graf Leo Tolstoy

The Battles of Wisdom and Humility Martin Luther, John Stuart Mill, David Hume, James Allen, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Andrew Murray, Thomas Paine, Ludwig Feuerbach, G. K. Chesterton, Friedrich Nietzsche, Thomas à Kempis, Leo Tolstoy, Charles Spurgeon, Wallace D. Wattles, Prentice Mulford, St. Teresa of Ávila, Saint Augustine, Florence Scovel Shinn, H. Emilie Cady, Gregory of Nyssa, Pope Gregory I, Athanasius of Alexandria, Basil the Great, John of Damascus, Saint Thomas Aquinas, Brother Lawrence, Arthur Pink, 2023-11-20 The Battles of Wisdom and Humility is a profound anthology that encapsulates a rich tapestry of philosophical and theological questing. Spanning centuries of thought, this collection delves into the intricate dynamics between wisdom and humility, with pieces ranging from introspective meditations to passionate discourses. Born out of a milieu rich with conflict and enlightenment, these works challenge prevailing paradigms, advocating for a balance between intellectual rigor and spiritual modesty. Without anchoring on singular voices, the anthology traverses diverse literary styles, from the introspective spirituality of mystics to the rationalist inquiry of Enlightenment thinkers, offering readers a panoramic view of humanity's quest for truth and meaning. The contributors to this volume are titans of thought, hailing from various eras and backgrounds, united by their quest to explore the human condition. Their collective works echo the sentiments of movements such as the Reformation, the Enlightenment, and the Christian Mysticism, reflecting on an evolving dialogue between faith and reason. Figures like Saint Augustine, John Stuart Mill, and Friedrich Nietzsche bring contextual diversity, enriching the collection with perspectives anchored in their historical and cultural milieu. Together, they weave a narrative that transcends boundaries, each author unraveling a unique thread in this tapestry of wisdom. For readers seeking intellectual cultivation and spiritual enrichment, The Battles of Wisdom and Humility promises a journey through the thoughts of history's great thinkers. This anthology offers a rare opportunity to encounter a multiplicity of perspectives, inviting an in-depth reflection on the eternal themes of knowledge and humility. Engaging with these works provides educational insights and fosters a dialogue across eras, encouraging readers to not only absorb diverse viewpoints but to contribute to the ongoing narrative of philosophical and spiritual inquiry. This collection stands as a testament to the vibrant conversation between disparate yet connected voices, appealing to both the scholars and seekers among us.

The Passive Eye Branka Arsić, 2003 The Passive Eye is a revolutionary and historically rich account of Berkeley's theory of vision. In this formidable work, the author considers the theory of the embodied subject and its passions in light of a highly dynamic conception of infinity. Arsic shows the profound affinities between Berkeley and Spinoza, and offers a highly textual reading of Berkeley on the concept of an exhausted subjectivity. The author begins by following the Renaissance universe of vision, particularly the paradoxical elusive nature of mirrors, then shows how this conception of vision was translated into the optical devices and in what way the various ways of deception could be conceived. Reading Berkeley against the backdrop of competing theories, in relation to Leibniz, Spinoza, Newton, Malebranche, Hume, Locke, Molyneux and others, this book gives a meticulous historic reconstruction of Berkeley's theory. This excellent scholarly work presents Berkeley's theory in a new and radical light. The book, presented in three parts, begins by presenting the conceptions of vision prior to Berkeley's intervention. In the second part, the author moves through a careful study of Descartes' theory of vision to arrive at Berkeley. The third part addresses the author's version of Berkeley in which the eye and the image become inseparable due to the collapse of the universe of representation. The problem of vision becomes not that of representation, but of presentation. Through an erudite historic reading of Berkeley's theory and astute comparative assessments, the author uncovers Berkeley's place as a contemporary theoretician, corresponding with such thinkers as Deleuze, Lacan, Foucault, and Derrida.

Malebranche: The Search After Truth Nicolas Malebranche, Paul J. Olscamp, 1997-05 Distinguished translation of the major work by a figure of crucial importance to the Enlightenment.

The Word As Truth Alan Fairweather, 2009-06-01 This essay offers a critical appreciation and comparison of the theological and philosophical position of Karl Barth and St. Thomas Aquinas. Mr. Fairweather's thesis is the essential mediacy of God's self-presentation to men. He maintains, as against Aquinas, that human finitude does not preclude acquaintance with the divine nature; and as against Barth, that man through grace is truly capax verbi Domini. In his comparison the scales are weighted heavily against Barth. He maintains that Barth's presuppositions (e.g., the radical discontinuity of the human and the divine), arise from a Manichaean rather than from a Christian source; and that, carried to the extremes to which Barth is prepared at times to carry them, they rob the Bible of all value for revelation; the Incarnation and the Cross of all value for human life; and the idea of revelation itself of any kinship with the idea of Truth. At the same time, while pointing out the extravagances, dangers and interior contradictions of the Barthian position, Mr. Fairweather recognizes the corrective value of his absolutist theology, and concludes that the Thomist position as regards revelation, though it is the more soundly based of the two, needs to be supplemented by the Barthian emphasis on the real presence of God in His Word.

Creative Silence O. S. Marantha, 1920

Executing Truth Stuart Weierner, 2019-04-26 With the increasing use of algorithms to govern public life, a proliferation of promises surrounding 'big data,' and an ever tighter union of academic specialists and the state bureaucracy, we are, it seems, on our way to an administrative utopia. At what cost, though? Executing Truth critically appraises this reformation of politics by way of the social sciences. It argues that what is lost with this reformation is a deeper consideration of the problematic relation of truth to politics; a problem which cuts deeper than any social science might plumb. In seeking to recover what is lost, this book offers a comprehensive study of the problem. The author works his way back from the debates in politically applied social science (or policy science) to the foundational thinkers. These include Harold Lasswell, John Dewey, Max Weber, and Georg Hegel. At the end of this journey, Executing Truth calls for a return to the everyday (or the most comprehensive basis for distinguishing between theoretical perspectives), and outlines the implications of this return for those political advisors – state executive actors – tasked with ‘speaking truth to power.’
