Status Quotes Maurice Wylie, 2016-05-13 This book is a small compiling of quotes that I have been inspired to write and share over the years of my life. Most of these quotes have been birthed from different life events and experiences that have contributed to my intellectual, emotional, and spiritual growth. The title, Status Quotes, comes from the expression, Status Quo, but instead of dealing with the affairs of politics, this book opens up and shines a little light on the affairs of the author's mind. Not to mention, many of these quotes have been used as statuses on many social media pages and platforms. The purpose of this book is to inspire, uplift, encourage, and motivate individuals from all walks of life to live, and to allow some of the greatest lessons in life to be learned through the life we live. There is nothing more, or nothing less to what is written.

Sanford has mastered the perfectly timed art of combining all of these elements into brief daily exchanges and has somehow narrowed down ten years of status updates for your reading enjoyment. Some of these entries might bring back memories of where you were when certain events took place. Others might move you to ponder wildly profound or ridiculous absurdities. Still others might just be some bonus overflow tales and laughs from weddings and other entertainment experience to keep you giggling at life's endless ocean of observations. Who knows? After reading this, you might be inspired to create your own decade-long social media status compilation...
