Queen Hatshepsut's Expedition to the Land of Punt: The First Oceanographic Cruise?. , Presents information about the fleet of ships that Egyptian Queen Hatshepsut (15th-16th century B.C.) sent to the Land of Punt, near present-day Somalia, in 1493 B.C., compiled by Sayed Z. El-Sayed. Notes that the trip was primarily a trading expedition.

Land of Punt: In Search of the Divine Land of the Egyptians Dhani Irwanto,2019-03-22 The Land of Punt was an ancient trading partner of Egypt. It was known for producing and exporting gold, incense, aromatic resins, ebony, ivory, tortoise shells and wild animals. The region is known from ancient Egyptian records of trade expeditions to it. The ancient Egyptians called the Land of Punt the Divine Land or the Land of Gods. When interpreted as “holy land” or “land of the ancestors”, meant that the ancient Egyptians viewed the Land of Punt as their ancestral homeland, and its location is toward the sunrise, the abode of the sun god Ra. The exact location of the Land of Punt is unknown. Through the centuries debate goes on with scholars and historians on every side offering plausible supports for their claims. After gathering abundance of converging evidence, the author argues that the Land of Punt is located in Sumatera, Indonesia. In connection with the Land of Punt as the ancestral land of the ancient Egyptians, it can be concluded that the Divine Land or the ancestral land of the Egyptians is Sumatera.

The Enchanted Land of Punt M E Jackson,2025-10-08 The Enchanted Land of Punt By M.E. Jackson A long, long time ago, across the sea from ancient Egypt, there was a mystical place known as the Land of Punt-a kingdom so rich and rare that pharaohs called it the Land of the Gods. Punt was filled with treasures like incense, gold, ivory, and tall giraffes. Sailors traveled across oceans to trade and explore this enchanted land, bringing back stories of beauty, wonder, and magic.

The Mystery of the Land of Punt Unravalled Ahmed Ibrahim Awale,2015-01-21 This book contains convincing evidence and persuasive arguments to cause a stir among historians - Egyptologists in particular - as it will expose archaeological findings excavated in an area that has never been thought to have historical significance. This is no place other than Hargeisa, the capital of Somaliland, and surrounding areas. While the ground-breaking information contained in this book is hoped to bring the long standing argument on the location of the mysterious Land of Punt almost to a close, it will also shed a new light on the race controversy surrounding ancient Egyptians.

Sundaland: Tracing The Cradle of Civilizations Dhani Irwanto,2019-02-22 Sundaland is a bio-geographical region of Southeastern Asia which encompasses the Sunda Shelf, the part of the Asian continental shelf that was exposed during the Last Ice Age. It included the Malay Peninsula on the Asian mainland, as well as the large islands of Kalimantan, Java and Sumatera, and their surrounding islands. Sundaland is in the tropics, surrounded by oceans, and within the Ring of Fire. Benefitting from the heavy precipitation, volcanic deposits in Sundaland develop into some of the richest forestry and agricultural lands, and developed into some of the richest fauna on Earth. The vast majority of scholars accept that every living human being is descended from a small group in Africa, who then dispersed into the wider world. Archaeological and fossil evidence support an early migration of modern humans left Africa and followed the coastlines of Africa, Arabia, India and Sundaland. After migrating from the semi-deserted savannas of Africa, man first found a place in Sundaland where food was abundant and it was there that they left hunter-gatherer culture and invented farming, agriculture, trading and civilization, which made humanity first flourished. All this took place during the Last Glacial period. The sea levels continued to rise gradually to peak levels about 5,500 years ago, causing land loss on tropical coasts with flat continental shelves. Cracks in the earth's crust as the weight of the ice shifted to the seas set off catastrophic events compounded by earthquakes, volcano eruptions, super waves and floods drowned the coastal cultures and all the flat continental shelves of Southeast Asia, and wiped out many populations. As the sea rolled in, there was a mass migration from the sinking continent.

Genetic studies show that there has been a sharp decline in the population of the world, and population turnovers from Southeast, East and South Asia to Europe, Near East and the Caucasus beginning at the the end of the Younger Dryas period. The Younger Dryas disasters are also documented as legends, myths or tales in almost every region on Earth, observable with tremendous similarities. They are common across a wide range of cultures, extending back into Bronze Age and Neolithic prehistory. The overwhelming consistency among legends and myths of flood and the repopulation of man from a flood hero similar to the Noah Flood are found in distant parts of the Earth. The myths similar to the Garden of Eden, Paradise or Divine Land echo among the populations around the world. Memories of their origin are documented in their legends, such as the stories of Atlantis, Neserser, Land of Punt, Land of Ophir, Kumari Kandam, Kangdez and Taprobana. Pyramids spread in many parts of the world and emerged separately from one another by oceans who supposedly never discovered each other's existence. Those indicate that they were derived from a common origin. Further, scholastic belief by etymologists and linguists are positive that all world languages sprang from a common source.

Stories from the Land of Punt Anita Suleiman,1991 From the Introduction: As long ago as the 2,000 years B.C.E., Egyptian merchants imported frankincense and myrrh, spices, ivory and other expensive goods from a mysterious land called Punt. It is likely that Somalia was, or was a part of, ancient Punt. Somalia, on the eastern Horn of Africa, has a long shoreline that is lapped by the waves of the Indian Ocean and the Red Sea Gulf. It is at the southern end of the world as known to the ancient civilizations of Egypt and the Middle East.
