

The Secret Pulse Of Time

Di'an Fan,Ga Zhang

The Secret Pulse of Time Stefan Klein,2007 From one of Europe's leading science journalists, and author of the international bestseller The Science of Happiness (Scribe, 2006), comes a fascinating, wonderful book about time. The Secret Pulse of Time answers fundamental questions about time. Why does time fly when we are happy? Why do minutes pass so slowly when we are waiting impatiently? How can we truly appreciate the present moment despite leading over-extended lives? Stefan Klein brings a journalist's eye for detail to illuminate the highways and byways of time - always with the goal of guiding us to better master time (and to understand why we so often fail to do so). Woven into his narrative are dozens of ways to do just this, including how not to lose your head when a deadline is quickly approaching; how the present becomes a memory, and vice versa; how to attune your inner clock for more productive, satisfying days; and how to prevent each day's fast tempo from having a detrimental effect on your overall enjoyment of life.

The Secret Pulse of the Planet Ali Royston, Beneath our feet and all around us, Earth hums with hidden rhythms. This lyrical journey reveals the planet's unseen pulses—from magnetic waves to seismic whispers—and how they connect all living things.

The Iconology of Abstraction Krešimir Purgar,2020-06-15 This book uncovers how we make meaning of abstraction, both historically and in present times, and examines abstract images as a visual language. The contributors demonstrate that abstraction is not primarily an artistic phenomenon, but rather arises from human beings' desire to imagine, understand and communicate complex, ineffable concepts in fields ranging from fine art and philosophy to technologies of data visualization, from cartography and medicine to astronomy. The book will be of interest to scholars working in image studies, visual studies, art history, philosophy and aesthetics.

The Pulse of Life Mrs. Lowndes Belloc, 1908

The Bulletin, 2007

The Secret History of the World Mark Booth, 2010-02-23 This New York Times bestselling work reimagines world history through the belief systems of Freemasons, Rosicrucians, Kabbalists, and others. They say that history is written by the victors. But what if history as we know it was written by the wrong people? What if everything we've been told is only part of the story? In this groundbreaking and controversial work, Mark Booth embarks on an enthralling tour of our world's secret histories. Booth starts from a dangerous premise: That the stories put forward by the world's various cults and mystical traditions are true. From there he relates a deeply provocative alternate history of the past 3,000 years. From Greek and Egyptian mythology to Jewish folklore, from Christian cults to Freemasons, from Charlemagne to Don Quixote, from George Washington to Hitler—Booth shows that history needs a revolutionary rethink, and he has 3,000 years of hidden wisdom to back it up.

Before the Light: The Secret History of Water and Creation (Daoist Cosmology Series) Laing Z.

Matthews, 2025-11-08 Before there was form, there was Water. Before the first light, there was a reflection waiting to be seen. Before the Light: The Secret History of Water and Creation is a luminous exploration of how consciousness becomes world. Drawing from ancient Daoist cosmology, early creation hymns, and modern physics, Laing Z. Matthews reveals the forgotten lineage of the Great One—the primordial intelligence that gives birth to Water, and through it, to Heaven, Earth, and time itself. Across history, sages have said the same thing in different tongues: “The Great One gives birth to Water.” The Bible calls it Spirit moving upon the deep. Egyptian hymns call it the flood before the sun. Daoist texts call it the pulse of the Dao. Matthews unites these visions into one coherent cosmology—showing that Water, in its deepest sense, is not a physical element but the first act of awareness. It is consciousness made visible. Through poetic prose and lucid metaphysical structure, Before the Light reinterprets classical creation as a living process within each of us. The Great One is not a distant god but the stillness behind our own thought. Water is not mere substance but the mirror of mind. When awareness looks upon itself, the first ripple of time begins—and the universe unfolds as reflection, rhythm, and return. Each chapter traces one stage in this unfolding: The Great One Gives Birth to Water — stillness overflowing into movement. Water Before Heaven and Earth — how reflection becomes direction and polarity. Heaven and Earth Assist Each Other — the marriage of expansion and containment. Divine Radiance — consciousness awakening within form. The Year — the circular respiration of time itself. Matthews blends classical Daoist texts (Taiyi Sheng Shui, Daodejing, Huangting Jing) with modern insights from quantum field theory and biophysics, revealing a single truth that spans both mysticism and science: that everything which exists is the Dao breathing through Water. Even the brain, the tides, and the human heart echo this same cosmic rhythm. The pulse of creation is still alive—within the bloodstream, within the stars, and within awareness itself. Written with the elegance of spiritual poetry and the precision of natural philosophy, Before the Light speaks equally to seekers, scientists, and mystics. It dissolves the false boundary between spirit and matter, showing that the universe did not arise from chaos but from coherence—the quiet intelligence that moves through all living water. This is not a book of doctrine but of remembrance. It calls the reader to experience creation directly, not as a myth of the past but as a living event in the present moment. To read it is to stand again at the edge of the cosmic sea, before the first dawn, and to witness the Great One give birth to Water inside your own consciousness. For those drawn to the meeting of cosmology, mysticism, and modern science, Before the Light restores an ancient truth: that life began not with violence but with reflection—that the world was not built, but dreamed into being by the stillness that loved itself enough to move.
