Albert A Gayle

Misconstrued Terica Ricard,2020-10 Although raised in the hood, I was shielded from everything surrounding me. Church and God was all I knew. The older I get, the more I found myself drifting from God. Soon being the drug dealer girl, fighting the judicial system and making fast money was the new way of life. At twenty-seven I found myself in a dark space, drowning in my own tears. Did I find the strength to take my life back or let life's circumstances take control?This book is inspired by true events. It could be you, your daughter, sister or friend, but I encourage you to never give up and never loose yourself in someone's eye world.
