

If Ever There Is A Tomorrow

Ray Claveran

Truisms of Life Ray Claveran, My hope in writing this book is to help as many people as possible to avoid mistakes we make in our daily lives and to understand what we must do to get along with one another. I know I have made my share of mistakes, and that is okay. The problem I had as a young man was to own up to my mistakes, whether they were words or actions. Looking back, I can see where a simple apology and to ask for forgiveness would have been the easy way to go. You know what they say about hindsight.

Gypsy Bags & Traveling Jackets Mica Rath, 2013-07-03 Gypsy Bags & Traveling Jackets is a journey of faith chronicled in journals spanning twenty-three years. A miniseries of periods, question marks, and exclamation points arranged in patterns of reflections, answers and awe-struck moments that reflect not just collections of recorded events but jumbled thoughts in a soul-searching exercise of discovery. These are stories tailored in transparency; stories of faith rewarded, hope rekindled and love poured out in ways unimaginable.

Awakening Courage Steve Miller, 2021-11-27 Awakening Courage: Stories of Grit, Resilience, and Toughness depicts the gifts and talents of people residing in a rural southeastern Ohio community nestled in the Appalachian foothills. But it could very well be any community in America. The author writes insightfully of the real lives of individuals and groups who transformed their communities. He does this with a clever mix of spirit, storytelling, and practical application strategies which he includes at the end of every chapter in the form of Points to Ponder, Questions for Discussion, and Applications to Community Development. You will be introduced to 'gritty' people who refused to take no for an answer and learned to rise above challenges and adversity and achieve prosperity in the process. They are people of character, humility, integrity, and passion. They are mentally tough, accountable to a cause bigger than themselves and "walk the talk" daily in their journey toward becoming all that they were meant to be, not what someone else said they should be. As you read this book, you are encouraged to examine your heart, your mind, and your experience about your place in any community - family, neighborhood, school, workplace, church, city or village. You will learn how people can bring their very best efforts to the present moment - which is the only time we have. So get comfy and grab your favorite brew and be prepared to learn more about the core qualities and traits of change-makers who were not born of privilege, genius, or wealth. They were just ordinary people who seized the opportunities given to them and made a difference and impacted their community along the

First Thoughts Ken & Val Baker, 2015-10-02 This is a compilation of four previously published, rather slenderer books, entitled The God of More than Enough, Christ the Hope of Glory, According to the Power and This Hope we Have. It appears now by popular request in one volume to encourage the reading and reflection on God's word every morning. It also contains the revised script of an E-book from some years back, entitled First Thoughts: Be My First Thought in the Morning. As a couple, we always try to start and finish each day centred on God's word, to let it be our first thought and our last thought. And so First Thoughts still seems to be an appropriate title for the present volume. There's a theme that comes consistently to the surface wherever we travel: it's the theme of God's supply. Everywhere we go, we find people hungry for the truth that God is all we need, that He is our supplier, that He provides for every single situation. So here are some of those verses that have blessed us in that discovery.

South of Salsette Avi Sonpal, South of Salsette is a story about all of us. Through a group of four couples who have been friends for years, this book is about something that each of us needs but sometimes takes for granted - friendship. From four different cultures, this group of friends has stayed together for decades, yet it is the smaller things that threaten to pull them apart. With Mumbai as the backdrop, this is a story of situations faced everyday, of pride getting in the way and of finally figuring out exactly what it is that you value most. South of Salsette will resonate with everyone who has ever had friends that have become closer than family. Set in South Mumbai, the book explores the nuances of this layered society along with the finer details that make Mumbai the city it is. From walks on Marine drive to Bar Nites at the Bombay Gymkhana, the book paints life in Mumbai in vibrant and real colors.

Keeping Hope Alive Lewis Smedes, 2000-02-11 In this fearful and cynical age, when doom-and-gloomers forecast catastrophe and fearmongers try to get us to hedge our bets on the future with insurance policies and safety nets, we need to rediscover real hope. Lewis Smedes says, Hope is as native to our spirits as thinking is to our brain. Keep hoping, and you keep living. Stop hoping, and you start dying. He shows how hope powers every good thing we accomplish and helps us overcome every bad thing we encounter. He talks about how to keep hope alive in difficult times, discern false hope from true hope, and move beyond worry to trust in God.

The Star You Steer By, 2021-10-18 This book explores Basil Bunting's continued reputation and influence in modern British poetry, and also the impact of a peculiarly 'Northern' inflection of Modernism (which Bunting largely defined) within the varieties of poetry being written in Britain today. The editors asked a variety of English, Scottish, Welsh and American poets and academics to reflect upon the themes, implications, impact or example of Bunting's work in the centenary year of his birth, looking back on the beginnings of Modernism at the start of the twentieth century into which he was born, or forward into the twenty-first century in which he continues to be read and learned from: a true poetic star to steer by. The resulting collection of fourteen new essays reveals the continued ability of Bunting's poetry both to delight and to challenge. Topics covered include the nature of influence; Celtic and Northumbrian contexts for the modern English long poem; prosodic patterns in early Bunting; Bunting as a reader of his own work; narrative sources in his poetry; the problem of patronage; his 'rueful masculinity'; women poets and Bunting; radical landscape poetry; his translations from the Persian Hafiz and the Roman Horace; economic and social tensions in his work; the poet as 'makar'; and a previously unpublished selection of his letters from the 1960s to the 1980s, commenting upon his own and others' poetry and on the political condition of Britain in those years. The collection will be of interest to teachers and readers of twentieth century English and American poetry, and to those exploring the processes of literary translation. Contributors include David Annwn, Richard Caddel, Roy Fisher, Victoria Forde, Harry Gilonis, Ian Gregson, Philip Hobsbaum, Parvin Loloi, James McGonigal, Richard Price, Glynn Pursglove, Harriet Tarlo, Gael Turnbull, and Jonathan Williams.
