Joey Steel

Smart People about Islam Joey Steel, 2017-10-04 This first edition of Smart People About Islam by beloved author and pioneering professor Joey Steel, is the instant classic for introducing the essential viewpoints and teachings of one of the world's predominant faiths, Islam. In a time where terror has come to the heart of Western civilization, the necessity of this eye-opening collection of third party quotes and memes is clear. Through the combination of clear, succinct opinions and all-but-funny cartoons, Joey Steel has created a remarkable work on Islam, which should appeal to a wide range of readers interested in Islamic culture and public opinion. Documenting particular parts of the Qur'an, the Arab Spring, Sunni and Shia, modern interpretations of Islamic literature and the reaction of the general public, Smart People About Islam rightfully continues to be the bestselling of all Smart People About books, and will continue to be for quite some time. This will be the book you will be discussing for weeks with your friends and will be the most thought-provoking piece you'll have read all year.

Islam Through Quotations Kamal-Eldin Hassan, 2006-04 This book is written for Muslims living outside of Islamic countries and do not know the Arabic language so they may understand, with the least effort, the basic principles and spirit of their religion. With so many misrepresentations about Islam; this book should also be useful to non-Muslims to understand Islam, and Muslims, better. The word ?Islam? means peace, submission to God's will and obedience to His laws. It is based mainly on the Quran revealed by God to His Messenger and Prophet Mohamed and the Prophet's application of the rules thus revealed. Islam is the continuation of all former religious principles decreed by God through His revelations to all prophets. The prophets include Moses, Jesus Christ (as a prophet but not as a divine) and many of the prophets and leaders of the Old Testament. Unlike other religions, there is no titular head, clergy, nor priesthood in all of Islam.

Studying Islam in the Arab World Sari Hanafi, 2023-12-22 Addressing the rupture between religious and social sciences in Arab universities, this book provides a critical assessment of the curricula of Shariah and Islamic Studies departments across the Arab World, arguing for increased interdisciplinary dialogue. Based on over 250 interviews with university students and teachers, this study is the sum of five years of field research observing the curricula and teaching styles of colleges in the Shariah sciences. The author provides critical insight into these curricula by focusing on case studies in Lebanon and Jordan, Morocco, Kuwait and Qatar, and in Malaysia. In doing so, the book aims to answer the following questions: What is the aim of religious education? Does it aim to create people who specialize solely in religious affairs, or does it aim to form the student according to a comprehensive human framework? What is the nature of the relationship between the social sciences and the Shariah sciences? The book concludes by examining three pioneering institutions which have introduced alternative curricula in teaching Shariah studies. The book has wide geographic and ideological coverage, and will appeal to university students, academics, and policy analysts working across a range of disciplines, including the philosophy of knowledge, Islamic law and education, and sociology.

Those Challenging Cracks of Secularism Oliver O. Nwachukwu, 2014 Lack of religious enthusiasm is a universal nemesis with long-ranging effects. This work shows how secularism can further deepen dividing lines among people.

American Muslim Agenda Dr. Mike Ghouse, 2019-01-11 This book, The American Muslim Agenda, is a primer, a blueprint, a roadmap for American Muslims to consider. A Muslim is someone who is a conflict mitigator and a goodwill nurturer, following a formula for peaceful societies practiced by Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and guided by the Quran. As a community, American Muslims have not developed any concrete plans to extricate themselves out of the chaotic situations, hostility and incessant Islamophobic rhetoric we face. Each time a terrorist acts out, we start praying and wishing that the terrorist not be a Muslim. We are Americans, and we can do better than that. This book paves the way for us to own the mistakes we have made, remedy them, and become fully integrated Americans. There is only one America, and all of us are fully integrated parts of that nation. We need to learn to engage with those who are opposed to us, and I have some good success stories to share on that front. When we start defending America and American values we are in! We become an integral part of American Fabric.

Higher Powered Shahryar Sadree, 2016-03-15 You have more power than you will ever know. It has been said that humans only use a small fraction of the mind's ability. What if you could unlock that unused potential and open the doorway to your dreams? What if you could make that your reality? Author Shahryar Sadrees Higher Powered: A Book of Powerful Secrets to Finding Happiness takes you on a journey to open your mind, awaken the spirit, and unfold the real truth as to who you really are. From there, you will learn what it means to have power, and your life can change forever. Sadree pieces together historical events, science, and his own discoveries to pave a way to a better understanding of human behaviors. He discusses the necessity of changing how we think to achieve a truly happy life. In down-to-earth language and a friendly tone, the author delves into why we think the way we do before embarking on the difficult yet achievable task of changing how we think. Debating the War of Ideas J. Gallagher, E. Patterson, 2009-12-21 The War of Ideas is about the fundamental principles of human society. This book brings together some of the most important voices from different partisan, theoretical and religious perspectives to argue and forecast the next phase in the War of Ideas.

Transforming Bodies and Religions Mariecke van den Berg, Lieke Schrijvers, Jelle Wiering, Anne-Marie Korte, 2020-10-01 This book sheds an interdisciplinary light on 'transforming bodies': bodies that have been subjected to, contributed to, or have resisted social transformations within religious or secular contexts in contemporary Europe. It explores the intersections of race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality and religion that underpin embodied transformations. Using post-secularist, postcolonial and gender/queer perspectives, it aims to gain a better understanding of the orchestrations and effects of larger social transitions related to religion. This volume is the outcome of the intensive collaboration of the authors, who for years have been meeting regularly in Utrecht, the Netherlands, to discuss themes related to religion and 'the challenge of difference', with an added afterword by Prof. Pamela Klassen from the University of Toronto. The book is divided in three subsections that focus on particular types of embodiment: body politics in governmental and NGO organisations; the role of the body in literary and/or autobiographical narratives; and ethnographic case studies of bodies in daily life. Doing so, it provides an innovative exploration of contemporary religion and the body. It will, therefore, be of great interest to scholars of Religious Studies, Gender and Sexuality Studies, Post-Colonial Studies, Anthropology, Sociology, Theology, and Philosophy.
