The Quote Verifier Ralph Keyes, 2007-04-01 Our language is full of hundreds of quotations that are often cited but seldom confirmed. Ralph Keyes's The Quote Verifier considers not only classic misquotes such as Nice guys finish last, and Play it again, Sam, but more surprising ones such as Ain't I a woman? and Golf is a good walk spoiled, as well as the origins of popular sayings such as The opera ain't over till the fat lady sings, No one washes a rented car, and Make my day. Keyes's in-depth research routinely confounds widespread assumptions about who said what, where, and when. Organized in easy-to-access dictionary form, The Quote Verifier also contains special sections highlighting commonly misquoted people and genres, such as Yogi Berra and Oscar Wilde, famous last words, and misremembered movie lines. An invaluable resource for not just those with a professional need to quote accurately, but anyone at all who is interested in the roots of words and phrases, The Quote Verifier is not only a fascinating piece of literary sleuthing, but also a great read.

The Power of Belief Yusuf Sabiku, 2023-07-19 Thoughtful from the onset, The Power of Belief highlights the life story of the author, who despite all odds rose to greatness. Yusuf Sabiku, who grew up poor in one of the most densely populated areas of Lilongwe, Malawi, shares a journey of self-improvement that led him to a new world of possibility. Growing up in the slums where the dreams of many youths were shattered, the author came to realize that the power of belief reflects one's thoughts. That is, if we can only change our mindset and embrace positive thinking, we can free ourselves from the mental shackles of negativity and become empowered to effect change around us. The author's mastery of martial arts is a shining example of the power of belief, as well as his career in the British Army. Join the author on an incredible journey that will help you boost confidence and achieve excellence no matter what society expects from you. Transform your mind and annihilate all the obstacles that stand before you with the Power of Belief. Dwell into it and DEFY ODDS. Discover your real self Enhance the Potential within you Face your inner fears Yield self-belief and Positive thinking Overcome doubt and negativity Defeat adversity and embrace failure Define the meaning and purpose of life Serve your life with a greater cause

The Meaning Is in the Dirt Marlette B. Reed, B.Ed., MA, Annette M. Lane, RN, PhD, 2019-11-30 From the authors of Making Meaning in Older Age and Older Adults: Understanding and Facilitating Transitions (now in its third edition) Many demands in life can impede meaning-making. The pressures of work, ongoing education, raising a family, caregiving for older relatives—and more—compete for our time to pursue meaning in life. The work of character development, the effort and discipline(s) needed for purposeful living, and learning healthy ways of dealing with adversity can get short-circuited, leaving people with a sense of internal emptiness or quiet desperation. The desire to live a perfect life, one untroubled by “messiness,” whether in our homes or in our life choices, can leave us with the nagging question: “What’s it all for?” This book offers short and easy-to-read meditations that address making meaning through the metaphor of dirt. With their decades of working with people facing challenging circumstances, identical twins Marlette and Annette explain why making meaning is important, and they outline practical ways in which adults can find meaning in their lives. Transparent and real, the authors address the challenging circumstances we may think disturb our lives unfairly (but may, in fact, lead to greater richness), as well as discuss the impact in the world of living purposefully. The authors write with insight and warmth as well as personal experience of adversity; they provide persuasive reasoning for the importance of living intentionally and meaningfully in the messiness of life. The meaning really is in the dirt!
