The Not So Good, The Bad, and The Downright Ugly Dr. Joey Beeson, 2024-02-21 This book captures stories from leaders from various business sectors. In a lighthearted way, through exploring five bad leadership characters, and at times in some heavyhearted ways, this book effectually draws upon history, Scripture, and personal experiences to provide insights into what to avoid or not do if you want to be a great leader. Most leaders have ample opportunities for training to learn and, with the addition of experience, to tell and guide them on what it means to be a good leader. Plenty of excellent books, articles, studies, and videos have been published on how to be a good, effective leader. But what about learning from our experiences of what NOT to do to be an effective, good leader? What if leaders were to consider and value the stories of what to avoid, what not to do, how not to be hated, and how not to destroy a team or organization? Readers of this book will realize they have likely experienced what is captured in its pages, either in part or whole. Take heart. You are not alone in what you have experienced, and rather than engage in a comparison game of whether you have experienced worse situations, this book focuses on learning opportunities from leadership principles and stories. Experience can be a great teacher, even when it is a negative experience. If nothing else, we understand what not to do. Or, when we observe or experience someone in leadership do something destructive, we say and commit to practice that "I will never do that when I lead."

Growing Songwriting Associate Professor of Music Education Clint Randles, 2024-08-13 The history of music education over the past 100 years has centered on traditional band, choir, and orchestra models. Yet music education has always secured a prominent place in the curriculum when it captures the musical imagination of the masses, and research has shown that more and more students are seeking alternative opportunities to engage with music. Songwriting is a 21st Century curricular offering that considers who we are as a society--our desires, our goals, our passions. Most often, songwriting occurs in Modern Band classes that are beginning to pop up all around North America and many parts of the world. This book provides curricular support for those efforts as we look to the present and future of music teaching and learning.

A music video for the song was directed by Linkin Park turntablist Joe Hahn. On March 28, 2012, Mike Shinoda confirmed that the first single for Living Things would be Burn It Down. Lead singer Chester Bennington talked about the song in an interview with MTV, saying what made the song interesting was the really high energy and the really strong electronic melodies and hooks kind of set this song apart, which is why we chose it as our first single. Shinoda also said that the song's meaning can be open to numerous interpretations, with an example being what we do in pop culture, where...

De groep werd persoonlijk gevraagd door Michael Bay, regisseur van de film, om een nummer voor de film op te nemen maar de band antwoordde dat ze geen geschikt nummer hadden om voor hem te draaien. Bay toonde vervolgens enkele scènes van de film aan de groep, zodat zij het gevoel van de film over konden brengen naar het nummer. De band schreef vier demo's, Optimus,

Bumblebee, Starscream en Megatron. Met het laatste werd verder gewerkt tot de huidige New Divide. Het nummer is geïnspireerd door de thema's van de film en vooral het karakter van Sam Witwicky, gespeeld door Shia LaBeouf, die zijn verleden tegen zijn toekomst bevecht. In de...
