The Authenticity of Faith in Kierkegaard's Philosophy Tamar Aylat-Yaguri, Jon Stewart, 2014-07-18 When he heard the voice that ordered him to sacrifice his son, was Abraham deluded? When is faith merely a form of self-deception? The existential challenge of attaining and preserving faith is as difficult today as ever before and perhaps even more so in a scientifically, technologically oriented culture. Faith can turn into inauthenticity as easily today as in Kierkegaard's era. This book presents Kierkegaard's illuminating responses to the existentially haunting questions of faith and authenticity.

Shakespeare Survey: Volume 57, Macbeth and Its Afterlife Peter Holland, 2008-01-31 Shakespeare Survey is a yearbook of Shakespeare studies and production. Since 1948 Survey has published the best international scholarship in English and many of its essays have become classics of Shakespeare criticism. Each volume is devoted to a theme, or play, or group of plays; each also contains a section of reviews of that year's textual and critical studies, and of the year's major British performances. The books are illustrated with a variety of Shakespearean images and production photographs. The virtues of accessible scholarship and a keen interest in performance, from Shakespeare's time to our own, have characterised the journal from the start. Most volumes of Survey have long been out of print. Backnumbers are gradually being reissued in paperback.

The Little Red Book: Quotations from Chairman Mao Tse-tung Mao Tse-tung, 2024-03-17 Quotations from Chairman Mao Tse-tung is a book of statements from speeches and writings by Mao Zedong (Mao Tse-tung), the former Chairman of the Communist Party of China, published from 1964 to about 1976 and widely distributed during the Cultural Revolution. The most popular versions were printed in small sizes that could be easily carried and were bound in bright red covers, becoming commonly known in the West as the Little Red Book. Quotations from Chairman Mao Tse-tung was originally compiled by an office of the PLA Daily (People's Liberation Army Daily) as an inspirational political and military document. The initial publication covered 23 topics with 200 selected quotations by the Chairman of the Chinese Communist Party, and was entitled 200 Quotations from Chairman Mao. It was first given to delegates of a conference on 5 January 1964 who were asked to comment on it. In response to the views of the deputies and compilers of the book, the work was expanded to address 25 topics with 267 quotations, and the title was changed simply to Quotations from Chairman Mao Tse-Tung.

Understanding Reality Religion Hiley Ward, 2007-08 You know the Big questions. When did it all begin? Before creation, what? Before that? Where was I 10,000 years ago? When will it all end? But I suppose that the question that bothers people most is: How can God, the omnipotent, the Creator, be good when there is so much evil in the world? Here is an attempt to face up to the eternal, unsolvable contradictory questions about God, Jesus, the church and the practice of faith in the Christian life. Without negating traditional religion concepts, God is embraced in all of his attributes. He has a dark side. He is jealous, egotistical, cruel, tyrannical, killer of innocent hordes. He is also recognized as a great deliverer, lover of good, supporter of mankind, and a generally good companion. The Christian opts to address this second image of God, the beneficent. The author has struggled with the definition and nature of God all his life. He has found that he can question God and acknowledge his/her dark side while at the same time love God and bask in his presence and love. Here is a new kind of spiritual journey -- intellectually honest and committed in faith.

He's been mentoring a young operative who then decides to go rogue and now it's up to Jesse to find the man and, if need be, eliminate him before he can hurt anyone else.

Scripture, Tradition, and Infallibility Dewey M. Beegle, 1973 The basic contention of this forthright and challenging study is that inerrancy and infallibility apply only to God and to his Son, Jesus Christ. Inasmuch as scripture has been given, transmitted, and interpreted through human channels, it is bound to bear the marks of that humanity. Nevertheless, God is not restricted by this self-imposed limitation. Scripture is sufficiently accurate and trustworthy to accomplish his purpose because the Holy Spirit drives home God's message with authority. The claims of biblical inerrancy or infallibility, Beegle believes, stem from insecurity. But scripture, understood properly, does not make such claims for itself; and most certainly a dynamic church characterized by confident preaching of the gospel has no need to go beyond the Bible to lend it such feeble defenses. - Cover.
