L' "Aujourd'hui" en Luc-Actes, chez Paul et en Hébreux Dominique Angers, 2017-12-18 This book examines the use of the term σήμερον ("today") in Luke-Acts (22 occurrences), the Pauline letters (Romans 11:8; 2 Corinthians 3:14, 15) and the Epistle to the Hebrews (1:5; 3:7, 13, 15; 4:7 [twice]); 5:5; 13:8). It gives special attention to the possible influence of the Deuteronomic today in the New Testament. Two main hypotheses are at the heart of this study. First, the word today, in Deuteronomy as well as the three New Testament corpora under consideration, becomes a theological theme of its own. Second, in the minds of the three New Testament authors who give attention to this motif, there seems to be an awareness of certain theological associations that are bound up with the Deuteronomic today. By the end of this investigation, it becomes apparent that Luke's today, Paul's today and the today of the Epistle to the Hebrews, while each possessing unique characteristics, all contribute to emphasize the same key theological concepts, such as the fulfillment of Scripture, an inaugurated and progressively realized eschatology, the coming of salvation, the heralding of the good news and the proclaiming of God's Word.

Investigation into the Life of Prophet Muhammad Mhamed Najar, Is it possible to write a scientific and historical biography of the Prophet Muḥammad? To what extent can Islamic and external sources be trusted, or critically examined? And what methodology allows us to approach such a complex, multifaceted subject as the Sirah with objectivity and intellectual honesty? In this groundbreaking work, Tunisian scholar Mhamed Najar tackles these questions with clarity, courage, and scholarly rigor. Through a critical and comparative approach, he re-evaluates traditional narratives in light of lesser-known archaeological evidence, ancient inscriptions, numismatics, and contemporaneous non-Muslim texts. This first volume, which covers the Prophet's life from birth up to the eve of the Hijrah, challenges long-held assumptions and offers fresh insights. Among the original findings: the possibility of a forgotten younger brother of the Prophet who died in infancy, a reassessment of the accounts regarding his breastfeeding among the Banū Sa'd, a critical analysis of the narratives of the Isrā' and Mi'rāj, and an in-depth investigation of the legend surrounding Mariyah the Copt. Najar does not limit himself to the Islamic tradition but confronts it with external sources and scrutinizes the textual layers, political contexts, tribal dynamics, and ideological motivations behind the transmission of these reports. This is a pivotal work for readers, scholars, and critical thinkers who seek to move beyond both apologetic and hyper-skeptical approaches, and to explore the Prophet's life at the intersection of history, anthropology, and textual criticism.

The Targums in the Light of Traditions of the Second Temple Period Thierry Legrand, Jan Joosten, 2014-07-07

Although the Jewish Targums were written down only from the second century CE onward, and need to be studied against their Late Antique background, the issue of their connection to earlier sources and traditions is an important one. Do the existing Targums link up with an oral translation of Scripture and, if so, how far does it go back? Do the Targums transmit traditional exegetical material in a distinct form? What is the relation between the Targums and parabiblical literature of the Second Temple period (including the New Testament)? In the present volume, these and other questions are studied and debated by an international group of scholars including some of the best specialists of Targumic literature in all its diversity, as well as specialists of various Second Temple writings.

Dictionnaire des orientalistes de langue française François Pouillon, 2008 Du Maroc à la Chine, l'Orient n'a pas cessé de fasciner un Occident partagé à son égard entre la convoitise et la peur, l'enchantement et la répulsion, le désir de connaître et la volonté de conquête. De la Renaissance à nos jours, des hommes le plus souvent, des femmes quelquefois, ont parcouru les routes lointaines, appris des langues inouïes, observé des mœurs étranges et rapporté de leurs voyages des images, des manuscrits, des objets, des récits et des fables. D'autres en ont rêvé, parlé, sans jamais s'y rendre. Si le terme d'orientaliste nous reste surtout pour qualifier des productions largement fantasmatiques (peinture, romans), il est d'abord attaché à une discipline savante qui s'est inscrite dans des cadres institutionnels solides. Il y eut aussi des cohortes de voyageurs, de missionnaires, d'informateurs, des collectionneurs, des prédateurs parfois, qui ont parcouru l'Orient sous toutes ses latitudes et en ont rapporté quelque chose. Artistes et savants, hommes célèbres et modestes médiateurs, éminents professeurs et aventuriers ambitieux, auteurs de chefs-d'œuvre reconnus ou de travaux obscurs: ils sont un millier regroupé dans ce Dictionnaire des orientalistes de langue française par les soins d'une équipe pluridisciplinaire de spécialistes. A son apogée, au siècle, l'orientalisme l'ut contemporain de l'expansion impérialiste. Aussi est-il la cible, depuis la fin des Empires coloniaux, d'une dénonciation qui se voudrait sans appel. Sans ignorer ce procès ni en casser le jugement, ce dictionnaire entend montrer que la population des agents et porteurs de ces savoirs est infiniment variée et qu'elle échappe aux simplifications réductrices: toute la gamme des motivations, des plus désintéressées au plus sauvagement pragmatiques, nous offre un échantillon d'humanité qui, avec ses grandeurs et ses travers, doit faire finalement la trame d'un certain humanisme. -- Book cover.

L'Apocalypse des animaux (1 Hen 85-90): une propagande militaire? Daniel Assefa, 2007-09-30 For the majority of scholars, the Animal Apocalypse is a militant text, a piece of pro-Maccabean propaganda. This text, however, develops theological reflections that are distinctly different from a justification of an armed struggle. Its themes are even incompatible with the Maccabean movement. It is impossible to condemn the Second Temple and, at the same time, mobilise people for a fight in order to purify that very Temple. After dealing with text-critical issues, this work challenges the thesis that the text is military propaganda through the use of narrative and historical approaches. The analyses, besides proposing a new way of a studying an apocalypse, spell out the peculiarity and the significance of the theology of the Animal Apocalypse in connection with the biblical history of Israel and the theology of the Qumran community.

L'enseignement du mépris Jules Isaac, 1962 Analyzes the Church's teaching of contempt: an official, systematic, and coherent program which lies at the basis of Christian antisemitism, which is as old as Christianity itself. Its aim has been to degrade the Jewish adversary, from whose midst Christianity arose. Characterizes and rebuts the teaching's three main themes: the dispersion of the Jews as God's punishment for the crucifixion; the degenerate state of Judaism at the time of Jesus; and the Jews as a deicide people. The appendixes (pp. 137-192) relate to a controversy between Isaac and Daniel Rops, which began with the publication of Rops' Jésus en son temps in 1946; the abusive interpretation of New Testament texts with regard to the cursing of Israel; and a list of propositions for Isaac's book Jésus et Israël.
