Chronicles of the Shadow Prince Robert Osborn, 2017-09-27 Every thousand years, a force unknown to man selects a new living being tasked to travel from star system to star system, planet to planet. The man selected, having no say in the matter, only knowing he is the new God Warrior and chosen one and his life is no longer his own for the next thousand years. Mathew, now Prince Mathew, is the newest member of this elite club. Its members chosen through no choice of their own. Their lives and destinies no longer in their command but rather commanded by another. With the exception of only a few planets, Prince Mathew is the entity humans and in some cases, non-humans, pray to for deliverance. Their prayers are heard and passed on to Control, the controller who determines where the prince will go next. Though many do cry out for help, the Prince cannot always deliver them from the evil of others. Sometimes he gets to those in time. Sometimes, unfortunately, he is too late. In many cases, when all seems lost and they have little or no hope of being saved, many will cry out for the Shadow Prince. While Prince Mathew and the Shadow Prince are one and the same, the outcome can be drastically different. Prince Mathew is known as the savior. The Shadow Prince is better known as the destroyer. Even those in the animal world fear him, knowing full well he is the bringer of life and death, rendering justice as he sees fit. Having the power to destroy entire civilizations or planets though he has never had to do that. Prince Mathew's mission, to save the Dragons on a planet soon to be destroyed by its own moon. He finds himself in a battle to save the dragons both from themselves and their moon, diving towards their planet. As the planet begins to self-destruct, he ignores the danger to himself and continues to prepare the ark that will transport them off planet. It's a race with time as the planet's last moments intensify. A new planet awaits them if they can get there.

Working for the Paranormal Protection Agency has never been boring, but shadow-dragon Duke didn't expect to meet his mate in the line of duty. He certainly didn't expect a warrior every inch his match, or for her to slap him across the ass with her tail and take off across the city. With Baron on a very personal protection detail, Duke has to fly solo on the pair's investigation into the warlock who nearly killed Baron's mate. Just one problem, his mate is working with the warlock. So, dead or alive, he has to bring her in... She found the one thing she didn't want. Her mate. Now she needs to get rid of him before he ruins her mission... Sleeping for centuries has its drawbacks, Chase knew that going in. What she didn't expect was to wake with a Warlock's spelled collar around her neck and to find her charge, the Queen's daughter, in a cage. Vowing to free them both will take skill and strength and she doesn't need the distraction of a hot as hell male dragon trying to make his claim on her. Even though her heart aches to complete their joining, she can't. Not yet. The mission, or her heart. Can she have both? Or will she need one to complete the other? Humanity continued to thrive, and everything continued as usual, following the established trajectory of humanity. Everyone assumed that the doomsday predictions would once again become a joke, just like before. But there are often unexpected things in the world, and when this unexpected thing is a disaster, it will make people feel like they are being raped because you have no way to resist.
