Free to Fly Nicole Runyon, 2025-05-06 In Free to Fly, Nicole Runyon reveals how today's technology is crippling our kids' development, and she offers parents a clear path to reclaim their children's mental health, build resilience, and foster true independence in the next generation. Every day, news headlines scream about the mental-health crisis in the United States, especially among youth. Anxiety, depression, and suicide are at record levels, and parents are desperate to seek treatment for their children. They recognize that the kids are not alright but don't know how to help. In two-plus decades of working as a child therapist, author Nicole Runyon, LMSW, has seen the devastating effect technology is having on today's young people. From social media and gaming addiction to pornography and sextortion, children's innocence and health are being demolished by their virtual realities. In Free to Fly, Nicole will show you where we've gone wrong and how to get back on track, by sharing essential info such as the four parts of child development, and how technology use impacts each stage the ways children have become disconnected from other people, and from themselves the reasons discomfort is critical to resilience, in both parents and children strategies for creating boundaries around your child's technology use why therapy isn't always the answer Yes, technology is here to stay. But so are you! No one has greater influence on children than their parents. And this book will equip you to determine when and how technology is part of your child's life, empowering you to make informed decisions. It's never too late to make choices that will benefit not only your child but also your entire family.

Can't Hurt Me David Goggins, 2021-03-03 New York Times Bestseller Over 7 million copies sold For David Goggins, childhood was a nightmare -- poverty, prejudice, and physical abuse colored his days and haunted his nights. But through self-discipline, mental toughness, and hard work, Goggins transformed himself from a depressed, overweight young man with no future into a U.S. Armed Forces icon and one of the world's top endurance athletes. The only man in history to complete elite training as a Navy SEAL, Army Ranger, and Air Force Tactical Air Controller, he went on to set records in numerous endurance events, inspiring Outside magazine to name him The Fittest (Real) Man in America. In Can't Hurt Me, he shares his astonishing life story and reveals that most of us tap into only 40% of our capabilities. Goggins calls this The 40% Rule, and his story illuminates a path that anyone can follow to push past pain, demolish fear, and reach their full potential.

epidemiologic factors include: · The role of social class disparities · The role of obesity and physical inactivity · The potential effects of electromagnetic fields and radiofrequency radiation · The principles of cancer chemoprevention For both seasoned professionals and newer generations of students and researchers, this fourth edition of CANCER EPIDEMIOLOGY AND PREVENTION remains the authority in the field -- a work of distinction that every lab, library, student, professional, or researcher should have close at hand.

Integrated Diabetes Care David Simmons, Helmut Wenzel, Janice C. Zgibor, 2016-10-31 Integrating care across disciplines and organisations around the needs of the person with diabetes has been proposed as an approach that could improve care while reducing cost- but has it and can it? Integrated Diabetes Care- A Multidisciplinary Approach collates evidence of worldwide approaches to both horizontal integration (across disciplines) and vertical integration (across organizations) in diabetes care and describe what was done, what worked and what appeared to be the barriers to achieving the goals of the programmes. Evidence is sought from groups who have developed different approaches to integrating diabetes care in different health systems (eg insurance vs tax payer funded, single vs multiple organization, published vs unpublished). A final chapter brings the evidence together for a final discussion about what seems to work and what does not.

Schottenfeld and Fraumeni Cancer Epidemiology and Prevention Michael J. Thun, Martha S. Linet, James R. Cerhan, Christopher A. Haiman, David Schottenfeld, 2018 The definitive reference for budding and experienced cancer epidemiologists alike. -American Journal of Epidemiology Practitioners in epidemiology and oncology will find immense value in this. -JAMA Since its initial publication in 1982, CANCER EPIDEMIOLOGY AND PREVENTION has served as the premier reference work for students and professionals working to understand the causes and prevention of cancer in humans. Now revised for the first time in more than a decade, this fourth edition provides a comprehensive summary of the global patterns of cancer incidence and mortality, current understanding of the major causal determinants, and a rationale for preventive interventions. Special attention is paid to molecular epidemiologic approaches that address the wider role of genetic predisposition and gene-environment interactions in cancer etiology and pathogenesis. New and timely chapters on environmental and social-epidemiologic factors include: - The role of social class disparities - The role of obesity and physical inactivity - The potential effects of electromagnetic fields and radiofrequency radiation - The principles of cancer chemoprevention For both seasoned professionals and newer generations of students and researchers, this fourth edition of CANCER EPIDEMIOLOGY AND PREVENTION remains the authority in the field -- a work of distinction that every lab, library, student, professional, or researcher should have close at hand.

CAN'T HURT ME tells the life story of David Goggins, a United States Armed Forces legend and one of the world's elite endurance athletes. Rising from a childhood marred by physical and emotional abuse from his father, neglect, poverty, racism, depression and being overweight, David (through sheer grit and determination), rose to become a Navy SEAL, an Army Ranger, an Air Force Tactical Air Controller, a top Navy recruiter, a receiver of many presidential awards for meritorious service, and a globally noted ultra marathon athlete with a Guinness Book of World Records title in pull ups. David's life is a powerful lesson in self-discipline, mental toughness, hard work, uncompromising work ethic, will power and sacrifice. And the beauty of the book, CAN'T HURT ME, is that in it, David reveals the strategies and principles that he used (and which anyone, including you, can also use) to push past pain, fear, lack and self doubt to achieve your full potential in life. The book truly teaches you how to master your mind and defy the odds, and how to overcome any challenge, obstacle or adversity. This is a summary and guide to the main book. This summary is well-written. All the essential points and lessons in the main book are carefully extracted and presented in this summary so you can access them in a time-efficient and cost-efficient manner. But note that this summary is meant to be a companion, not a replacement, to the main book. So read this summary before or after reading the main book. And remember everybody can benefit from this book. All you need to do is to apply the same strategies and mindset that David demonstrated in the book. If you do that, there is no doubt that you will be more than totally equipped to fight your life battles and overcome all of your limitations. Ge yourself the edge. BUY THIS BOOK NOW!
