred in approaches to languages testing in response to developments in teaching, this book highlights the importance of context, purposiveness and realistic discourse in testing, as in teaching.

Principle & Practice in Applied Linguistics Guy Cook,Barbara Seidlhofer,1995 This volume provides a wide-ranging overview of the diverse issues in applied linguistics today. The contributors consider the relation of their own areas of enquiry both to professional practice and to the discipline as a whole.

Technology and Teaching English Language Learners Mary Ellen Butler-Pascoe, Karin M. Wiburg, 2003 This unprecedented book introduces the latest use of technology to support second language acquisition, combining the application of technology with language acquisition theory and practice in the modern classroom. This book is coherently organized around the teaching concepts and approaches such as communicative, content-based, skills-based and inquiry base teaching. The authors provide an extensive, up-to-date coverage of issues such as the use of technology for communicative language teaching, using technology to teach oral communication skills and reading and writing. For anyone interested in learning ways to integrate technology in the teaching of English Language.

The Tapestry of Language Learning Robin C. Scarcella, Rebecca L. Oxford, 1992 This teacher resource book weaves together language learning strategies, learning styles, theme- and task-based instruction, and the relatedness of skills. By using the metaphor of a woven tapestry, this book shows how language learning is created and controlled by the learner with input from many sources, including the teacher, authentic materials, and multimedia. Teachers will also find practical ideas and strategies to implement in class.
