My Life Brett Lee, James Knight, 2012-06-01 Brett Lee is one of cricket's most prolific personalities. Recipient of the prestigious Allan Border Medal and a former Test Player of the Year—the blond speedster has amassed over 300 test wickets, and continues to add more feathers to his cap. Tearing in at over 160 kilometres an hour, 'Binga' has dented many a helmet and inspired fear in the best batsmen. My Life is his story—honest, engaging, and laced with charming wit. The book takes you inside the dressing room and sheds light on the highs and lows of the game—the pride of possessing a baggy green, the camaraderie between the boys, superstardom, and the inevitable controversies. It provides a glimpse into the life of one of Australia's most successful fast bowlers and his love for music, fashion, and above all India.

Brett Lee - My Life Brett Lee, James Knight, 2013-03 The much anticipated autobiography of one of cricket's greatest fast bowlers. Brett Lee is known throughout the cricketing world as one of the fastest and most exciting pace bowlers to play the game. Intimidating while charming, decent yet ferocious, he is known for his quick-one liners as much as his gutsy bottom-order batting. He has been recorded bowling at speeds of over 160km/h leaving batsmen with only a fraction of a second to react once the ball leaves his hand. Brett was born and raised in Wollongong, New South Wales where he grew up with his family and their shared love of sports. Brett tried his hand at many sports but cricket proved to be the one that he excelled in. He had his first official game of cricket at the age of nine. He quickly developed into a very talented player and progressed through the cricket ranks to be in a position where he gained selection for his state at the age of 21 and his country at 24. Brett made his debut for Australia in the Boxing Day Test against India 1999. He finished his first match for his country with figures of 5/47. He has now picked up 310 wickets from 76 Tests, joining the elite 300 Test wicket club before retiring from Test cricket earlier this year to concentrate on the shorter forms of the game. He also has a formidable limited-overs record - with 324 wickets from 186 ODIs. Brett has one of the best strike-rates in the world for this form of the game. His pace bowling combined with his ability as a hard hitting and determined tail end batsman make him a crowd favourite throughout Australia and the world. Brett was awarded Man of the Series for the 2007/2008 Test series against India and the 2007 Alan McGilvray Medal by ABC radio. Then in February he 2008 won the 2008 Test Player of the Year and the prestigious Allan Border Medal 2008 for cricketer of the year. Brett is an enthusiastic and motivated sportsman who is grateful for all of the opportunities that have come his way. He remains a grounded person who is generous with his time in and out of cricket.

Do you feel stuck and know you have more to offer the world than what you are doing right now? If you are yearning to make a change in life, Ride Of Your Life will be your inspiration and guide. Back in 2010, research scientist and entrepreneur Ran Zilca set out from his home in New York on a motorcycle, bound for California in search of the next chapter in his life. Along this soul-searching journey, he spent hundreds of hours in contemplation on the road, met with fellow travelers from all walks of life, and interviewed leading experts in research labs, spiritual centers, and temples all across the country. From Iron Butt to Melted Heart Marshall Madill,2021-07-06 Inspired by a newspaper article, Marshall Madill had dreamed of riding a motorcycle to Alaska since the days of his youth. However, this dream consisted of a leisurely ride by day, taking in all the sites, and sleeping under the stars by night. In his mind, Marshall had always budgeted an entire month for this trip. And while Marshall and his wife Jan are avid motorcycle enthusiasts, he really never envisioned himself as an Iron Butt motorcyclist. An Iron Butt in the motorcycle world is someone who rides their motorcycle one thousand miles in a single twenty-four hour period. Marshall and Jan felt they were really being aggressive when they rode four hundred miles in a day. The one time they did seven hundred miles in a day, neither could hardly walk or sit down either one. They were in quite a predicament. Marshall had absolutely no desire nor intent to even attempt to ride his motorcycle one thousand miles in a day. Then one day, he discovered a handful of fellow motorcycle enthusiasts that he knew were avid Iron Butt participants. Being competitive by nature, his attitude about Iron Butt riding began to temper. Soon he was hearing about an Iron Butt event called 48 States Plus Alaska In 10 Days or Less. When Marshall heard it involved Alaska, his interest was immediately peaked. He spent the next fifteen months planning and preparing for this Iron Butt ride. He prepared physically. He prepared mentally. He studied and memorized the maps of the route, which would take him to every one of the 48 Contiguous United States of America and then on to Alaska. This route would cover over 8,600 miles in less than 10-days. Marshall would definitely need to be an Iron Butt in order to accomplish this goal. This is the story of how Marshall planned and prepared for the ride. It is the story of the life lessons Marshall learned throughout the planning, preparation, the ride itself, and even since the official trip was completed. It is the story of how God invited Himself along for the journey and it's the story of how Marshall was transformed from an Iron Butt to a Melted Heart by the special individuals that he encountered all along the journey. Come along Marshall relives and shares with you this adventure of a lifetime that changed his life forever.

My Jesus Rides a Motorcycle Barbara J. Knutson, 2010-12 Growing up in a large adventuresome family I learned to love variety and risky living. I didn't grow up thinking about motorcycles. After several years of motorcycle riding I now realize that the joy of riding has tied together a lot of my life story as riding takes some risks. A well lived missionary life is not a completely safe life. I have known how very real and loving God is and that is the glue that binds these stories together. I, Barbara, a wife, mother of five, grandmother and missionary invite you to take a glimpse into my life and walk of faith.

The Heart to Ride Derek Blalock, 2018-02-15 The Heart to Ride details Derek Blalock's 7,000-mile journey by bicycle across the United States to raise funds and awareness for the Thomas Smith Memorial Foundation and teen heart health. On January 29, 2011, in the town of Flushing, Michigan, Thomas Smith died of sudden cardiac arrest induced by hypertrophic cardiomyopathy -- a disease in which the heart muscle abnormally thickens. He was one of two thousand athletes under the age of twenty-five that die each year of sudden cardiac arrest. As years passed, Derek Blalock felt his life spinning out of control. He was just one year away from graduating from Michigan State University and felt his life had little meaning. Bouts of depression throughout college and a need to make a difference forced Derek to make a change. Just days following his senior year of college, Derek embarked on this solo adventure that took him up snow-capped mountains of the Rockies, through the prairies of Kansas and along the majestic Pacific Ocean. However, the furthest Derek had ever ridden a bicycle was the mile it took to cross MSU's campus. He had no clue how to change a tire. No clue how to fix a chain. No clue what a pannier was. This memoir tells the story of how Derek had to overhaul his mind and body to accomplish this daunting task that eventually raised $15,000 for the Thomas Smith Memorial Foundation while witnessing first-hand a different type of America not always visible in the social bubbles we tend to find ourselves.

Life Is a Road, Ride It Hard! Daniel Meyer, 2005-08 That would have been unnerving enough, but the shape of the thing convinced me it moved with a purpose. What I saw, just for a moment, was a dragon. Born of lightning and fire, it flew into the air, writhed in the pleasure of its freedom, and screamed in ecstasy as it flew toward me 10,158 miles. Incredible thunderstorms, raging forest fires, dense smoke, hail, sleet, cops, a half-a-dozen paramedics, bears, and even a dragon or two you know the usual stuff. Ride the Alaskan Highway all the way there and back again. It's 4365 miles each way, Dallas to Fairbanks
