Summary of The Four Agreements , Summary of The Four Agreements - every action we take is the result of agreements we have made, including agreements with God, other people, ourselves, and the universe. The agreements we establish with ourselves, though, are the most significant. We define who we are, how to act, and what is feasible and impractical for us in these agreements. A single agreement may not be a big deal, but we frequently make agreements out of fear that drain our strength and make us feel less valuable. It explores the root of self-limiting ideas that rob us of joy and cause unnecessarily pain. A strong rule of behavior based on the wisdom of the Toltecs, can quickly change our lives and forge a new sense of liberation, genuine happiness, and love. New Frontiers in Asia-Pacific International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution Shahla Ali, Bruno Jetin, Luke Nottage, Nobumichi Teramura, 2020-12-10 International Arbitration Law Library Volume 59 The eastward shift in international dispute resolution has already involved initiatives not only to improve support for international commercial arbitration (ICA) and investor-state dispute settlement (ISDS) but also to develop alternatives such as international commercial courts and mediation. Focusing on these initiatives and their accompanying case law and trends in the Asia-Pacific region, this invaluable book challenges existing procedures and frameworks for cross-border dispute resolution in both commercial and treaty arbitration. Specially assembled for this project, an outstanding team of experienced and insightful arbitrators and scholars describes pertinent developments including: ICA and ISDS in the context of China's Belt and Road Initiative; the Singapore Convention on Mediation; the shift to virtual hearings and other challenges from the COVID-19 pandemic; mistrust of the application of the rule of law in certain East Asian jurisdictions; growing public concern over ISDS arbitration; tensions between confidentiality and transparency; and potential regional harmonisation of the public policy exception to arbitral enforcement. The contributors chart evolving practices and high-profile cases to make informed observations about where changes are needed, as well as educated guesses about the chances of reforms being successful and the consequences if they are not. The main jurisdictions covered are China, Hong Kong, Japan, Malaysia, India, Australia and Singapore. The first in-depth study of recent trends in dispute resolution practice related to business in the Asia-Pacific region, the book's practical analysis of new resources for dealing with the increasing competition among countries to become credible regional dispute resolution hubs will prove to be of great value to specialists in the international business law sector. Lawyers will be enabled to make informed decisions on which venue and dispute resolution methods are the most suitable for any specific dispute in the region, and policymakers will confidently assess emerging trends in international dispute resolution policy development and treaty-making.

A Force for Good John G. Taft, 2015-03-17 After the crisis of 2008, the social contract between the financial industry and everyone else was badly broken—perhaps, it seemed, irrevocably. Since then, banks have paid out billion-dollar settlements and Congress has passed some new laws, but a deeper rapprochement is still missing. John Taft has gathered some of the greatest financial minds of our time to explore how Wall Street can harness the same creative energy that invented credit default swaps and channel it towards the public good—in the form of a stable retirement system, investment strategies that protect the environment and reward responsible corporate behavior, and a financial industry with a culture of ethics, integrity and client focus. These perspectives, from a who's who of leaders in the field, offer a blueprint for a new kind of responsible finance and banking that secures the future for everyone. Contributors include: * Robert Shiller on financial capitalism and innovation * Charles D. Ellis on restoring ethical standards * Sheila Bair on regulatory reform * John C. Bogle and Mary Schapiro on rebuilding investor trust * Judd Gregg on long-term fiscal imbalances * Barbara Novick on the retirement savings gap * David Blood on sustainable finance. With so much brainpower in the financial sector, the potential for change is limitless. A Force for Good is the call to action the industry sorely needs.
