The Art of Seduction Robert Greene, 2025-10-07 From the author of the multi-million copy bestseller The 48 Laws of Power and The Laws of Human Nature, a mesmerizing handbook on seduction: the most subtle and effective form of power. This is the only authorized hardcover edition in the US. When raised to the level of art, seduction, an indirect and subtle form of power, has toppled empires, won elections and enslaved great minds. Immerse yourself in the twenty-four maneuvers and strategies of the seductive process, the ritual by which a seducer gains mastery over his target. Understand how to “Poeticize Your Presence,” “Keep them in Suspense – What Comes Next” and “Master the Art of the Bold Move”. Every bit as essential as The 48 Laws of Power, The Art of Seduction is an indispensable primer of persuasion that reveals one of history's greatest weapons and the ultimate form of power.

L'Art de la Séduction Robert Greene, Alain Bories, Myra Bories, 2019-05-15 Apprenez les lois d'un jeu impitoyable et intemporel pour ensorceler et contraindre votre adversaire à capituler. La séduction est la forme la plus aboutie mais aussi la plus subtile, la plus intelligente du pouvoir. En politique, dans le marketing et la publicité, les médias, au sein de l'entreprise, du temps de Cléopâtre, de Napoléon ou d'aujourd'hui, ceux qui réussissent connaissent les rouages de la séduction – un art, en somme, universel, inébranlable. De Freud à Kierkegaard ou d'Ovide à Casanova, Robert Greene tire de la littérature la quintessence de l'Art de la Séduction, en s'appuyant toujours sur les vies fascinantes des grands personnages de l'Histoire du Monde. Grand amoureux d'histoire, de littérature et de la France en particulier, Robert Greene parle plusieurs langues couramment (dont le français). Diplômé de Berkeley, Californie, en lettres classiques, il est l'auteur de nombreux best-sellers. Prescripteur, sa communauté sur Twitter dépasse les 158 000 abonnés.

Lived Economies of Default Joe Deville, 2015-02-11 Consumer credit borrowing – using credit cards, store cards and personal loans – is an important and routine part of many of our lives. But what happens when these everyday forms of borrowing go ‘bad’, when people start to default on their loans and when they cannot, or will not, repay? It is this poorly understood, controversial, but central part of both the consumer credit industry and the lived experiences of an increasing number of people that this book explores. Drawing on research from the interior of the debt collections industry, as well as debtors' own accounts and historical research into technologies of lending and collection, it examines precisely how this ever more sophisticated, globally connected market functions. It focuses on the highly intimate techniques used to try and recoup defaulting debts from borrowers, as well as on the collection industry's relationship with lenders. Joe Deville follows a journey of default, from debtors' borrowing practices, to the intrusion of collections technologies into their homes and everyday lives, to the collections organisation, to attempts by debtors to seek outside help. In the process he shows how to understand this particular market, we need to understand the central role played within it by emotion and affect. By opening up for scrutiny an area of the economy which is often hidden from view, this book makes a major contribution both to understanding the relationship between emotion and calculation in markets and the role of consumer credit in our societies and economies. This book will be of interest to students, teachers and researchers in a range of fields, including sociology, anthropology, cultural studies, economics and social psychology.

The Art of Seduction Robert Greene, 2004-04 Which sort of seducer could you be: *Siren? *Rake? *Cold Coquette? *Star? *Comedian? *Charismatic? or *Saint? This book will show you which. 'Charm, persuasion, the ability to create illusions: these are some of the many dazzling gifts of the Seducer, the compelling figure who is able to manipulate, mislead and give pleasure all at once. When raised to the level of art, seduction, an indirect and subtle form of power, has toppled empires, won elections and enslaved great minds. In this beautiful, sensually designed book, Greene unearths the two sides of seduction: the characters and the process. Discover who you, or your pursuer, most resembles. Learn, too, the pitfalls of the anti-Seducer. In part II, immerse yourself in the twenty-four manoeuvres and strategies of the seductive process, the ritual by which a seducer gains mastery over their target. Understand how to 'Choose the Right Victim', 'Appear to Be an Object of Desire' and 'Confuse Desire and Reality'. In addition, Greene provides instruction on how to identify victims by type. Each fascinating character and each cunning tactic demonstrates a fundamental truth about who we are, and the targets we've become - or hope to win over. The Art of Seduction is an indispensable primer on the essence of one of history's greatest weapons and the ultimate power trip.

On The Origins of Self-Service Franck Cochoy, 2015-07-24 Most marketing scholars implicitly consider independent merchants as conservative and passive actors, and study the modernization of retailing via department stores, chains and supermarkets. In this innovative study, Franck Cochoy challenges this perspective and takes a close look at the transformation of commerce through the lens of Progressive Grocer, an American trade magazine launched in 1922. Aimed at modernizing small independent grocery stores, Progressive Grocer sowed the seeds for modern self-service which spread in small retail outlets, sometimes well before the advent of the large retail spaces which are traditionally viewed as the origin of the self-service economy. The author illustrates how this publication had a highly influential role on what the trade considered to be best practice and shaped what was considered to be cutting edge. By displacing the consumer and their agency from the centre of analytic attention, this innovative book highlights the complex impact of social, technical and retailing environment factors that structure and delimit consumer freedom in the marketplace. This detailed critical analysis of the origins of self-service will be of interest to a wide variety of scholars not only in marketing and consumer research, but also in business history, sociology and cultural studies.

Cultural Mediations of Brands Caroline Marti, 2020-01-10 Brands, which are major economic entities and major symbols of market mediations, are increasingly appearing in the social arena as cultural actors in their own right. Their quest for social legitimacy and to have control over the markets goes beyond the usual framework of their communication with initiatives that have begun to have an impact on the French cultural landscape. Media, digital content, educational kits, museum exhibitions and so on are the actions of an unadvertization, which has the potential to transform not only the rapport brands have with the public but also representations of knowledge and culture. The communicative approach at the heart of this book illuminates the contemporary transformations of communication, highlighting three main types of cultural mediations: media, education, and cultural heritage institutions. Cultural Mediations of Brands thus provides a theoretical and critical analysis of the brand and the symbolic effectiveness attributed to it.

Batman and the Shadows of Modernity Rafael Carrión-Arias, 2024-07-19 This book aims to study the Batman narrative, or Bat-narrative, from the point of view of its nodal relationship to modern narrative. To this end, it offers for the first time a new type of methodology adequate to the object, which delves both into materials scarcely studied in this context and well-known materials seen in a new light. This is a multidisciplinary work aimed at both the specialist and the global reader, bringing together comic studies, philosophical criticism, and literary criticism in a debate on the fate of our current global civilization.

Contemporary Translation in Transition Maria Khotimsky, Friederike Reents, Henrieke Stahl, William Waters, 2025-01-07 This book investigates the hybrid, multiform nature of contemporary poetry with particular emphasis on recent Russian lyric and its translations into German and English. Poetry translation, thriving and obstinately open-ended, is not so much a defined process as a practice of ongoing transit across linguistic and national borders. The book's innovative format invites contemporary poets into dialogue with literary translators, editors, publishers, and scholars; the conversations among their wide-ranging essays, poems, and exchanges both model and investigate the work of transcultural dialogue. As a kind of transition, poetry translation engages the composition and disintegration of forms, revises relations of producers to receivers, mixes and rethinks genres and media, translates itself as multilingual writing or language experiment. Multiple translations of a poem do not compete but interact, reshaping the putative gulf between source and target language. In the end this volume underscores the aesthetic productivity of poetry translation and the need to nurture it. A must-read for anyone interested in the dynamic interplay of poetry, language, and culture.

Language and Manipulation in House of Cards Sandrine Sorlin, 2016-08-12 This book is to date the first monograph-length study of the popular American political TV series House of Cards. It proposes an encompassing analysis of the first three seasons from the unusual angles of discourse and dialogue. The study of the stylistic idiosyncrasies of the ruthless main protagonist, Frank Underwood, is completed by a pragmatic and cognitive approach exposing the main characters' manipulative strategies to win over the other. Taking into account the socio-cultural context and the specificities of the TV medium, the volume focuses on the workings of interaction as well as the impact of the direct address to the viewer. The book critically uses the latest theories in pragmatics and stylistics in its attempt at providing a pragma-rhetorical theory of manipulation.

Veils, Nudity, and Tattoos Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2015-08-27 At first sight, tattoos, nudity, and veils do not seem to have much in common except for the fact that all three have become more frequent, more visible, and more dominant in connection with aesthetic presentations of women over the past thirty years. No longer restricted to biker and sailor culture, tattoos have been sanctioned by the mainstream of liberal societies. Nudity has become more visible than ever on European beaches or on the internet. The increased use of the veil by women in Muslim and non-Muslim countries has developed in parallel with the aforementioned phenomena and is just as striking. Through the means of conceptual analysis, Veils, Nudity, and Tattoos: The New Feminine Aesthetics reveals that these three phenomena can be both private and public, humiliating and empowering, and backward and progressive. This unorthodox approach is traced by the three's similar social and psychological patterns, and by doing so, Veils, Nudity, and Tattoos hopes to sketch the image of a woman who is not only sexually emancipated and confident, but also more and more aware of her cultural heritage.

Art brut, architectures marginales Marielle Magliozzi, 2008-06-01 C'est en 1945 que Jean Dubuffet amorce un travail de prospection d'oeuvres étrangères à l'art officiel, jusqu'alors insoupçonnées. Il les rassemblera en 1948 sous le nom d'art brut. Claude Lévi-Strauss va apporter également un nouvel éclairage sur ces oeuvres dès 1962 en développant une réflexion sur le bricolage, lui conférant une valeur artistique déterminante dans les oeuvres d'art brut. Cet ouvrage constitue une histoire du bricolage peu analysée jusqu'ici du point de vue de l'histoire de l'art...

L'art de la séduction Robert Greene, 2016-01-08 Obtenez ce que vous voulez en manipulant le talon d'Achille de chacun : l'insatiable besoin de plaisir. La séduction est la forme la plus aboutie mais aussi la plus subtile, la plus intelligente du pouvoir. En amour ou en politique, ceux qui réussissent connaissent les rouages de la séduction, un art, en somme, universel, inébranlable. De Freud à Kierkegaard ou d'Ovide à Casanova, Robert Greene tire de la littérature la quintessence de l'Art de la Séduction, en s'appuyant sur les vies fascinantes des grands personnages de l'Histoire du monde. Il identifie les lois d'un jeu impitoyable et intemporel pour ensorceler et contraindre votre adversaire à capituler. Il vous faudra d'abord créer du désir chez votre victime, jouer avec ses sentiments en alternant Plaisir et Confusion, puis vous faire désirer toujours plus pour enfin exécuter les dernières notes de votre triomphe. Amoral et Captivant !

Image et manipulation Jean-Claude Seguin, 2009 Le 6e congrès du Grinh a choisi pour thème la manipulation qui s'est décliné en trois axes: mentir, séduire et travestir. Mentir : Le mensonge de l'image ou le mensonge à l'image. En quoi l'image est-elle susceptible de mentir , de ne pas dire vrai ? Est-elle capable de nier le réel par prétérition (l'espace restreint, le temps limité, modifié). Le noème de l'image n'est-il pas dans sa continuelle façon de mentir ? Mentir pour ne pas dire et mentir pour embellir : Une des principales causes du caractère curieusement banal de toute la littérature de notre époque est de toute évidence le déclin du mensonge considéré comme art, comme science et comme plaisir social (Oscar Wilde, Le Déclin du mensonge). Mentir peut également se changer en un jeu social (vamos a contar mentiras, aventis...). Séduire : La séduction iconique se fonde sur une attirance - ou un rejet - qui construit le rapport du récepteur à son objet. D'où les phénomènes d'identification, de désir... qui s'inscrivent dans le punctum iconique qu'il s'agisse de la photo ou du cinéma. Ainsi tout phénomène publicitaire - au sens extensif du terme - vise à capter la bienveillance du récepteur et met en place une stratégie de la séduction. Une attention toute particulière sera portée sur la figure du séducteur du don Juan au latin lover, sur la question du donjuanisme et du genre ou du sexe. La captatio comme stratégie de séduction. Travestir : Le travestissement n'implique pas une négation du réel mais l'un de ses accommodements. Dans le travestissement, le réel est dénoncé, les valeurs sont perverties et les ambiguïtés se multiplient. De la tradition classique au théâtre aux formes plus modernes et sociales du travestissement (drag queens, mimétisme enfant/adulte) c'est tout un jeu d'inversion qui vise à sinon remettre en question les fondements d'un système tout au moins à en déceler les fissures.
