Writing Like Writers Kathryn L. Johnson, Pamela V. Westkott, 2004 Build a classroom of excited, talented young writers. This wonderful teaching resource offers a complete approach to creating a classroom of enthusiastic, skillful student writers. The authors provide a comprehensive approach to teaching writing in the classroom. This book offers the strategies teachers need to teach writing skills that meet national standards and produce excellent results from children. Topics addressed in this guidebook include: creating the writing classroom, teaching the writing process, teaching effective writing strategies, teaching elements of story structure, teaching the advanced craft of writing, and using a writers' workshop to teach good writing. Writing is a great differentiator. During the writers' workshop, each student is engaged in meaningful ways. Pulling together more than three decades of practical experience and research on the best strategies for teaching writing, Writing Like Writers offers a friendly, easy-to-use guide for any teacher seeking to build a classroom of successful writers.

"Can We Use a Story Map?" Le Tran, 2009 Research Question: How will using a story map graphic organizer help improve students' structure and organization in their narrative writing? Sub Questions: Will using a story map help ELL students to be able to plan their writing and organize their writing during the pre-write phase? Will using a story map help students to allow their readers to imagine the world of the event or experience in their narrative writing? Research Activities: Context: This study took place in a fourth grade self contained classroom that was located in a small district under Program Improvement. The class was composed of a diverse student population with a wide range of academic needs. In this intervention, there were four students who were chosen as target students based on their low writing ability. All four students were English Language Learners. Methods and Data: This intervention spanned 5 weeks. It was implemented in order to guide students in improving the organization and structure of their narrative writing. Student achievement was defined based on their increasing scores and the layout of their papers (whether or not the paragraphs were identifiable). The data included a collection of their graphic organizers, narrative writing, attitudinal surveys, observational notes, and homework. Results: Comparisons of baseline and outcome data indicate that target students showed slight growth on their writing scores based on a rubric, in the organization of the writing, and in their attitude towards writing. Conclusions: Story map graphic organizers provided students' with a visual display of how to write a narrative. It also provided students with guidance to start and continue through the different sections of a narrative. This intervention demonstrated that with modeling, practice, and many examples, students will be able to improve in the organization and structure of their writing and feel more confident as they write. Grade Level: Fourth Grade. Data Collection Methods: Curriculum assessments, Survey-Attitude, Writing Assessments, and Observation - Student. Curriculum Areas: ESL/ELL, Writing. Instructional Approaches: Writing -- Explicit Instruction, Writing -- Narrative, Homework, and Graphic organizers.
