Megaprojects in Central America Katarzyna Dembicz, Ewelina Biczynska, 2025-11-28 Embedded in Southern voices and epistemologies, this book explores how local communities in Central America understand development and the good life in the context of large-scale infrastructure projects. The analysis focuses on six case studies: the Reventazón hydropower plant and the Guanacaste tourism projects in Costa Rica, the Barro Blanco hydropower plant in Panama, the Bahía de Tela tourism area in Honduras, and the La India and La Libertad gold mines in Nicaragua. The book draws on extensive in-depth interviews, participatory workshops and surveys to demonstrate how different social groups interpret the impacts of megaprojects. It critically examines the tensions between externally-driven investment initiatives — and the values they promote — and locally-rooted worldviews, wellbeing and ways of life. The volume concludes with a practical workshop proposal to help communities strengthen their resilience and formulate alternative development pathways based on their own cultural and social frameworks. This book will be of particular interest to scholars in the fields of development and Latin American studies, as well as policy makers and practitioners working in the region.

Marriage and the Culture of Peace Cecilia Sarahi de la Rosa Vazquez, Paris A. Cabello-Tijerina, 2023-03-14 This book provides skills for therapists and families to help improve interpersonal communication, promoting a new system of family coexistence and a refreshed concept of the modern marriage in society. Written from a constructivist peace perspective, the book's aim is to reduce the high statistics of intimate partner violence that occurs in Mexico, arguing that the culture of peace and how it is born in the family in turn affects society for better or for worse. Based upon interviews from 150 long-term married couples, the chapters address the components that promote peaceful dialogue in marriages, such as assertive language, active listening, tolerance to frustration, and gender perspectives. Including accessible language and several models of peace, the book uniquely examines same-sex marriages, the role of children in marriage conflicts, and prescribed gender assumptions and roles in relationships. It aims to empower family members to move away from old habits and seek a more equitable existence in marriages and society at large. This interdisciplinary text will be of great interest to family therapists and clinical social workers, as well as to students and researchers in communication and peace studies.

El pesimismo político en el Discurso sobre la Desigualdad de Jean-Jacques Rousseau Carlos Diego Arenas Pacheco, 2016-02-16 Seminar paper del año 2015 en el tema Filosofía - Filosofía de los siglos XVII y XVIII, Nota: 10, Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana (Departamento de Filosofía), Idioma: Español, Resumen: Queremos demostrar en este texto, a través de una contextualización histórica suficiente, que el Discurso sobre la Desigualdad es un ensayo que expresa un profundo pesimismo político, lo que también otorga una luz distinta a la lectura tradicional del Contrato Social. En el Contrato, pues, Rousseau no ofrece una solución definitiva para las sociedades grandes y complejas. La mayoría de las interpretaciones del Discurso sobre la Desigualdad de Jean-Jacques Rousseau lo leen desde diversos puntos de vista: como un texto romántico, antirromántico, protocomunista, primitivista o iluminista. Es claro entonces que esta infinidad de (re)interpretes de Rousseau han utilizado sus ideas para ilustrar las propias. Lo que hace falta en estos estudios es considerar el texto en su contexto histórico: intentar leerlo en las mismas condiciones en las que fue publicado. El objetivo de Rousseau no es (de acuerdo con Rousseau mismo) hacer que los grandes Estados regresen a la simplicidad original, sino detener el progreso de aquellas sociedades aún pequeñas y aisladas (como Ginebra, por ejemplo, o como Polonia). El ginebrino precisa que su solución sólo puede aplicarse a pequeñas Repúblicas, no a grandes Estados. La solución política, social y económica de Rousseau es completamente conservadora (para su tiempo).

Los otros libros Raúl Renán, 2010 In this testimony, Raúl Renán refers to printed works that in Mexico adopted innovative presentations and aesthetic contents full of freedom. The author tells how many writers made books in ways different from the traditional, using newspaper fragments and reprints in color, with corn leaves and printed sheets with parts of the human body. Los otros libros. Distintas opciones en el trabajo editorial (The other books. Different options in the editorial work) is a revision of the books that emerged from the independent publishing movement of the late 1970's and produced by marginal publishers. From these publishers, La Máquina Eléctrica was born as the manifesto of a group of artists and with the slogan of being a voice of poets for poets. The [book] also tries to be a testimony, to be an example of an editorial alternative for writers that will allow them to put their genius and sensitivity to the service of education and culture (HKB Translation) --Verso cover.

Personality Disorders and Suicide Hilario Blasco-Fontecilla, Enrique Baca-García, Jerónimo Sáiz Ruiz, 2007 The main objective of this book is to present a clear and profound review of the role of PD on suicide behaviour. Data on PDs different of BPD and antisocial PD are scarce. The contributors are all clinicians and researchers focused on the study of suicide. The book has two well-differentiated parts: the first one is a brief introduction to some theoretical issues that are considered basic to set the ground when approaching the second part, which is devoted to research on the influence of personality, and particularly, PDs on suicidal behaviour. In addition to the extensive review carried out, the authors also present data on some of the research that their research group and others are carrying out in this area.
