What They'll Never Tell You about the Music Business Peter M. Thall,2016 This insider guide discloses the hidden dynamics and often unfortunate consequences of what really happens when a deal is prepared, contracts are signed, and promises are made--and alerts musicians, attorneys, songwriters, and anyone else interested in the music business to the potent dangers lurking beneath the surface of this incredibly competitive industry.

Song Sheets to Software Elizabeth C. Axford,2004-06-24 The second edition continues to be a valuable source to printed music, music software, and Web sites useful to musicians, and includes interesting essays on the history of printed music, copyright laws, music theory fundamentals, and other topics. Many questions posed by musicians and others concerned with music production and instruction are answered with short, effective explanations (e. g., the duration of copyright, the concept of fair use, writing lead sheets, publishing music). Axford's volume will be especially useful to young musicians or others beginning a career in some aspect of music. A useful section, Web Sites for Musicians, reveals the book's currency: very few dead links were detected, attesting to careful updating from the first edition. The section Tech Talk: Terms A - Z provides brief definitions for many new terms used by musicians or technology specialists. A valuable desk reference for everyone involved in the music industry.

My Heart Will Go On (from Titanic) Celine Dion,1997-12-01 (Piano Vocal). This sheet music features an arrangement for piano and voice with guitar chord frames, with the melody presented in the right hand of the piano part, as well as in the vocal line.

Studies on Authorship in Historical Keyboard Music Andrew Woolley,2023-10-31 Authorship is a pertinent issue for historical musicology and musicians more widely, and some controversies concerned with major figures have even reached wider consciousness. Scholars have clarified some of the issues at stake in recent decades, such as the places of borrowing and arranging in the creative process and the wider cultural significance of these practices. The discovery of new sources and methodologies has also opened up opportunities for reassessing specific authorship problems. Drawing upon this wider musicological literature as well as insights from other disciplines, such as intellectual history and book history, this book aims to build on what has already been achieved by focussing on keyboard music. The nine chapters cover case studies of authorship problems, the socioeconomic conditions of music publishing, the contributions of composers, arrangers, copyists and music publishers in creating notated keyboard compositions, the functions of attribution and ascription, and how the contexts in which notated pieces were used affected concepts of authorship at different times and places.

Early Broadway Sheet Music Donald J. Stubblebine,2002 This work, a companion to Broadway Sheet Music: A Comprehensive Listing of Published Music from Broadway and Other Stage Shows, 1918 through 1993 (1996, $75), provides information about sheet music published over the 75-year period from June 1, 1843, to May 31, 1918--the early days of modern American theatre. It covers all sheet music published from all Broadway productions--plus music from local shows, minstrel shows, night club acts, vaudeville acts, touring companies, and shows on the road that never made it to Broadway. Also included are all the major musicals from Chicago, which rivaled Broadway in original productions during that period. Each piece of sheet music has been assigned a number by the author, and the following information is given: production title (as listed on sheet music cover), year the production officially opened or tour began, name of the theatre (applicable only to New York productions), number of performances (applicable only to New York productions), performers, song titles, composer and lyricist, original publisher of each song, and cover description. Also included are comments from the author.

My Heart Will Go on (Love Theme from "Titanic") James Horner,Sylvia Woods,1998-07 (Harp). Sylvia Woods has created harp arrangements of the popular love theme from the movie Titanic , My Heart Will Go On. An easy arrangement and an intermediate arrangement are BOTH included in the same piece of sheet music. They are in the key of G (1 sharp) with no lever or pedal changes. The lyrics are written between the staves, so you can sing along while you play. Chord symbols are included in the intermediate version. This song is still hot, and is a required song if you play weddings! 6 pages. Playable on both lever and pedal harps.
