Tours of Hell Martha Himmelfarb, 2016-11-11 From the ancient Book of the Dead to Dante's Divine Comedy, the living have attempted to describe the world of the dead. Tours of Hell focuses on one form of that attempt: the tours of hell found in Jewish and Christian apocalypses of late antiquity and the early Middle Ages. Himmelfarb examines seventeen texts, preserved in five languages and spanning a thousand years of human history. These include Hebrew texts and Christian texts in Greek, Latin, Ethiopic, and Coptic, such as the Apocalypse of Peter and the Apocalypse of Paul family. Muslim texts, medieval visions, and other related literatures are also discussed. Himmelfarb details the common elements of the tour tradition, including such features as a hero or heroine figure, a heavenly revealer, and descriptions of the punishments awaiting those who arrive in hell. She convincingly refutes the accepted nineteenth-century critical view of the earliest of these tours, the Apocalypse of Peter, as a Christian form of an Orphic-Pythagorean descent to Hades. She place the work instead on the family tree of the tour apocalypse, a genre she traces back to the third century B.C.E. Book of the Watchers (1 Enoch 1-36). Linking the Apocalypse of Peter with later Jewish tours of hell, Himmelfarb reveals significant sin-and-punishment combinations that seem to point to a common source, which she theorizes to be a lost Jewish Tour work of the late Second Temple period. Rich and fascinating texts seldom before brought to light are treated in detail in this pioneering study. A comprehensive work on the apocalyptic tradition, Tours of Hell will be of great interest to scholars and students of religion, history, ancient and medieval literature, and Dante studies.

The Fallen Frederick Guttman, The ancient time is behind us; the memory of old ages has disappeared. Man lives in the present not knowing how he came to be and how great things set the guidelines for the future of the current era. Already four ages of men have been left behind, one culminates; We wait for a different time, full of big dreams, but not before experiencing a hard passageway of desolation and death. Destroyed by fire, by cold and by water, our ancestors perished, leaving a record of what happened in stories that today we underestimate and experiences that we need as precedents; in the future that and the end of this last catastrophic age that will culminate in physical, psychic and spiritual earthquakes will be told. The Nephilim arrived and subdued man until today, they were an almost forgotten episode, but one that substantially marked history... history that must be remembered and reviewed. Malevolent spirits were placed to mislead humanity, but we also receive great divine virtues that counteract evil. Following the battle for sovereignty between the gods, the destruction reduced the population and changed the globe. When the fight against the imposters allowed the development of the next part of a master plan, our father Abraham began a mission whose magnitude would take time to glimpse until he was patriarch of the nations of those born in the True Law.
