The International Jew Henry Ford, 2017-10-05 The International Jew is a four volume set of booklets or pamphlets published and distributed in the early 1920s by Henry Ford, an American industrialist and automobile manufacturer. In Spring 1920, Ford made his personal newspaper, The Dearborn Independent, chronicle what he considered the Jewish menace. Every week for 91 issues, the paper exposed some sort of Jewish-inspired evil major story in a headline. The most popular and aggressive stories were then chosen to be reprinted into four volumes called The International Jew.

The International Jew: The World's Foremost Problem (Complete Four Volumes) Henry Ford, 195? Why discuss the Jewish Question? Because it is here, and because its emergence into American thought should contribute to its solution, and not to a continuance of those bad conditions which surround the Question in other countries. The Jewish Question has existed in the United States for a long time. Jews themselves have known this, even if Gentiles have not. There have been periods in our own country when it has broken forth with a sullen sort of strength which presaged darker things to come. Many signs portend that it is approaching an acute stage. Not only does the Jewish Question touch those matters that are of common knowledge, such as financial and commercial control, usurpation of political power, monopoly of necessities, and autocratic direction of the very news that the American people read; but it reaches into cultural regions and so touches the very heart of American life. This question reaches down into South America and threatens to become an important factor in Pan-American relations. It is interwoven with much of the menace of organized and calculated disorder which troubles the nations today. It is not of recent growth, but its roots go deep, and the long Past of this Problem is counterbalanced by prophetic hopes and programs which involve a very deliberate and creative view of the Future. This little book is the partial record of an investigation of the Jewish Question. It is printed to enable interested readers to inform themselves on the data published in The Dearborn Independent prior to Oct. 1, 1920. The demand for back copies of the paper was so great that the supply was exhausted early, as was also a large edition of a booklet containing the first nine articles of the series. The investigation still proceeds, and the articles will continue to appear as heretofore until the work is done. The motive of this work is simply a desire to make facts known to the people. Other motives have, of course, been ascribed to it. But the motive of prejudice or any form of antagonism is hardly strong enough to support such an investigation as this. Moreover, had an unworthy motive existed, some sign of it would inevitably appear in the work itself. We confidently call the reader to witness that the tone of these articles is all that it should be. The International Jew and his satellites, as the conscious enemies of all that Anglo-Saxons mean by civilization, are not spared, nor is that unthinking mass which defends anything that a Jew does, simply because it has been taught to believe that what Jewish leaders do is Jewish. Neither do these articles proceed upon a false emotion of brotherhood and apology, as if this stream of doubtful tendency in the world were only accidentally Jewish. We give the facts as we find them; that of itself is sufficient protection against prejudice or passion.

The International Jew Volumes I and II Henry Ford, 2014-07-11 FULL UNEXPURGATED VERSION. The famous American industrialist and automobile manufacturer Henry Ford purchased The Dearborn Independent, an independent journal, in 1918. Ford then used this newspaper to publish a series of 80 articles between 1920 and 1922 on what he identified as the Jewish Question in America. The Dearborn Independent was distributed nationwide to Ford dealer showrooms and was offered free of charge to the general public. At its peak, circulation reached 700,000 readers. The work's reach was worldwide and was quoted in Adolf Hitler's Mein Kampf. Henry Ford's picture hung in Hitler's office, and in July 1938, the German consul at Cleveland gave Ford, on his 75th birthday, the award of the Grand Cross of the German Eagle, the highest medal Nazi Germany could bestow on a foreigner. The 80 articles were later republished in book form but were severely redacted and edited, with an abridged version becoming the most widely circulated copy. This version is the full unexpurgated original of Ford's groundbreaking study of the Jewish Question, and contains all the content, prefaces included, of the books first published by The Dearborn Independent as Volume 1: The International Jew: The World's Foremost Problem (1920); and Volume 2: Jewish Activities in the United States (1921). The accompanying Volume III and IV in this new series contains Ford's other two original volumes: Volume 3: Jewish Influence in American Life (1921); and Volume 4: Aspects of Jewish Power in the United States (1922). Completely reset and hand-edited. Cover image: A poster from the Nazi film The Eternal Jew (1940) which used material from Ford's books.

The International Jew Henry Ford,2003-07-01 In 1920 Henry Ford bought The Dearborn Independent, a virile and very independent journal published in his home town. He used it to publish his series of 81 articles (between 1920 and 1922) on the Jewish Question in America, which he called the world's foremost problem. The Dearborn Independent was distributed nationwide to Ford dealer showrooms and was offered free of charge to the general public. At its peak, circulation reached 700,000 readers. He later published the articles as a four-volume set of books. At the Nuremberg Tribunal, Baldur Von Shirach, Hitler Youth Leader, said he had been influenced through reading these books. The work was also quoted in Mein Kampf by Adolf Hitler. This volume reprints the articles from October 9, 1920 to March 19, 1921. This four-volume set is an important document in the history of anti-semiticism in America.

Henry Ford: the International Jew Henry Ford, 2010-06-01 The International Jew, by auto magnate Henry Ford, is comprised of newspaper articles printed in 'The Dearborn Independent during the 1920's. At the apex of his business career Henry Ford sensed that a terrific effort was being made to take his business from him and manipulate it into the hands of the money-changers. Henry Ford, who had the impression that these manipulators were being engineered by powerful Jewish financiers, called to his office the most intelligent research men within his acquaintance. He commissioned them to make a thorough study of the International Jew and publish their findings in The Dearborn Independent, which at that time was the official organ of the Ford Motor Company. No expense was spared, and it is estimated that literally millions of dollars were spent by Mr. Ford on this project. The original articles were carried first in The Dearborn Independent, and then published in book form. This book, The International Jew, provides a hard-hitting, easy-to-read introduction to what the renowned American automaker and industrialist called the world's foremost problem. This influential and much-discussed collection of essays, packed with facts and insights, is an eye-opening survey of the enduringly vexing Jewish question. Whether readers agree or disagree with the content of The International Jew and Ford's approach to the Jewish question, the book provides an important historical record that remains of interest today.

The International Jew Henry Ford, 2016-04-20 Volume 4: Aspects of Jewish Power in the United States The International Jew - The World's Foremost Problem is a four volume set of booklets or pamphlets published and distributed in the early 1920s by Henry Ford, an American industrialist and automobile manufacturer. In Spring 1920, Ford made his personal newspaper, The Dearborn Independent, chronicle what he considered the Jewish menace. Henry Ford Henry Ford, William Schnarr, 2023-01-06 In addition to carrying on the great white American tradition of monumental entrepreneurship, ethical business missions, and past-master engineering, Henry Ford was also one of the world's most fruitful students on the Jewish Question. For eight long years he fearlessly studied and reported weekly on the Jewish Question despite extreme Jewish libel and slander; finally he was forced to retire this service after they threatened to financially choke him. No student of the Jewish Question disputes his findings, and in fact he is one of the greatest contributors to our knowledge thereof today, but many readers may have been frustrated by the limitations of the newspaper format. Well, now- for the first time in over 100 years- William Schnarr has undertaken the first fully researched and resourced edition of The International Jew, the 4-volume archive of nearly all Ford's original articles pertaining to the JQ.

Due to the age of the papers and Ford's tendency to cite contemporary papers, many sources are lost forever, if not extremely difficult to track down, but even what can be confirmed with the aid of modern technology will shock and amaze readers, just as it did Schnarr as he found Ford's evidence. Although many citations are from The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion- a controversial pamphlet to this day- there are also many citations, from contemporary Jewish newspapers to centennial almanacs archived in the University of Minnesota. These documents all work to shatter once and for all the veneer of Jewish libel and slander, and show bright and clear Ford deserved every bit of credit that his admirers give him for his work on The Dearborn Independent.
