Sicilian Elements in Andrea Camilleri's Narrative Language Cinzia Russi, 2020-10-14 Sicilian Elements in Andrea Camilleri's Narrative Language examines Camilleri's unique linguistic repertoire and techniques over his career as a novelist. It focuses on the intensification of Sicilian linguistic features in Camilleri's narrative works, in particular features pertaining to the domains of sounds and grammar, since these have been marginalized in linguistic-centered research on the evolution of Camilleri's narrative language and remain overall understudied. Through a systematic comparative analysis of the distribution patterns of selected Sicilian features in a selection of Camilleri's historical novels and novels of the Montalbano series, the author identifies the individual features that have become most widespread and the lexical items that are targeted with highest frequency and consistency. The results of the analysis show that in the earlier novels, Sicilian features are rather sparse and can be attributed to linguistic situational functionality; that is, they function as indices of salient, distinctive aspects of topics, settings, events/situations, and characters. Conversely, in the latest novels, Sicilian elements pervade the entire novels and the texts are written almost entirely in Camilleri's own Sicilian, vigatese, so that Sicilian is stripped of any linguistic situational functionality.

His Master's Voice/La Voce Del Padrone Alan Kelly, Gramophone Company, EMI Music Archive, 1988 This discography provides, for perhaps the first time, a complete numerical catalogue of Italian gramophone recordings made by the Gramophone Company Ltd. Kelly has effectively used the archives and registers of EMI Limited (The Gramophone Company) to offer a richly detailed picture of recording activity during the years 1898 to 1929. The Gramophone Company was established in London in 1898 and by 1899 six branches had been set up in Europe, among them Milan, Italy. In each branch, matrixes were numbered serially and coded to indicate recorder, making it possible to identify not only the first Gramophone record to be made in Italy--Bice Adami singing Voi lo sapete with piano accompaniment--but to follow the course of the company's activities. The main catalogue is divided into three sections: recordings issued on the Gramophone label; recordings issued on the Zonophone label, including the Trento-Trieste Supplement; and recordings issued on the Gramophone Green label. Most entries include the following information: the original catalogue number; the matrix (serial) number of the recording in its correct form; the date of recording; the name of the artist(s) involved in making the recording, including the accompaniast where known; the title of the piece; and alternate issue numbers. Kelly's introduction gives an overview of the company's history and cataloging practices. Kelly not only examines the history of the Italian Gramophone Company, but added to the discographical record of the Victor Talking Machine Company, of which Gramophone was the European, Asian, and African partner. His discography will be welcomed by anyone interested in the international history of recorded music. Record collectors will also find it a valuable resource.

L'amore è il cuore dell'universo con il nome DIO Shefit Troka, 2022-06-30 Esiste un modo per riempire di serenità la nostra vita? Ebbene sì, ce lo spiega l'autore di L'amore è il cuore dell'universo con il nome DIO in questo innovativo saggio, frutto delle sue ricerche e delle sue riflessioni e incentrato su come ritrovare la felicità e la pace con noi stessi, con i nostri simili e l'universo che abitiamo. Il primo passo, forse, è proprio comprendere che non siamo divisi da Dio ma un tutt'uno con lui, uniti in una danza cosmica ricca di poesia, in cui c'è ancora spazio per l'umanità, per l'amore, la compassione e la speranza. Shefit Troka - Stefano, cittadino italo-albanese. Nato a Fier, Albania, il 25 giugno 1968. Nel 1992 per motivi di lavoro ha attraversato l'Adriatico con una zattera, come emigrante è arrivato in Abruzzo. Si è stabilito a Guardiagrele, in provincia di Chieti. Lavoratore in un'azienda metalmeccanica. È appassionato di fisica quantistica e matematica. Ha ricevuto il premio "Artista internazionale Michelangelo". Autore di brevetti industriali. Scrittore.
