STEM Education in the Primary School introduces pre-service teachers to the theory, skills and practice of teaching STEM through a project-based learning approach. Young Children in the World and Their Rights Adrijana Višnjić-Jevtić,Alicja R. Sadownik,Ingrid Engdahl,2021-04-20 This book provides different perspectives on the concept of children's rights, including policy, educational, and children's perspectives. It examines how the crucial ideas of the Convention on the Rights of the Child are respected and implemented in 14 countries in five regions of the world. It looks at early childhood education, children's participatory rights, and at how these rights are promoted and guaranteed in different countries. It explores the professional practice of education and its complexities, challenges and dilemmas, as well as the role of play, and of listening and participation. The book advocates children's rights today, arguing for its vital importance, in the best interests of the children. In doing so, it furthers the understanding of children's rights and spreads knowledge about the Convention, as a means of celebrating its 30th anniversary. The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) comprises the potential to change the lives of children to the very best. It may exalt children from the position of marginalized citizens to the centre of policies all over the world. Even though the concept of children's rights is omnipresent, the respect for children's rights must be discussed. While the Convention brings the new perspective of children as citizens to the world, there are still challenges in its application. The book interrogates challenges in understanding and applying children rights and offers possible answers to these challenges. The ratification process itself, does not guarantee that children's rights are respected. While all adults should take responsibility for implementing the UNCRC in everyday life, Early Childhood Education should give opportunities for children to learn and live their rights.

Young Children's Community Building in Action Louise Gwenneth Phillips, Jenny Ritchie, Lavina Dynevor, Jared Lambert, Kerry Moroney, 2019-07-04 Rethinking the concepts of citizenship and community in relation to young children, this groundbreaking text examines the ways in which indigenous understandings and practices applied in early childhood settings in Australia and New Zealand encourage young children to demonstrate their care and concern for others and so, in turn, perceive themselves as part of a larger community. Young Children's Community Building in Action acknowledges global variations in the meanings of early childhood education, of citizenship and community building, and challenges widespread invisibility and disregard of Indigenous communities. Through close observation and examination of early years settings in Australia and New Zealand, chapters demonstrate how practices guided by Aboriginal and Māori values support and nurture children's personal and social development as individuals, and as citizens in a wider community. Exploring what young children's citizenship learning and action looks like in practice, and how this may vary within and across communities, the book provides a powerful account of effective pedagogical approaches which have been long excluded from mainstream dialogues. Written for researchers and students of early childhood education and care, this book provides insight into what citizenship can be for young children, and how Indigenous cultural values shape ways of knowing, being, doing and relating.

Bachelor Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Communications - Public Relations, Advertising, Marketing, Social Media, grade: 1.0, Campus02 University of Applied Sciences Graz (Marketing), course: International Marketing, language: English, abstract: Die vorliegende Arbeit beschäftigt sich mit dem Thema soziale Medien zwischen Maturanten und Hochschulen. Das Ziel dieser Arbeit war es zu analysieren, welche Bedeutung soziale Medien bei Maturanten als Informationsquelle für das zukünftige Studium besitzen. Die Arbeit gliedert sich in einen theoretischen und praktischen Teil. Der theoretische Teil behandelt zwei Themen - soziale Medien und Hochschulmarketing, welche in das Hochschulmarketing in sozialen Medien konvergieren. Durch Web 2.0 Anwendungen ist es möglich, Dialoge anstatt Monologe im Internet zu führen. In verschiedenen sozialen Netzwerken können Inhalte erstellt, konsumiert und daran teilgenommen werden. Auch Unternehmen können diese sozialen Netzwerke nützen, um Marketingziele zu erreichen. Hochschulen betreiben seit Jahren Marketing, um ein Bewusstsein und einen positiven Ruf am Markt bei den Zielgruppen zu etablieren. Eine dieser Zielgruppen sind potentielle Studenten, welche durch traditionelle Kommunikationsinstrumente wie Messen, Tag der offenen Türen oder Informationsmaterialien gewonnen werden können. Der letzte Theorieteil behandelt das Thema, ob soziale Medien für Hochschulen geeignet sind. Hochschulen profitieren von sozialen Netzwerken, da aktuelle Informationen potentiellen Studierenden bereitgestellt werden. Jedoch werden soziale Netzwerke nicht von Maturanten als mögliche Informationsquelle über das zukünftige Studium bewusst verwendet. Oftmals präsentieren Seiten in sozialen Medien den gleichen Inhalt wie von statischen Webseiten, was jedoch nicht das Ziel von sozialen Netzwerken ist. Derzeit können soziale Netzwerke als Marketinginstrument im Anfangsstadium bei der Ansprache von potentiellen Studierenden betrachtet werden. Der praktische Teil dieser Arbeit untersucht, ob die theoretisch erarbeiteten Inhalte mit der Meinung von österreichischen Maturanten übereinstimmen. 85 Maturanten wurden hinsichtlich ihrer Akzeptanz befragt, ob sie soziale Netzwerke für die

Informationssuche für das zukünftige Studium verwenden. Die Ergebnisse zeigen, dass traditionelle Kommunikationsinstrumente vermehrt verwendet werden. Durch die Erhebung gibt es Informationen, dass Inhalte wie Erfahrungen von Studierenden in sozialen Netzwerken erwartet werden. Schlussendlich kann gesagt werden, dass die Resultate sich mit dem theoretischen Teil decken.

The Importance of Adaptation for Negotiations in Arabian Countries ,2020-07-16 Seminar paper from the year 2017 in the subject Communications - Intercultural Communication, grade: 2,0, University of applied sciences Dortmund, language: English, abstract: This Seminar Paper will exemplify the importance of cultures for business life and especially negotiations. As the central theme I picked out German -Arabian negotiations, how the diverse cultures influence the development of those negotiations and how misunderstandings can be avoided. In his Inauguration speech in 1961 John F. Kennedy once said Let us never negotiate out of fear. But let us never fear to negotiate. Back at that time as well as now this statement captures the importance of negotiations for interpersonal relations. In this era of globalization which started already several years ago, it is becoming more and more important to understand the impact of different cultures on business, and of course private affairs. Through technical and social advances the world becomes more and more connected. Sharing of information becomes faster and easier, behavioral patterns change and the powers in the world are shifting. Because of all these processes it is important like never before to know why other people decide the way they do, and what brought them to that decisions. Only by understanding the opposite a negotiation will conclude in the best result. To find the right access to the topic the word negotiation and the intercultural challenges are shortly explained at the beginning. For defining those challenges in greater detail the next and main part of this Seminar Paper is the analysis and the comparison of the two cultures: Arabian Culture and German Culture. At first a general comparison will show the main differences in the way of life, the way of thinking and behaving between people belonging to these two cultural areas. Which of these aspects have great effects on negotiation style and eventually on the result of business negotiations is shortly portrayed next. To deepen those first impressions the two cultures are then be contrasted according to 3 of Hofstede's 5 cultural dimensions. The implication all those variations can have on a negotiation, are demonstrated at the end by showing a few classical misunderstandings in German-Arabian negotiations and giving examples how variety can be used as an example.

Belonging? Keith G. Banting, Thomas J. Courchene, F. Leslie Seidle, 2007 Diversity is one of Canada's defining characteristics. Yet here, as in other Western democracies, diversity policies are being called into question by developments such as the growing salience of identity, race and religion. Do minorities really feel they belong to the country? Is discrimination still a reality? Is social cohesion being strained? In this volume, leading scholars from Canada, Europe and the United States explore two broad policy agendas: first, the multicultural agenda, which focuses on recognizing cultural differences, helping minorities express their distinct identities and practices, and building more inclusive conceptions of citizenship; and second, the integration agenda, which seeks to bring minorities into the mainstream, strengthen the sense of mutual support and solidarity, and reinforce the bonds of a common community. The authors of these 15 chapters and 8 commentaries examine these questions from a range of perspectives, with a focus on ethnocultural minorities and indigenous peoples. In their concluding chapter, the editors discuss priorities that emerge from the analysis and relate them to the objectives of strengthening belonging and shared citizenship. Book jacket.
