Companions on the Journey Chuck Blankenship,2003-08-01 The journey into the Church cannot be traveled alone. It makes no sense--indeed, it would be a contradiction--for someone to become part of the church without the help of someone in the community. Although the entire community stands ready to welcome a new member, there is a real need for personal guides. We refer to these companions as sponsors. Companions on the Journey is an invaluable guide for all who have accepted the call to sponsorship and for every RCIA program director. Companions on the Journey Tracey D. Leslie,2019-12-13 This six-part study introduces participants to foundational spiritual practices. It is structured to cultivate Christian covenant community, encouraging participants to build relationships with one another as they deepen their relationship with God. The introduction encourages participants to view discipleship as a lifelong journey, not merely a static set of beliefs. Using the journey of Abraham as an example, it provides an opportunity for participants to outline significant stops along their life's journey. The five practices include Scripture, prayer, generosity, evangelism (or witness), and service. In the Scripture session, participants read covenants from the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures as relational documents that deepen our understanding of the relationship God desires with us. The prayer session outlines types of prayer, discusses obstacles to prayer, and introduces classic prayer forms. The generosity session highlights an ancient understanding of grace, encouraging participants to understand giving as an expression of their trust in God. The evangelism session encourages participants to view their lives as compelling narrative and provides a structure for crafting their spiritual autobiography. The final session, service, considers our role within the church and the world, providing a process for discernment by evaluating skills and passions in light of the needs around us.

Praying with Frederic Ozanam Ronald Ramson,1998 Frederic Ozanam is best known as a founder of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul, an association of charity that has spread throughout the world. He was also one of the most celebrated professors at the University of Paris, where a lecture hall has been dedicated to his memory. In Praying with Frederic Ozanam, readers will get to know the man who lived in fidelity to God's grace as a Catholic layman--a devoted husband and father, a distinguished writer, and a man who actively practiced the works of mercy.

Praying with Benedict Katherine Howard, 1997-02 The way of life taught by Benedict provides, not only for monastics but for all of us, a simple framework for growing in relationship with God. The spirituality of the Rule of Benedict addresses in a timeless way the desire for integrating work and prayer, hospitality and solitude, community and silence. In a world desperately seeking to find its balance, people have rediscovered Benedict's wisdom. It is as relevant now as it always has been. To pray with Benedict is to listen and respond with the ear of [our] heart to God's word, allowing the transforming power of God's love in the Spirit of Christ to make us loving women and men.

Praying with Elizabeth Seton Margaret Alderman, Josephine Burns, 1992 As the first saint to be canonized who was born in the United States, Elizabeth Seton holds a special place in the history of the Catholic Church in America. A wife and widow, mother of five children, founder of a new community of religious women, teacher and administrator, Elizabeth Seton was remarkable by any standard. Most importantly, Elizabeth Seton was a holy person who brought other people to a greater love of God and of their sisters and brothers.

Praying with Therese of Lisieux Joseph F. Schmidt, 1992 This book invites us beyond psychological of self understanding. It contains the stuff of personal and societal transformation. The careful selection and arrangement of texts by the author demonstrates his own deep comprehension of Therese's message.

Praying with Julian of Norwich Gloria Durka, 1989 Dr. Gloria Durka gives us in one book an experience of meditation, an insight into a rich and complicated social epoch, a quiet argument for women's rights, and a practical encounter with a thinker.... Companions on a Journey Len Mac Lellan, 2021-06-09 Life takes us down various roads, with many fellow travellers passing us along the way. Some will accompany us on our journey, helping or hindering our progress. At other times, when life seems like a lonely trek, trust that the great Helper has always been by our side, from the moment our journey began. Through eyes of faith, we recognize His presence guiding and protecting us, until our travelling days have slowed to completion. A delightful, relevant, and moving collection of writing, Companions on a Journey pays tribute to the impact of others on our lives and the role we play in blessing the lives of those around us. Grounding his work in faith yet not afraid to wrestle with life's painful questions, Leonard Mac Lellan has beautifully crafted his reflections and experiences into stories, prose and poetry. Topics ranging from the coronavirus pandemic to his longing for the Maritimes provide interest for readers from all walks of life. Perfect with a cup of tea (or beverage of your choice) on a quiet day, Companions on a Journey will touch the hearts of readers from East to West.

Companions on my Journey Kathy McInnis, 2019-02-12 When I was a teenager, my mom told me that I walked around with a cloud over my head. She had no idea the truth in her statement, neither did she know the heavy weight of that dark cloud. The cloud cast deep shadows over every area of my life. Hiding in those shadows were sinister companions that would stalk me for years. This book, Companions on My Journey, is an attempt to share my messy journey through the darkness into the marvelous light of God's love and grace. At the cross I found healing and peace, freedom, and restoration. I pray that my Heavenly Father will use my story to guide the hurting, the rejected, the abused, and the condemned into the miraculous light of his unfathomable love. Please take my hand and journey with me.

Praying with Mother Teresa Jean Maalouf, 2003 Using anecdotes from Mother Teresa's life, wisdom, and work, this book allows us to draw strength and inspiration to live out our Christianity. -- Back cover.

Life Embodied Nicolás Fernández-Medina, 2018-05-30 The concept of vital force – the immanent energy that promotes the processes of life in the body and in nature – has proved a source of endless fascination and controversy. Indeed, the question of what vitalizes the body has haunted humanity since antiquity, and became even more pressing during the Scientific Revolution and beyond. Examining the complexities and theories about vital force in Spanish modernity, Nicolás Fernández-Medina's Life Embodied offers a novel and provocative assessment of the question of bodily life in Spain. Starting with Juan de Cabriada's landmark Carta filosófica, médico-chymica of 1687 and ending with Ramón Gómez de la Serna's avant-gardism of the 1910s, Fernández-Medina incorporates discussions of anatomy, philosophy, science, critical theory, history of medicine, and literary studies to argue that concepts of vital force served as powerful vehicles to interrogate the possibilities and limits of corporeality. Paying close attention to how the body's capabilities were conceived and strategically woven into critiques of modernity, Fernández-Medina engages the work of Miguel Boix y Moliner, Martín Martínez, Diego de Torres Villarroel, Sebastián Guerrero Herreros, Ignacio María Ruiz de Luzuriaga, Gaspar Melchor de Jovellanos, Pedro Mata y Fontanet, Ángela Grassi, Julián Sanz del Río, Miguel de Unamuno, and Pío Baroja, among others. Drawing on extensive research and analysis, Life Embodied breaks new ground as the first book to address the question of vital force in Spanish modernity.
