Anastasia Songbook Lynn Ahrens,2017-05-01 (Vocal Selections). This hit musical adapted from the 1997 Disney film of the same name came to Broadway in April 2017. Our vocal selections feature piano/vocal arrangements of 14 songs by Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty, including: Close the Door * Everything to Win * Journey to the Past * Learn to Do It * Once upon a December * Paris Holds the Key (To Your Heart) * A Rumor in St. Petersburg * Still * and more.

Never Over Clare Gilmore,2025-10-28 A swoony second-chance romance where facing the one who broke your heart could be the thing that makes your dream come true. Twenty-five-year-old Paige Lancaster is one contract away from earning a living doing her favorite thing in the world: writing songs. But when a music industry professional suggests she might be holding back with her lyrics to lessen the heartbreak of an old flame, Paige doubts if her music is ready to be heard. In a rare, impulsive move, Paige reaches out to Liam Bishop after four years of no-contact to ask him for a small favor: date her, and then re-break her heart, all so she can remember what those big, songworthy emotions felt like. And since Liam is the one who first set Paige on this career path, he hesitantly agrees. Across two months of Liam's summer work travel, the exes are forced to share hotel beds, rehash the past, and date in the present, all while navigating the building attraction between them they both swore was the one line of their agreement they wouldn't cross. But when it becomes near impossible not to act on their rippling chemistry, and as ever intensifying feelings blur reality with what's driven by the music, Paige and Liam will both have to decide which is more important: art for the sake of it, or love over everything.

Like No Other Time Thomas Daschle,Michael D'Orso,2003 Tom Daschle, the Majority Leader of the historic 107th Senate, presents a candid insider's account of the workings of the U.S. government during two of the most tumultuous years in the nation's history. The 107th Congress faced a time like no other in the life of the nation. This was the era of the first presidential election to be decided by the United States Supreme Court, the fifty-fifty Senate, the horror of September 11, the anthrax attacks on media and the government (including Daschle's own office), the war on terrorism, corporate scandals that shook the economy, the inexorable move toward war with Iraq, and other dramatic events, all leading up to the historic midterm elections of 2002. Through it all, Senator Tom Daschle had, with the exception of the President, the most privileged view of these unfolding developments, both in front of and behind the closed doors of government. In Like No Other Time, Daschle offers a riveting account of his singular perspective on a time when the nation faced deadly and elusive external enemies and a level of domestic political contention rarely seen in American history. Senator Daschle is un-flinching in his impressions of the key political figures of our time from both parties. The result is an acutely perceptive assessment of how our government met--and sometimes did not meet--the challenges of a remarkable era. As it was during the years of the 107th Congress, the United States is once again at a critical and historic crossroads. Our choices, based on what we have learned from our recent past, will affect our future in profound ways. For Senator Daschle, the first and perhaps most important choice lies with what kind of representation and leadership we want in government. It is a choice between a political party with a core philosophical belief in the power of our collective will to confront these challenges through our government, and one dominated by a group of people who don't like and don't believe in government.

The God of Deserted Memories Dr. Prashant Madanmohan, 2025-04-24 What connects a wistful French chanson, the sunlit memories of a Tamil boy, and the timeless art of Armenian monasteries? In The God of Deserted Memories by Dr. Prashant Madanmohan fondly known as Dr. Leander this extraordinary puzzle comes to life. "Where memory resists and art remembers, a tapestry of ruins, rebellion, and remembrance unfolds. From the sacred stones of Tamil temples to the lost echoes of Armenian sanctuaries and the melancholic soul of Parisian boulevards, three nations unite in one soul—bound by forgotten truths. When art becomes memory—and memory, defiance—one man must journey through silence to song, reclaiming the lost voice of civilization. Because what we forget, we risk losing forever." In this visionary blend of memoir, fiction, cultural philosophy, poetry and art history, The God of Deserted Memories takes readers on a haunting, soul-deep journey through the ruins of forgotten civilizations, sacred art, and fractured identities. Told through the parallel narratives of Leon Garamond, a retired surgeon-philosopher, and the author's own lived reflections, the book traverses the streets of France, Armenia and India—each echoing with stories history tried to silence. Along the way, Leon encounters artists, revolutionaries, poets, and philosophers—from Balzac, Camus, Charles Aznavour to Lusik Aguletsi and Bharatiyar—each voice resisting cultural erasure through acts of creation and remembrance. With over 35 original paintings by Armenian artist Mari Poghosyan, this book is not just read—it is felt. Themes explored include: The secret shapes of memory and cultural genocide Literary and artistic resistance to historical amnesia The role of philosophy, literature, and language in shaping identity The spiritual resilience of Armenia, the poetic rebellion of Tamil Nadu, and the philosophical fire of France The emergence of Fabricism, a new philosophical vision born at the crossroads of civilizations How art and literature can bridge cultures and unite the world In the forgotten corridors of memory stands Leon Garamond—a surgeon turned philosopher, a seeker haunted by questions he can no longer ignore, and a narrator who searches for meaning in forgotten canvases, lost manuscripts, and melodies left unfinished. Their lives are a tapestry of encounters and revelations that bridge cultures separated by distance yet intertwined by their enduring legacies: India, France, and Armenia. As their paths intertwine, so does the fate of stories left untold, cultures erased and memories long forgotten. - Chevalier Dr Raghunath Manet, French Veena Maestro Virtuoso Dancer “Guided by literary greats from Dumas and Voltaire to Bharatiyar and Camus, Leon embarks on a deeply personal exploration of art, literature, and the truths concealed beneath historical distortions. Through his eyes, we traverse from the majestic temples of the Cholas in Tamil Nadu to the poignant ruins of Armenian sanctuaries, from the philosophical boulevards of Paris to the quiet rebellion hidden within poetry and paintings.” - Kalaimamani Dr.Prakash M Swamy, UN Correspondent,Sr International Journalist. At its heart, this book is a meditation on remembrance as resistance. It asks crucial questions: Can identity survive erasure? Can art defy the ravages of time? And can memory become humanity’s greatest act of defiance against oblivion? - Prof. Dr. Lems Nersisyan Blending poignant reflections, philosophical insight, poetic interludes and a vibrant dialogue between India, France, and Armenia, the book is more than a journey—it is a call to remember, a plea to reclaim truths buried by power, and an urgent invitation to weave unity from our rich diversity. - Mari Poghosyan, Armenian Artist & Cultural Curator
