Fortuny Wendy Ligon Smith, 2022-09-13 Uncovers the extraordinary breadth of designer Mariano Fortuny, including and beyond his fashion output, alongside the personal and political catalysts that inspired him Mariano Fortuny y Madrazo (1871-1949) was a polymath who experimented in a variety of media including electric lighting, stage design, photography, the development of pigments, and textile and garment design. Yet his vision as a painter, persistently attuned to light and color, shaped all his artistic endeavors. Fortuny: Time, Space, Light examines Fortuny's Venetian workspaces, clothing designs, stage lighting inventions, and paintings to find unifying themes of revivalism, memory, light, magic, and secrecy that run throughout his wide-ranging career. It features new archival discoveries, including unseen artworks and unpublished personal writings, as well as a new analysis of Fortuny's paintings, never-before discussed in an English-language publication. In addition to providing historical context and visual analysis of his work, the book delves into the relationships between Fortuny and Proust, Wagnerian opera, and Italian fascism. It also aims to illuminate more of Fortuny's personal motivations through new archival evidence and unpublished notes to explore how his object collection and library were used as catalysts for his innovative creations.

Unfollow Everything Amruth Raj,2025-09-13 Alive, Not Just Existing is a guide for anyone who feels stuck in the noise of life — chasing deadlines, scrolling endlessly, or trying to impress others while quietly wondering: Is this all there is? This book reminds you of something simple yet powerful: you don't need to prove yourself to the world to live fully. You were born with empty hands, and you will leave the same way. What matters is not what you collect, but what you create, give, and experience along the way. Blending timeless philosophy, modern science, and practical life hacks, each chapter is a reflection on what it really means to be human: How to quiet the restless mind and find peace in ordinary moments. Why humility, gratitude, and patience make life lighter and richer. Daily rituals that protect your attention, your body, and your heart. How to let go of ego, comparison, and fear of tomorrow. How to live now, love deeply, and flow like a river toward the whole. Written in a voice that is warm, clear, and relatable, this book is not about quick fixes. It is about returning to truths you already know but may have forgotten in the rush of modern life. If you are searching for meaning, balance, or simply a reminder that life is more than survival, this book will guide you back to what matters most. Quote: "We are nothing for this world — yet within that nothing, we can choose to live with love, patience, and truth." Stop existing. Start living. Flow fully.
